The International Range Convention.

This convention which assembled in Denver, remained five days in session. A constitution was adopted, and a basis of representation fixed on one delegate for every 10,000 head of cattle, or fraction thereof, with one additional delegate for every 25,000 thereafter. Denver was fixed on as the headquarters of the association, where the annual convention will be held hereafter on each second Tuesday in February.

Col. R. G. Head was elected president by acclamation.

Mr. H. M. Taylor was elected secretary but declined to serve, when Jas. C. O'Leary, of Las Vegas, was chosen instead, and Hon. John L. Routt was elected treasurer.

The business of the association will be managed by an executive committee, composed of one member from each state and territory, which was appointed as follows: Messrs. Gosper of Arizona, Britton of Texas, Lyons of New Mexico, Brown of Colorado, Thomas of Kansas, Herring of Indian Territory, Newman of Montana, Breice of Dakota, Russell of Nevada, and Sparks of Idaho.

The following vice-presidents were elected: White of Arizona, Buzzard of Texas, Dwyer of New Mexico, Woodward of Colorado, York of Kansas, Wilson of Indian Territory, Stewart of Montana, Wier of Dakota, Mason, of Nevada, Mundy of New Mexico, and Hyde of Idaho.

The convention then adjourned until February, 1887.

Very Poor Economy.

Some people make a business of cheating themselves, either by eating very mean and cheap food, or else by eating too small a quantity of good food. Either way is as bad policy as it would be to buy a coffin instead of a suit of good clothes, just because the coffin would cost less. Poor diet means impoverished blood, and that means misery. Brown's Iron Bitters enriches the blood, gives it the iron it needs, and tones up the whole system. Cures dyspepsia, indigestion, weakness, malaria, etc.

Strayed or Stolen.

Seven bay Mares, aged from one to two years; six of them branded 3 on right shoulder; one branded M C D on left shoulder. Parties finding any of them will please notify this office, or A. R. Owens, Winslow, and receive a liberal reward.

SPECIAL NOTICE.
