Frightful Earthquake in the Moluccas!—Eruption of a Volcano—Three Thousand Lives Lost.

The Indian mail brings advices of another of those dreadful earthquakes for which Ternati and the adjoining localities in the Moluccas are proverbial. An eruption of the active volcano on the Island of Great Sangir, in long. 125° 50' E. and lat. 3° 50' N., has occurred. The northwestern part of the island of Great Singir is formed by the mountain Awu which has several peaks, the mountain runs very steep into the sea, at the height of the large village Kandhar, however falling away to a low promontory.

Between 7 and 8 o'clock on the evening of the 2d of March a sudden and altogether indescribable crashing noise was heard, which indicating to the Sangirese an eruption of the volcano, filled them with consternation. Simultaneously with this, the glowing lava streamed downwards with irresistible force in different directions, bearing with it whatever it encountered on its destructive course, and causing the sea to boil wherever they came in contract. The hot springs opened up and cast out a flood of boiling water, which destroyed and carried away what the fire had spared. The sea obedient to an unusual impulse, lashed the rocks with frightful violence, dashed upon the shore and heaved itself with a wild haste against the land as if it strove to overmaster the fire stream.

This frightful picture of destruction, the horror of which was increased by the shrieks of men and beasts, the wild roaring of the tempest, and the crashing of thousands of trees torn up and carried away, was followed, about an hour later, by peals of thunder which shook the ground and deafened the ear. A black column of stone and ashes then shot up from the mountain to an immense height, and fell, illumined by the glare of the lava, like a shower of fire upon the surrounding country below, producing a darkness that, only now and then momentarily broken by the flashes of lightning, was so intense, that people could not discern objects close at hand, and which completed their confusion and despair. Large stones were hurled throught the air, crushing whatever they fell upon. Houses and crops, which had not been destroyed by fire sunk and disappeared beneath the ashes and stones and the hill streams, stopped by these barriers, formed lakes, which breaking over their banks, soon proved a new source of destruction.

This lasted some hours. About midnight the raging elements sank to rest; but on the following day, about noon, they again resumed their work of destruction with renewed violence. In the meantime the fall of ashes continued without intermission, and was so thick on this day that the rays of the sun could not penetrate through it, and an appalling darkness prevailed.

Scarcely recovered in some degree from their fri[illegible] inhabitants of this desolate [illegible]gir were again disturbed by a[illegible] on the 17th March which destroyed may fields and a great number of trees on the Tabukan side.

Since then the volcano has remained quiet, and the only symptom of its working has been the smoke rising up in all directions from cracks and fissures in the ground. The streams of lava on the sloopes are still so slightly cooled' that people dare not venture to any great distance from the shore. According to the accounts of the natives, the top of the mountain does not appear to have undergone any noticeable alteration.

On the other side of Kandhar, on the extreme north point of the island, the appearance of the devastation which has been caused, is if possible, even more frightful than what has taken place at Faruna. For here, were formerly there were to be seen extensive fields bearing all kinds of cocanuts, we now find nothing but lava, stones, and ashes. The liquid fire seems at this point to have flowed from the mountain with irresistible force and in prodigious quanity. Not only has this fearful flood, as it were, buried the whole district and all that was upon it, but after having cause this destruction over an extent of several miles, it was still powerful enough, on reaching the shore, to form two long tanjongs capes at places where the depths of water formerly consisted of many fathoms.

A number of other districts and places have been, some wholly destroyed, others greatly injured by the fire.

The loss of life has been great. It is estimated as follows, in the undermentioned districts: Taruna, women, and children, 45; Tabukan, men women, and children, 2,030; total; 2,806.

The greater number met their death in the gardens. They fled in all directions, but were overtaken and swallowed up by the fatal fire-stream. Some tried to save themselves in the trees, but were either carried away with them or killed by the scorching heat. At Kalangan and Tariang the houses were filled with people, who were stopped in their flight by the lava streaming down on all sides and the streams of boiling water, and who met their death under the burning ashes and the tumbling houses. Many who had reached the shore and thought themselves safe, became a prey to the furious waves, and many died through sheer despair and agony.

