LATEST

CARNEGIE SCANDAL.

The Company Settles With the Government and is Exonerated From Blame.

WASHINGTON, March 26.—Secretary Herbert today sent to the house an answer to the Cummings resolution calling for the statement of the details of the recent alleged violation by Carnegie, Phipps & Co. of the contracts with the United States for the manufacture of armor plate for the navy. The secretary's answer gives in detail the history of the progress and discovery of one of the most gigantic frauds known in our naval administration. A sketch of the most interesting portions of the secretary's communication is here given.

Some time last September the secretary received from James Smith of Pittsburg, attorney representing certain persons in the employ of the Carnegie Steel company (limited) of Pittsburg, notice that these employes had in their possession information which would be valuable to the government, relating to frauds then being perpetrated by certain employes of the company, which they would give to the government for a sufficient consideration.

The secretary agreed if the information should lead to the recovery of money from that company to remunerate the informers from the sum recovered, but not to pay any expenses. Three of the employes and the attorney were carefully examined by the secretary, who was satisfied that their statements were not without foundation and determined upon a thorough investigation.

Captain Sampson, chief of the bureau of ordnance, was acquainted with the facts developed, and calling to his aid Prof. Alger and Lieutenant Ackerman of the ordnance bureau, proceeded to make a thorough investigation. This investigation showed that the test plates had been plugged and re-treated and sustained the charge of the informant. In a report to the secretary the chief of ordnance and his associates assessed damages sustained by the government at 15 per cent upon the amount of armor delivered to the government and upon all premiums received.

Mr. Frick, superintendent of the works, was acquainted in full with the transactions. He was greatly surprised at the existence of the frauds and took particular pains to see that they ceased. He desired, however, to appeal the case to the president on the amount of damages assessed. The president after a careful examination of the facts said:

"I am willing to assume that the faulty construction began on the third day of November, 1892, and was concluded on the sixteenth day of September, 1893. On all the armor manufactured for the government between these dates, I think 10 per cent from the price should be deducted.

"The amount so manufactured is reported 2,645,937 tons and is valued at $1,404,894. Ten per cent of this value is $140,489, and this amount in my opinion should be forfeited to the government."

Mr. Frick was notified and came again to Washington and a settlement was effected according to the terms of the agreement. The Carnegie Steel company paid into the bank of Pittsburg, Pa., to the credit of the informants, $35,121, and it credited vouchers for armor furnished to the government with $105,360, which vouchers are now on file in the department. No money, whatever, passed through the hands of the department.

Secretary Herbert concludes: "Although the armor furnished is believed to be better than any yet furnished to the ships of other countries, the government imposed penalties as an indication of its intention contractors must in the future fulfill completely the very high standard laid down in their agreements.

"The department deems it proper to state throughout the whole of its transactions nothing occurred to show that any officer of the navy had been guilty of conniving at any of these irregularities. Neither is there anything whatever to show that any director of the company had any knowledge of the transactions herein set forth. The department has redoubled its vigilance at all points and wherever night work is being done, for the government, inspectors are required to be on duty night and day."

ROBBERY AND BRIBERY.

Two More Arrests Made in Mekeel Columbian Stamp Case.

ST LOUIS, March 26.—Two more arrests have been made by the U. S. authorities of the Mekeel Columbian stamp case. The arrested men are Postmaster Charles Kyle of Bolton, Ills., charged with receiving bribes, and O. E. Goodsell, stenographer for Mekeel, charged with conspiracy to bribe the postmaster.

This is in addition to the case in which warrants were recently issued against C. H. Mekeel of the Mekeel stamp and printing company, and H. L. Scott, charging them with bribing Postmaster Baker, of Shrewsbury, Mo., who is also under arrest, to cancel and so increase the value to collectors of Columbian stamps of large denominations.

The men arrested are alleged to have made an agreement with several fourth-class postmasters to cancel such stamps and to return them as a reward for putting extra business in their way, half of the commission allowed postmasters by the government.

U. P. NOT BANKRUPT.

The Receivers Spring a Surprise by Saying the Road is Flourishing.

OMAHA, March 26.—The Union Pacific, Denver & Gulf case came up for hearing this morning before Judge Caldwell and a surprise was sprung by the attorneys for Receiver Frank Trumbull, who withdrew the demurrer already filed and in its place submitted an answer in which it is alleged that the Union Pacific railroad company is not bankrupt, but that it is in a flourishing condition and its earnings cover the interest on the bonded indebtedness, its operating expenses and the payments due by law to the United States government and in addition thereto a surplus.

Galesburg Gets It.

