OUT TO-DAY!
A superb historic romance, No. 39 of that unexceptionable series,
BEADLE'S DIME NOVELS!
STAR EYES;
Or,
THE SUSQUEHANNAH RANCHERS.
A TALE OF THE FRENCH INDIAN WAR.
By H. J. HAMILTON,
Author of "Eagle Eye and His White Friend," etc.
When Washington was in command at Fort Duquesne, the savages moved down the Susquehannah Valley on their errand of blood. This story recall these times, presenting us pictures of wild forest life and Indian warfare experience which few will forget who read.

THE MERCANTILE AGENCY.
NEW REFERENCE BOOK.
R. G. DUN & Co.
Beg to intimate to their subscribers and the public that they have now in press, and will shortly issue, a new and greatly improved indicating the Capital and general Credit Standing of nearly every Merchant, Trader and Manufacturer in the United States. These estimates and ratings are based upon the revised detailed Reports in our Thirteen and Associate Offices, and condense an amount of and description of information most essential and most useful to every Grantor of Credits.
REFERENCE BOOK,
The issue of the work has been delayed in order to include in it all the numerous changes in firms which occur at the commencement of the year, as also to complete Southern information, which will be found largely augmented in the forthcoming volume.
We shall also issue a smaller edition, containing ratings of all the Merchants in
THE FIFTY PRINCIPAL CITIES
in the United States. This edition will be found particularly useful for Manufacturers, Commission Merchants, Importers, and others, whose business relations are mainly with houses in prominent cities.
Specimen Copies to be seen and terms of subscription made known at the principal office, Nos. 293 and 295 Broadway, or at the Associate Office of E. Russell & Co., Boston, and branch offices in the following cities: Philadelphia, Baltimore, Cincinnati, Pittsburgh, Cleveland, Detroit, Chicago, Milwaukee, Louisville, St. Louis, Toronto and Montreal, Canada, and London, Eng.

AGENTS WANTED FOR HEADLEY'S HISTORY OF THE GREAT REBELLION.—The late Rebellion stands out peculiar and extraordinary in human events; and the MAGNIFICENT CAUSE upon which the war has been conducted, constitutes it one of the GRANDEST AND MOST BRILLIANT CHAPTERS OF THE WORLD'S HISTORY.
Mr. Headley, of all writers, is perhaps best qualified to portray the stupendous features of the mighty contest. His previous works on less momentous themes have placed him in the first position, as a GRAPHIC AND POWERFUL DELINEATOR OF WAR SCENES AND CHARACTERS, and the magnitude and grandeur of the present subject, lumpt in his pen the fire and vigor of a yet more exalted inspiration, and furnish ample scope for the HIGHEST EXHIBITION OF HIS PECULIAR GENIUS FOR MILITARY DESCRIPTION. Under his powerful pen the stirring scenes of the war pass in review with the vividness and distinctness of a present and living reality; while his GREAT TALENT FOR CONDENSATION enables him to embody everything of importance in A COMPASS JUST SUITED TO THE PUBLIC WANT. From no other source can so CLEAR AND COMPREHENSIVE AN IMPRESSION OF THE GRAND MARCH OF EVENTS be obtained so easily and agreeably as from Mr. Headley's work.
The Second Volume, completing this work, (ALSO COMPLETE IN ONE VOLUME), will be issued in March, 1866. Agents wanted to engage in its sale in every town in the United States. Its rapid and unparalleled sale holds out to INDUSTRIOUS AND PERSEVERING men the most satisfactory INDUCEMENTS, and GUARANTEES to them LIBERAL PROFITS than they can obtain from any other book or from almost any other employment.
Agents now in the field are meeting with astonishing success.

AGENTS WANTED—For "THE FIELD, DUNGEON, AND ESCAPE." By ALBERT D. RICHARDSON, N. Y. Tribune Correspondent. The unparalleled sale of 1,000 copies per day is abundant evidence of the popularity of this work. The most interesting and exciting book ever published, embracing Mr. Richardson's unparalleled experience for four years. Traveling through the South in the secret service of The Tribune at the outbreak of the war, with our armies and fleets, both East and West, his thrilling capture, his confinement for twenty months in seven different Rebel prisons, his escape and almost miraculous journey by night of nearly 400 miles. All those who want profitable employment, please send for a Circular. Address AMERICAN PUBLISHING COMPANY, Hartford, Conn.

BOUNTIES TO DISCHARGED SOLDIERS.—Discharged Soldiers who enlisted previous to July, 1863, are requested to call at our office and sign a petition to Congress asking for the passage of a law granting them bounties, &c., equal to those who enlisted subsequently. This class embraces all those who have been discharged for sickness, wounds, promotion, or expiration of term of service.