COOLNESS IN A MOMENT OF TRIAL!—The Rochester American tells a story of a lady of this city whose dress was stepped upon by a partner in a dance, at a wedding party, while her little feet—

"Beneath the petticoats,
Peeped out and in like little mice,
Which shun the light."

The skirt was torn, and a whalebone thrust out into to circle in a very unseemly manner. The lady coolly took hold of the article, drew it from her dress, and walked to the door and threw it out, and took her place in the cotillion just in time to "forward and back." Although her dress "collapsed," she did not. That lady would walk up to the cannon's mouth, or the altar, without fear or trembling!

Correspondence of the Wabash Express

STANTON, ILLS., Aug. 14, 1856.

DR. O. W. FUGUAY—Dear Sir:

If there ever was a time to shudder at the threatened danger of the American government, surely this is the time—and I apprehend that if there is a preponderance of virtue in the government, the God of Israel will overturn the wicked devices of men, and save the Union. And if not, our once glorious fabric, of equal rights, must fall! A wicked, corrupt political party destroyed the government of Egypt, Greece and Rome, and the experience of all the ancient nations, shows that power continued in the hands of any party, too long, will corrupt and destroy it. Our old line party once sought the glory of the American flag and the good of the people.—But look at it now—the apologist for every vice and the open opposer of every virtue.—Under the pretext of liberty and the Constitution—liberty to do wrong—liberty to trample under foot, one of the first laws of humanity, (enslaving a man,)—liberty to brutalize, disgrace, impoverish and cruelly starve and kill individuals, families and whole communities, by legalizing a traffic in alcohol, which always has, and always will produce such results.—Christian Blackstone lays down the doctrine, that no human law which conflicts with the Divine law is valid—as much as to say, that no Legislature has a legal right to authorize any act which is forbidden by the law of God. But the Democrats claim the right, not only to make such laws, in relation to liquor, slavery, &c., but publicly to denounce all lovers of law and order, and honest, faithful ministers of Jesus Christ, as itinerant vagabonds, and as malign spirits. Although these ministers are required by their high calling, to oppose all those vices, by crying aloud against them and sparing not!

Such is, and has been the guilt of the democratic party, until, I fear, their crimes have gone up to heaven. I have seen their retrograding course for several years, until I was obliged to leave them for the following reasons:

At the commencement of the war with Mexico, my oldest son enlisted under Capt. Simonson, of Charlestown, Ind., for a term of five years, as a mounted rifleman to Oregon, to protect emigrants through. To this, I gave my written consent, my son being under age. He was then taken to Jefferson Barracks, and from there, marched on foot to Vera Cruz and put under Gen. Scott, en route for the city of Mexico, contrary to my contract with the government. To this I had objections; but he was marched away through a scene of dangerous bloody battles. I expected my son to but cut down and die in his sins. But I had only one hope to sustain me—I knew that the Constitution had wisely provided for the appointment of two pious ministers of the Gospel to act as Chaplains to the American army, and on this appointment hung all my hopes for the salvation of my poor boy—that when he fell bleeding, one of these holy men might be present to direct and instruct him how to give his heart to God. That, like the dying thief, my poor suffering son, James Parsley, might find salvation in his last expiring hour! And oh! with what interest and deep anxiety did I listen, inquire and read the papers, to see what holy man of God would receive that appointment. I thought of many ministers—some Presbyterian, some Methodist, some Baptist, and others—what an exciting subject?—Whom would I chose to offer the last prayer, to pronounce the last benediction on a departing child. Great Deliverer! what an important point! A father contemplating the farewell scene of a first born child, a son—how he loves him—how loth to give him up—and the last charge is committed to our spiritual instructor, our favorite minister.—And now behold! the appointment is made! come Protestant fathers, and hear who was appointed to hold the last conference with your dying sons. Oh! what attention—what listening, from ten thousand sympathising fathers—exclaiming who? Who is it? Who are they that are to hand over our dear absent sons to death, and introduce them to their oft offended Maker? Here they are! Both Roman Catholic Priests! Oh, most disconsolate fathers—weeping heart-broken mothers. Oh, David, King of Israel! how we sympathise with you. Absalom! Absalom! Absalom! might be heard pulsating from a thousand father's and mother's hearts. Oh, treacherous, treacherous President, is this Democracy?—Can you barter off the souls of our sons to that Babylonian demagogue, (the Catholic Church). Here, Bro. Fuguay, my Democracy received its first shock—such diabolical alliance between my party and the Catholics.

