SHORT ON HOSIERY

Stocking Famine Faces Country—No Knitting Needles.

Skirts Must Come Down—Darn Up Old Socks.

Skirts will have to come down, fashion or no fashion, if the threatened stocking famine breaks as Topeka dealers assert it will. Warnings to housewives and mothers to start darning all the old stockings for winter are being sent out by both retail dry goods men and wholesalers. The warnings are the result of the scarcity of immigrant labor, lack of dyestuffs and German made knitting needles. Germany has almost a monopoly on the knitting needle industry and the absence of needles on the market is giving many ill-supplied local dealers a real scare.

Many of the downtown stores have but a small stock of the smaller sizes of children's stockings and their orders to wholesalers are being sent back.

Prices Going Up, Too.

Wholesalers are predicting that there will soon be no more cheap grades of children's stockings on the market. The lowest price will soon be from 20 to 50 cents. And such winter things as cotton mittens and headgear are also slated for an upward jump.

It is the needle shortage that is most at fault, which, coupled with the increased foreign demand following Germany's isolation, makes the threatened famine a serious affair.

Three knitting needle making factories have started since the opening of the war but they are inadequate to supply the demand.

First indication of the famine, according to local dealers, came when the shortage of German dyes was announced. Then following close on the heels of this announcement came the increase in the price of cotton, then the labor scarcity became noticeable and the final blow was the examination of the surplus supply of knitting needles in this country.

ROVING BANDS BUSY

Capture Garrison; Loot Guggenheim Mine Property.

Juarez, Mexico, Sept. 26.—Roving bands of bandits are reported operating less than fifty miles south of the international border today. With the arrival of several wounded soldiers here, news of the battle of Samalyucs, 42 miles south of this city, spread, causing apprehension among the townspeople of Juarez. According to reports, 200 bandits believed to be Villistas, fell upon the sixty de facto soldiers garrisoning Samalyuca. Part of the garrison surrendered and joined the bandits. Those refusing to join were slaughtered. The wounded were left behind and were later brought north to Juarez.

At military headquarters here a clash between Carranzistas and bandits was denied, but one officer admitted there had been an action and that there was a reason for the hurried departure southward yesterday of General Gonzales with 500 cavalry. Warehouses, mills and the superintendent's residence at Esmeralda Mine, a Guggenheim property at Sierra Mojada, have been looted and burned by bandits, calling themselves Villistas, it was learned today.

ALL SHOOT IN FORM

Many Good Scores Made at Special Gun Club Entertainment.

Despite the fact that a stiff wind swept the range of the traps, some good scores were made at the special shoot of the Topeka Gun club Monday afternoon, which was arranged especially in honor of Phil Miller, the U. S. professional champion.

A squad of seven men faced the traps in the first event and out of the 175 blue rocks shot at, only eight misses were made. This squad was composed of Miller, Stone, Stewart, Taylor, Thompson, Springer and Hoover.

In the 50-bird event, Miller and Stone tied for high score with 46 each and Wolf and Stewart tied for second honors with 45. Taylor broke 44, Hoover 43, Thompson 42 and Springer 37.

Miller, who is only 25 years old, was high professional at the recent Grand American handicap at St. Louis, making a better score than any of the other fifty-five professionals at the big shoot.

PLANNING NEW REVOLT

Woman Arrested in Los Angeles for Plot to Smuggle Munitions.

Los Angeles, Sept. 26.—When Mrs. Margareta Ortega, also known as Mrs. Maria Talvare, was taken into custody by the police on suspicion that she was a member of a group of Mexicans who are said to be organizing a new revolutionary party, papers printed in Spanish are said to have been found on her person giving plans of the "I. W. W. of Mexico" to smuggle arms and ammunition into Mexico at certain points along the border.

Mrs. Ortega is said by Detective Rico, who made the arrest, to have represented herself as the wife of Florez Magon during his recent trial for violation of neutrality laws. She is being held pending an investigation by the federal authorities. The new revolutionary party, according to the papers, was to replace the federal party in Mexico.

WON'T SERVE HAMBURG

No German Dishes Allowed on Dining Cars in Canada.

Chicago, Sept. 26.—"German" dishes are no longer served on dining cars in Canada, according to Doctors A. C. Hess and Charles Mitton, dentists, who returned today from Montreal.

On the way home they entered the diner and Dr. Mitton ordered German fried potatoes.

"Nothing doing," the waiter said. He declared the Canadian war sentiment against the Germans had forced the road to cut out "German" fried potatoes and there was no substitute available.

Then Dr. Hess decided he wanted a hamburger steak. That, too, the waiter explained, was a thing of the past, but the doctor could have a salisbury steak if he wished. He did wish. He got a hamburger disguised as a salisbury.

THE OTHER FELLOW'S FAULTS

How easy it is to see and criticize the faults of someone else. Before you do so, wouldn't it be a lot better to look around at your own? The other fellow may be able to see the "menagerie" you have hovering about you.—H. C.
