SOCIETY

A marriage of interest which took place in Lawrence Tuesday was that of Miss Morella Brock and Mr. George M. Noble, jr., both of Atchison, the latter a son of Mr. and Mrs. George M. Noble, 915 Harrison street, Topeka. Mr. and Mrs. Noble left last night for a western trip and will visit Mr. Noble's parents in Topeka on their return before they go to Atchison where they will make their home. Mr. Noble is a traveling salesman for the Atchison Oatmeal & Cereal company.

Mrs. George M. Noble's attractive house on Harrison street was the scene of a delightful matinee musicale today given by Mrs. Noble and her sister, Mrs. J. M. French, in honor of the latter's daughter, Miss Bessie Bailey, who returns soon to her studies in piano at the Northwestern university music school, Evanston, Ill. The rooms were effectively decorated with field and garden flowers the broad veranda having been made especially pretty with jardinieres of golden rod, black-eyed Susans, sunflowers, purple thistles, asters and dahlias. The programme was by Miss Bailey, assisted by Miss Mary Emily Daniels, soprano. Miss Daniels is also leaving Topeka soon, to take a position as teacher of voice in Philippsburg academy at Owatonna, Minnesota, and the two young artistes delighted their audience with the following interesting numbers:

Prelude in A flat major.....Bach
Waltz, Opus 64, No. 2.....Chopin
Miss Bailey.
Dream o'Day Jill.....German
The Lass With the Delicate Air...Arne
Love Has Wings.....Rogers
Miss Daniels.
En Automne.....Moszkowski
Miss Bailey.
Catch Not Thy Breath (recit)- Go Not Happy Day.....Whelpley
Miss Daniels.
Kamenoi Ostrow.....Rubenstein
Miss Bailey.
Thistledown.....Willeby
(a) The Key to Your Heart.
(b) Neath Your Casement.
The Lark Now Leaves His Watery Nest.....Parker
Miss Daniels.
Rigaudon.....Raff
Miss Bailey.

Fine white cotton crepe of a slightly cream tint is one of the newest materials for separate blouses, this fabric having the advantage over other washable materials in that it is not affected by dampness or crushing. The model was trimmed with a hand-made, round-mesh net insertion, the shaped yoke enclosing a graceful vine design embroidered in white mercerized cotton. The upper yoke and collar were of dotted net, and the sleeves were prettily trimmed with a design of insertion and embroidery.

The dinner dance at the Country club tonight will be the last of the Wednesday evening dinner dances but the Saturday evening dances and table d'hote dinners with music will be continued the rest of this month. The dining room will probably be kept open until October first instead of closing the fifteenth, as was announced last week. Last Saturday night's dance was well attended and as many of the members of the club are returning from their summer travels the Country club season is expected to finish in a flourish.

An interesting event of this afternoon was the golden wedding anniversary reception given by Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Buck at their house in Lincoln street. The hours were from 2 to five o'clock, and the invitation was a general one, including all the friends of the host and hostess. Owing to the ill health of Mrs. Buck, the reception

The marriage of Miss Margaret Devitt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Devitt, and Mr. Edward Stader took place this morning at 7 o'clock at the Church of the Assumption. The Rev. Father Hayden performed the ceremony and the bride was attended by Miss Minnie Houser, maid of honor. Mr. Henry Huster was the best man. The bride wore a gown of white silk mull, trimmed with Val lace, and carried bride's roses. The ceremony was followed by a wedding breakfast at the home of the bride's parents at 219 East Third street at which members of the family were present. Mr. and Mrs. Stader will leave today for Kansas City and St. Louis and will be gone about two weeks. They will be at home on their return at 916 West Seconds street. Mr. Stader is employed by the International Harvester company.

FOR SALE—MISCELLANEOUS.

FORSALE— I have an idea—accepted by experts in the business, as the most practical and successful ever offered, and which sold at sight to 9 of Topeka's most successful and professional men Saturday, August 29th, for $15.00 each. This is a simple practical idea, and will net the promoters not less than $10,000 the first year, and being a cash proposition there is absolutely no chance to lose. I need $1,000 to put the idea in operation on a large scale, and will sell one-fifth interest in the idea for that amount. Only a part of the time of the investor would be required, not to exceed one hour per day, and as the duty of handling all money and paying all bills would fall on this party, it is necessary that he possess absolute integrity, gilt edge references, and be willing to furnish bond, which will be furnished by myself. If you want to get in on a proposition that will pay big returns from the beginning, and be a permanent business, a personal interview and full information can be had by addressing B. P. H., care Topeka State Journal.

FOR SALE—3 fine carpets, set of elegant mahogany parlor furniture, oak bed room set, leather couch, chairs, fine large hard coal stove, bicycle, etc.; also canned fruit, flower pots. I am going to California and therefore will sell my residence and some of the furnishings at a bargain price. Dr. Lux, 1253 Western ave.