But again! About the time the war terminated, they introduced a bill into the Legislature, making Bishop Hughes sole agent or lawful owner of all the Catholic property in Indiana. This measure, although most flagrantly unconstitutional, was strongly advocated by a majority of that Democratic Legislature. But for a minority report by a few Whig members showing the absolute unconstitutionality and utter impossibility of bringing such a law to bear under our constitution, the bill was reluctantly dismissed. This measure I esteemed as another omen of evil and proof of alliance. And finally, when a united effort is being made in almost all the earth, to restrain drunkenness, here are the Democrats to oppose and I am off.

Yours very sincerely,
E. H. FARSLEY.

Kansas Meeting in St. Louis.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 26.—The Kansas meeting, yesterday, met at the appointed hour, and organized by choosing Hon. John F. Darby President, and Gen. Ranney and J. M. Wimer, Vice Presidents.

A committee on resolutions was appointed, who reported that being satisfied that organized and armed bands of lawless and desperate men have invaded the Territory of Kansas, with the purpose of expelling peaceable and law-abiding citizens, and in carrying out their purpose have been guilty of arson, robbery and murder, destroying property, burning houses, murdering inoffending citizens while engaged in their lawful concerns, and whereby women and children have been driven from their homes, rendered widows and orphans, houseless and penniless, therefore,

Resolved, That we deeply sympathise with the sufferers, and are willing to extend them shelter and protection, and whatever aid may be necessary to supply their necessities and alleviate their sufferings; that we condemn the spirit of bigotry and fanatical abolitionism which has produced this state of things; that a committee be appointed by the President, to gain the necessary and proper information, and if thought advisable, to visit the scene of the troubles, and report to the President, and if they recommend raising funds for relief of sufferers in Kansas, then that committees be appointed to that effect, and funds raised and properly appropriated; that in no event will we sanction any interference or action against the Constitution, or anything not warranted by law and right; that we desire the Federal Government should interpose to subdue the insurrection and preserve peace, and protect the rights of citizens of that territory.

After the resolutions were adopted, various speeches were made, and the meeting adjourned.

From Washington.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 28.—One of the letters produced by Mr. Cass, in the Senate yesterday, was from Gen. Smith to the War Department, and dated Fort Leavenworth, Aug. 6th. He says he would not notice the reports in the newspapers of parties applying to him for protection and his refusal to grant it, and other such things, if he did not see that the objects for which such reports were circulated are carried out by members of Congress in resolutions of inquiry. He pronounces them all gross fabrications.

In a second letter, dated August 11, he stated that he had received a letter from Gov. Shannon, asking him to take the field to prevent the ingress of Lane's party. He adds: The information given to Gov. Shannon has been so exaggerated that I declined. Capt. Wool, with his company of cavalry, is upon the Northern frontier, and I shall depend upon his report to govern my action. Some of the companies along the Kansas was sent by their commanding officer, at the Governor's request, to break up camps of armed men at several places that he designated. On the arrival of the troops there, not only were no camps to be found, but none had ever existed there or anywhere in the neighborhood.

I know that each party is trying to engage the action of the troops to expel their adversaries. I place no dependence in reports which do not come from what I consider good authority.

From Kansas.

CHICAGO, Aug. 26.—Advices from Leavenworth to Thursday, state that Lawrence was still unharmed. One thousand men completely armed held themselves in readiness to defend it at a moment's warning.

