STEINWAY & SONS'
GRAND, SQUARE AND UPRIGHT
PIANO-FORTES.

Have taken 32 First Premiums, gold and silver medals, at the Principal Fairs held in this country within the last ten years, and in addition thereto they were awarded a First Prize and Medal at the Great International Exhibition in London, 1862, in competition with 269 Pianos from all parts of the World.
That the great superiority of these instruments is now universally conceded is abundantly proven by the FACT that Messrs. Steinway's "scales, improvements, and peculiarities of construction" have been copied by the great majority of the manufacturers of both hemispheres (AS COULD BE DONE WITHOUT INFRINGEMENT OF PATENT RIGHTS), and that their instruments are used by the most eminent pianists of Europe and America, who prefer them for their own public and private use, whenever accessible.
STEINWAY & SONS direct special attention to their PATENT AGRAFFE ARRANGEMENT, which, having been practically tested in all their Grand and Square Pianos, and admitted to be one of the highest priced Square Pianos, and admitted to be one of the greatest improvements of modern times, will hereafter be introduced in EVERY PIANO MANUFACTURED BY THEM, WITHOUT INCREASE OF COST to the purchaser, in order that ALL their patrons may reap its benefit.
STEINWAY & SONS' PIANOS are the only American instruments exported to Europe in large numbers, and used in European concert-rooms.

HAMLET.
Mr. Booth's engagement closes on WEDNESDAY, 28th. His farewell benefit and last appearance this season will be on THURSDAY, 29th.

A CARD.
BENEFIT
of the
DESTITUTE CHILDREN
of the
SOLDIERS AND SAILORS OF THE WAR.
Mr. EDWIN BOOTH, the distinguished tragedian, will, immediately preceding the close of his present engagement, give a matinée at the WINTER GARDEN on the 24th of March, p. m., for the benefit of the institution in Fifty-eighth-st. for the support of the destitute children of the soldiers and sailors who have been killed in our recent struggle for the Union. The play will be one in which Mr. Booth has not appeared during the present season. As the proceeds will be devoted to aid the ladies of the institution in their efforts to increase their building, that they may meet the incessant demands made upon them for the support of the orphans of the brave men who have fallen upon the battle-field and the ocean, they trust that the citizens of New-York will respond in a spirit evincing their sense of this natural obligation.
Mrs. CHARLES P. DALY, Vice-President.
Mrs. DAVID HOYT, Secretary.
Seats may be secured at Hall's music-store, No. 543 Broadway.
