A NEW ILLUSTRATED PAPER!! The undersigned have the pleasure of announcing that on the 4th of June they will issue the first number of a New Illustrated Journal, to be called

THE MIRROR OF THE TIMES.

Though there are already a large number of Periodical Publications of the kind we propose to issue, and there is therefore no positive necessity for the establishment of another, still, we intend to fill a vacancy in this connection which has long been felt, to the injury of many meritorious sheets.

It is impossible at the present time to obtain any paper of the least merit, for less than Three Dollars per annum, and an illustrated one for not less than Four Dollars. Our intention is, therefore, to issue a Journal of the same size as Harper's or Frank Leslie's, the contents of which shall be equal to theirs in merit, and to charge but half of their price, namely, Two Dollars per year. We shall aim to present a weekly history of passing events, illustrated by wood cuts in the highest style of the art, and interspersed with Original Novels, Romances, Tales, Adventures, Choice Biographies, Laughable Anecdotes, Wit, Humor, Sound Sense, Inimitable Caricatures, Literary, Personal and Scientific Items, etc., etc.

In thus charging so small a sum for their paper, the Publishers of The Mirror of the Times expect to be rewarded with a Subscription List which shall amply remunerate them for their necessary outlay of both "Mind and Matter."

Subscription Price for one year, $2
" " " Six months, $1 25.

No Free Copies. No advertisements inserted.

CULTIVATION OF THE GRAPE.

By W. C. STRONG, Of the Nonantum Hill Nurseries, Brighton, Mass.

"This book, in all that relates to its mechanical execution, is simply elegant, and of the matter and manner of the author we can also speak in very high terms. He is evidently a practical vine-grower, and for the guidance of the inexperienced has aimed to give plain, simple and concise rules, not novel, but practical and approved. His opening chapter is historical. The second treats of the vine in a botanical point of view. The third and fourth contain all that one need know to enable him to increase his stock of vines, either by cuttings in the open air, or in hot beds, or by layering and grafting. The next four chapters are upon soil, situation, planting and training. The closing chapter is one of the most valuable, if not altogether the most so, in the book; and it is all the more valuable because it contains matter which will offend a great many readers, who find their pet varieties in the rejected list, or see it boldly and authoritatively stated that one sort is only some other well-known sort figuring under a new name."—[N. Y. Tribune.

WITH EXPLANATORY ILLUSTRATIONS. Price $3.

CHERRY & VIOLET.

A TALE OF THE GREAT PLAGUE. By the author of "Mary Powell," &c.

On tinted paper, beveled boards, red edges, on gilt top. $1 75.

The first edition of this charming book was exhausted within a week of its publication.

A NEW EDITION NOW READY.

"This beautiful story of domestic affection, suffering, and self-sacrificing fidelity, will be read by old and young with eager attention and pleasure."—[Ch. Intelligencer.

"This is a delightful story, full of delicate touches, and one which those who have read the author's "Household of Sir Thomas Moore" and "Mary Powell," will listen to busily."—[Boston Commercial.

"A fascinating story. In its style it bears a strong resemblance to the Schimberg Cotti Family. Its religious teaching is excellent, and it has a decided merit as a picture of social and political life in England two hundred years ago."—[Am. Presbyterian.

"Cherry and Violet is one of the most charming stories we have read in many a day. If all fictions were like this, we could wish the number increased."—[N. Y. Evangelist.

"No more perfect production of an event in past times has been given, and the profound touches of character make it a record of human nature for all times."—[New-Yorker.

M. W. DODD, Publisher, No. 506 Broadway, New-York.

HUNTED TO DEATH.

It makes no claim to literary merit. It is a spicy, wide-awake, rollicking story of Fun and Adventure with pretty women and love-making, sufficient to satisfy any one.

Captain George, the hero, a gay, dashing man of the world, piques the curiosity of all as he steps on board "THE MONARCH," at Liverpool for New-York.

His life and adventures on board ship—in New-York, at the St. Nicholas—in Saratoga—at the St. Charles in New-Orleans—in Australia—after four years wandering, at the Opera House in Paris—closing with a happy marriage party in England where the mystery surrounding him is cleared up—lives the attention of the reader, as but few stories can.
