FOR SALE—A tract of COAL LAND, containing 400 acres and allowance, in Blakely Township, Luzerne County, Pa., bounded by lands of the Delaware and Hudson Canal Company, George M. Hollenbach, the Boston and Lackawanna Coal Company, and others. The coal in this tract has lately been "proved," and all the veins known in the vicinity found. It is favorably situated for mining, on the Lackawanna River, about a mile from the town of Archbald, and is accessible to market by railroad to Scranton, where coal can be shipped by railroad either to New-York or Philadelphia. There are 12 or 15 frame dwellings on the property, most of them tenanted, and a saw-mill on the Lackawanna River, with a never-failing water-power. The timber on this land has been preserved, and is very fine.
Persons desirous to purchase will be taken to the property, and the existence of the coal demonstrated. The title to the land is perfectly clear, having been examined by eminent counsel.
Apply to JOSHUA SPERING,

Proposals.

QUARTERMASTER'S OFFICE, No. 17 STATE-ST., NEW-YORK, Oct. 2, 1865.
PROPOSALS for FORAGE and STRAW.—Proposals are invited by the undersigned for the delivery of good merchantable TIMOTHY HAY and STRAW on board of vessels at such wharf in New-York Harbor as may be designated.
The Hay and Straw must be securely baled, and weigh two thousand (2,000) pounds per ton, exclusive of wood.
Proposals must state plainly the quantity, price, and time of delivery.
The Hay and Straw will be inspected by a Government Inspector, and weighed before being shipped.
Proposals will also be received to deliver Hay and Straw at Washington, D. C.; Richmond, Va., and Hilton Head, S. C., subject to the above requirements.
Bids will be accepted from time to time to meet the requirements of the Government.
Payments to be made on delivery, or as soon thereafter as funds for the purpose shall be received.
STEWART VAN VLIET, Brevet Maj.-Gen., &c.

OFFICE OF COMMISSARY OF SUBSISTENCE, No. 2 BRIDGE-ST., NEW-YORK, October 25, 1865.
SEALED PROPOSALS (in duplicate), indorsed "Proposals for Cooked Rations," will be received by the undersigned until 10 o'clock a. m., SATURDAY, the 28th instant, for supplying COOKED RATIONS for four months, from the 1st day of November, 1865 (or for such shorter period as may be directed by the Commissary-General of Subsistence), to all troops in the service, as well as to all other persons properly to be subsisted by the United States Subsistence Department, who may be in New-York city or its immediate vicinity, as well as to those who may be en route to and from the seat of war, and not otherwise provided for.
The rations will consist of three meals each day, of good and wholesome food, and subject to such proper inspection as may be directed by the officer in charge.
The contractor must also furnish the soap and candles that may be required in accordance with the army ration, as follows: four pounds of soap and one and one-quarter pounds of adamantine candles to each hundred rations.
The bidders must state the price per ration, which price must include all expenses, such as furnishing cooking apparatus, fuel, packing-boxes, transportation of the rations, &c.
All bids must be accompanied by a guaranty, signed by the guarantors themselves, as follows:
"We, the undersigned, hereby guaranty that in case the foregoing bid of _____ be accepted, it shall be duly fulfilled according to its true purport and conditions; also, that a written contract shall be executed with two bonds in the sum of ten thousand dollars each.
Names of guarantors, _____
Bidders must give their names in full, and also state their place of residence and of business. They must be present at the opening of the Proposals, and be fully prepared with their sureties to sign immediately the contract and bond. Evidence must be shown of the entire responsibility of each surety. Any informality will be the cause of the entire rejection of the Proposal; and any other than a genuine bid, made in perfect good faith, will subject the person making it and the guarantors to the extreme penalty of the law.
Each bid must have a printed copy of this advertisement attached to it.
The Government reserves the right to reject any bid which seems unreasonable or disadvantageous to it.
Payments to be monthly, in such funds as may be furnished by the United States.
FRANCIS E. BERIER, Capt. and C. S. Vols.