Republican Meeting.

CHICAGO, Aug. 26.—An immense Republican demonstration took place here last night, by the Germans. It is estimated that six thousand were present. They were addressed by Judge Stallo, of Cincinnati. A torch-light procession paraded the streets, a mile in length.

New Principle! No Poison!!
RHODES' FEVER AND AGUE CURE,
OR ANTIDOTE TO MALARIA.
FOR THE PREVENTION AND CURE OF Fever and Ague, or Chill Fever; Dumb Ague, and other Intermittent and Remittent Fevers, also of Bilious Fevers, accompanied by Typhoid Symptoms; Typhoid Fever, Yellow Fever, Ship and Jail Fever General Debility, Night Sweats and all other forms of disease WHICH HAVE A COMMON ORIGIN IN MALARIA OR MIASMA.

This subtle atmospheric poison, which at certain seasons is unavoidably inhaled at every breath, is the same in character wherever it exists,—north, south, east, or west.—and will everywhere yield to this newly discovered ANTIDOTE, which neutralizes the poison, completely purifies the system, and thus entirely removes all the cause of disease.

The proprietor distinctly claims these extraordinary results from its use:

It will protect any resident or traveler, even in the most sickly or swampy localities from any ague or bilious disease whatever, or any injury from constantly inhaling Malaria or Miasma.

It will instantly check the ague in persons who have suffered for any length of time, from ONE DAY to TWENTY YEARS, so that they need never have ANOTHER CHILL, by continuing its use according to directions.

It will immediately relieve all the distressing results of bilious or ague diseases, such as general debility, night sweats, etc. The patient at once begins to recover appetite and strength, and continues until a permanent and radical cure is effected. And as a proof that it is also

NEW-YORK, June 11.

"I have made a chemical examination of Rhodes' Fever and Ague cure, or Antidote to Malaria, and have tested it for Arsenic, Mercury, Quinine and Strychnine, but have not found a particle of either in it, nor have I found any substance in its composition that would prove injurious to the constitution.
JAMES K. CHILTON, M. D., Chemist."

This allows of its
FREE USE AS A PREVENTITIVE,

By which all persons may thus be sure of entire freedom from the above named diseases no matter how sickly the season or swampy the locality.

PROOFS OF EFFICACY are frequently published, and the confidence of the public asked only in proportion to its actual merits wherever introduced and used. There only are we willing to prove its worth.

One or two bottles will answer to ordinary cases; some may require more. Directions printed in German, French, Spanish, accompany each bottle.

Price One Dollar.

AGAIN WE ARE WITH YOU!
ARNOLD & CO.,

ARE again prepared to show their friends, and all who may call upon them, the most complete and beautiful assortment of CLOTHING in the city of Terre-Haute. It is well known that we are not in the habit of bragging over our stock—for we always let the Goods speak for themselves—but this season, we must be permitted to say that we are better prepared to meet the wants of our friends than ever before, and all who call upon us, will find that we can suit them, both in quality and prices.

OUR STOCK OF CLOTHING is the largest in this city—embracing everything in the clothing line—and we are determined, not only to sell as cheap as others—but cheaper than any other house CAN sell. We know all those who bought their CLOTHING of us last year, will call upon us again; but to all others, we say, try us.

When you come to town, walk right into the Cheap Store at "Water Melon Corner," and let us satisfy you that our's is THE place to buy your Clothing.

We have now two Stores in Terre Haute, one at the well-known "Water Melon Corner," the other, one door west of the Southern Bank, and next door to Hulman's Wholesale Grocery.

We have also, in connection with our Store, an extensive MERCHANT TAILORING ESTABLISHMENT, presided over by Mr. HARTSOCK, who is ready at all times, to wait upon his friends with a very fine and large assortment of piece goods, of the latest styles. Any Garment will be made to order at short notice, and in the best style.

☞ REMEMBER, we warrant every article we sell.

☞ COUNTRY MERCHANTS can here replenish their Stocks at prices as low, and upon terms as reasonable as those of any Western market.
