PUBLISH THIS DAY, HISTORY
OF THE
RISE AND INFLUENCE
OF THE
SPIRIT OF RATIONALISM IN EUROPE.
BY
W. E. H. LECKY, M. A.
2 vols. small 8vo. $5.
From The Edinburgh Review.
"We opened these volumes, never having heard the name of their author, and entirely ignorant of his pretensions to a place in English literature. We closed them with the conviction that Mr. Lecky is one of the most accomplished writers and one of the most ingenious thinkers of the time, and that his book deserves the highest commendation we can bestow upon it. Indeed, it has seldom been our good fortune to take up an essay by an unknown, and we presume, a young author, so remarkable for the purity and elegance of its style, so replete with varied erudition, appropriately introduced to enliven argument, or so distinguished for broad and dispassionate views. * * * This book well deserves to be universally read and carefully studied, for if the eye is dazzled at first by the brilliancy of the fervor, the mind is interested and occupied by the subtlety and penetrativity of a thousand observations which escape notice on a first perusal. In a word we hope to see this work take its place among the best literary productions of the age, and we doubt not that it will powerfully conduce to the ultimate triumph of that cause to which it is devoted."

It is with great pleasure we announce that the closing days of last week witnessed another tremendous panic in all classes of Dry Goods, especially in Prints, Muslins, Flannels, and Domestics generally. We shall offer TO-DAY a handsome line of genuine Merrimack Prints at the low figure of 25c. a yard. We have also bought largely of Canton Flannels, Wooden Flannels, Cloths, Cassimeres, Dress Goods, Blankets, Alpacas, &c., which we intend offering to our customers almost as low as we bought them ourselves. With no old stock on hand, bought at high prices to cripple us, we admit we are interested in adding our mite toward "breaking" the market thoroughly, and to that end intend for the present to sell goods nearly at cost. AMERICANS visiting ENGLAND, on arriving at Liverpool will find at Messrs. NICOLL'S extensive establishment, No. 50 Bold-st., articles of dress for immediate use, or made to order at a few hours notice. The same superior style and finish is observed at their well-known establishments in Regent-st., London. Fashions for the season—for gentlemen for the promenade or demi-dress. Superfine frock coats, with rich silk breast facings, or morning coats of superior Melton cloths, the charge for the former being 3½ to 4½ guineas; for the latter 2½ to 3½ guineas. For negligé purposes, morning coats with pocket flaps at the waist, also the negligé jacket; these are of Melton fancy coatings, Angola and Cheviots, the prices from 25s. to four guineas. The Angolas and Cheviots are also made in suits, at prices from two to four guineas; evening dress, black cloth of the finest quality. For overcoats—Melton, Beaver, and Whitney Cloths, from two to eight guineas. For young gentlemen—dress and morning suits, Highland dresses, Knickerbockers, overcoats, &c. For ladies—riding habits, cloaks, paletots, jackets, waterproof Guinea Tweed cloaks and coats, &c. The several novelties in designs and fabrics are continued exclusively to Messrs. Nicoll's establishments.