GALESBURG, Ill., March 26.—Today the committee representing the citizens of Galesburg approved unreservedly the agreement submitted by C. W. Williams, the horseman of Independence, Iowa, by which Williams binds himself to remove his entire establishment here, and to operate a district fair and race track. Williams was not present in person.

FENCED UP A RAILWAY.

A Farmer Near Leavenworth Builds Across the Southwestern Track.

LEAVENWORTH, Kan., March 26.—Jas. C. Stone, Jr., through whose big farm southwest of this city the abandoned Leavenworth, Topeka & Southwestern railway runs, has fenced up the road where it enters and leaves his property and posted notices to prevent trespassing.

He has also served General Superintendent J. O. Brinkerhoff at Kansas City with formal notice that he has taken possession of the right-of-way, on the ground that the railway company has forfeited its right by abandonment.

Mr. Stone this afternoon begun suit in the district court for foreclosure of company's improvements. There is about one mile of the road on his premises.

A. P. A. IN POLITICS.

A Ticket Headed "American Citizens" is Brought Out at St. Joe.

ST. JOSEPH, MO., March 26.—The A. P. A. has taken a hand in the local election here, having printed a ticket with the names of all Catholics left off. The ticket is headed "American Citizens," and on it are the names of all candidates except those to whom the society is opposed. Both the Democratic and Republican candidates for mayor are left off.

WALKING ON THE WATER.

A Curious Sight in the Hudson River on Easter Sunday.

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., March 26.—Capt. Wolfe of the brig tug Susie, while cruising around the piers of the Poughkeepsie bridge yesterday afternoon, saw a man standing upon the middle of the river about two miles away, with apparently nothing under him to support him. He steamed up to him and then within hailing distance shouted: "Hello, where did you come from?"

"From Chicago," roared back a big brawny Swede. The stranger had soap boxes fastened to his feet, and although the water came up to his ankles he was successfully preserving his balance and paddling his own canoe from the western to the eastern shore. He was taken on board the tug and a free trip to New York on one of the Poughkeepsie night boats was given the man of the soap box skates.

THE LAW PROTECTS IT.

The Sugar Trust Monopoly is Perfectly Legal Says Judge Butler.

PHILADELPHIA, March 26.—Judge Butler of the United States supreme court today decided that the sugar trust did not act contrary to law when it absorbed the Philadelphia sugar refineries.

Shortly after the consummation of the big sugar deal, the government brought suit for the purpose of having the trust dissolved on the ground that the combination was contrary to law.

TELEGRAPHERS IN LUCK.

President Clark of the Union Pacific Concedes All Their Demands.

OMAHA, March 26.—Judge Caldwell will not have to hear arguments by the Union Pacific telegraphers in regard to wages, for the operators have compromised their case with the officials of the road.

President S. H. H. Clark has agreed to accept the terms offered by the men. The men claim that they have scored a big victory, and have secured every concession which they demanded.

ILLEGAL FEES.

A Suit Begun Against the County Clerk at Wichita.

WICHITA, Kans., March 26.—County Attorney Boone has filed suit in the district court by order of the county commissioners against County Clerk M. A. Carvin to recover over five thousand dollars collected as fees and said to be illegally collected under a recent decision of the supreme court.

No fraud or defalcation is charged. The fees were for filing of titles, certain affidavits, etc. The case will be hard fought and county clerks all over the state are manifesting an intense interest.

INVESTIGATING JENKINS.

The House Committee Leaves for Milwaukee Today.

WASHINGTON, March 26.—The investigation by the sub-committee of the house judiciary committee into Judge Jenkins anti-strike injunction against the Northern Pacific railroad employes, will be held in Milwaukee, beginning Monday next.

The subcommittee consisting of Messrs. Boatner, Terry of Arkansas, and W. A. Stone of Pennsylvania, will leave here for Milwaukee Saturday. The committee is considerably hampered by the fact that it has but $500 at its disposal.

LOCAL MENTION.

Judge Elliott this afternoon performed the ceremony uniting in marriage Mr. Con Norton and Miss Lelia Bessie Stewart.

Cliff Histed was this morning elected judge pro tem of the district court to relieve Judge Hazen in the hearing of motions for today's business.

I will do anything to spread a good word for it wherever I may place foot or hand.

M. D. FERGUSON, Guardian U. S. Appraiser's Stores, Chicago, writes:

Gentlemen:—Being almost entirely deaf for a period of years and getting no relief from doctors, I was induced to try your Catarrh Powder on my testimony. Have continued my hearing entirely, so that I can now hear a watch ticking at a long distance. Thus my hearing is restored to me, which I feel very thankful for, and have recommended it to many of my friends and can say I have never heard of a case where it has failed to cure.
