"A Fresh and Vigorous Novel."

HARPER & BROTHERS, NEW-YORK,
Publish this Day:
ON GUARD.
A NOVEL.
By ANNIE THOMAS,
Author of "Denis Donne" and "Theo. Leigh."
8vo, paper, 50 cents.
MISS THOMAS'S NOVELS.

Miss Thomas's writing is fresh and vigorous. Her sketches of character are full of cleverness.—[Saturday Review.

Miss Thomas displays an even vigor of diction which few of her sex possess. Strong power of language and clear definition are Miss Thomas's principal resources.—[London Athenæum.

Its characters, men and women whom everybody has met, are drawn with wonderful vigor, freedom and freshness.—[London Press.

Miss Thomas need not have either doubt or fear as to the place which will be awarded her among our modern novelists.—[London Morning Post.

Miss Thomas will, we think, rank high among that class of novelists of whom Miss Evans (George Eliot) is the first.—[London Reader.

A PARLOR NOVEL.
MOTHERS AND DAUGHTERS.
By MRS. GORE,
Author of "Castles in the Air," etc., etc., etc.

"Another of Mrs. Gore's delightful productions—A Parlor Novel—just suited by its refinement and delicacy of sentiment, and its admirable life lesson, for the perusal of 'Mothers and Daughters.'"—[London Examiner.

"Mrs. Gore combines moral instruction with pleasing and delightful romance. The present work is a chef d'œuvre—a book for our homes—full of charming sentiment and refined taste, and presenting a lively and agreeable picture of female character."—[London Spectator.

"In her delineations of female character Mrs. Gore is peculiarly happy; but she was never more so than in the present instance. 'Mothers and Daughters' is one of the most fascinating novels of the day—a production that does honor alike to the principles and genius of the authoress—[London Athenæum.

NEW-YORK SEMI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE.
THE NEW-YORK SEMI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE is published every TUESDAY and FRIDAY, and contains all the Editorial articles, not merely local in character; Literary Reviews and Art Criticisms; Letters from our large corps of war correspondents; Foreign and Domestic Letters; Special and Associated Press Telegraphic Dispatches; a careful and complete Summary of Foreign and Domestic News; Exclusive Reports of the Proceedings of the Farmers' Club of the American Institute; Talks about Fruit, and other Horticultural and Agricultural Information; Stock, Financial, Cattle, Dry Goods and General Market Reports, which are published in THE DAILY TRIBUNE. It frequently contains articles which the great pressure of advertisements will not permit us to put in the Daily Edition. THE SEMI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE also gives, in the course of a year, THREE or FOUR of the BEST AND LATEST POPULAR NOVELS
by living authors. The cost of these alone, if bought in book-form, would be from six to eight dollars. If purchased in the ENGLISH MAGAZINES from which they are carefully selected, the cost would be three or four times that sum. Nowhere else can so much current intelligence and permanent literary matter be had at so cheap a rate as in THE SEMI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE. Those who believe in the principles and approve of the character of THE TRIBUNE can increase its power and influence by joining with their neighbors in forming clubs to subscribe for THE SEMI-WEEKLY Edition. It will in that way be supplied to them at the lowest price for which such a paper can be printed. Persons residing in the city can find no more valuable journal to send to their country friends.

QUARTERMASTER-GENERAL'S OFFICE,
WASHINGTON, D. C., May 28, 1865.
NOTICE.—SALE OF ARMY MULES.—Many thousands of MULES are being disposed of at public sale, at Washington.
The sales will continue until the number of animals is reduced in proportion to the reduction of the armies, now going on rapidly.
There are in the Armies of the Potomac, of the Tennessee and of Georgia probably 4,000 of the finest six-mule teams in the world.
Many of them were bought in the beginning of the war, as young mules, accompanied the armies in all their marches and camps, and are thoroughly broken, hardened by exercise, gentle and familiar, from being so long surrounded by the soldiers.
The whole South is stripped of farming stock, and the North also has suffered from the drain of animals, taken to supply the armies.
These animals are sold at public auction; they will not bring anything like their true value; and such opportunities for farmers to get working animals to stock their farms, and for drovers and dealers in stock to make good speculations by purchasing them and disposing of them in the South, will never occur again.
M. C. MEIGS,
Quartermaster General, Brevet Major-General.
