MINNESOTA CORRESPONDENCE.

SHAKOPEE,* June 12th, 1860.

Friend Hudson: Again wishing to hold a little converse with you, I will commence by saying that, since 1840, I have never seen so great and general satisfaction among the Republicans as there is now manifested in this State on the reception of the news of Lincoln's nomination; if he was not the first choice, (which I doubt) he was just as near as he could be.

Not a single instance of dissatisfaction have I yet heard in our ranks, and the only regret at the ticket is that Cassius M. Clay had not been the candidate for Vice President.

I think the Republican ticket is just about as sure of success in this State, as that November will come. It is true, we will give but a small vote; we will feel as proud of that vote as a little boy does of the pockets in his first pants. True they may have but little in them, but they show that his hands are in the right place.

Set down Minnesota as one of the certain States for Abe, and his fence rails and his maul.

There is still a perceptible improvement in the times. Farmers never have had a better prospect than now for all kinds of a crop—small grain looks very fine indeed; and the season so far, could hardly be more favorable.

The Mississippi is quite high, and the Minnesota has risen some, so as to permit boats to pass over the Rapids, and merchants are now shipping off their produce, which has been detained, perhaps advantageously, except potatoes, which have been held back a little too long, and a great many have been sold at ten and fifteen cents.

The Indian Payment is now about to take place, and there will be between $80,000 and $100,000 in gold and silver distributed among them, and everything in the way of trinkets from the thousands of little tin earbobs, small looking glasses, beads, ambrotype artists, merchants, with everything that will please their fancy, are on hand; and the blackleg also. I am sorry to say is even trying to cheat the poor creatures out of what little they get, which this year, I believe is about $7,50 each; and that amounts to quite a little sum to some of the men, who have three or four wives and each several children, but none of them as many as Brigham Young.

You will see that this is dated at Shakopee, where I now live, which is only about 35 miles from St. Paul, on the Minnesota and below the Rapids; so that we have here a daily Packet that leaves here as regularly every morning except Sunday, as do the mail boats from Louisville to Cincinnati, so it appears much more like business than it did or does at Traverse.

This is a beautifully situated place, and grew up like all our Minnesota towns a little too fast, but it will still make a place.

It does appear to me that nothing has been left undone here by the hand of Nature that could be done, to make this country agreeable, and desirable for residences. In passing out among the prairies and woods the other day, I was still more than ever impressed with a sense of the grandeur of the country, while looking at the great variety of flowers of so many kinds—the greatest variety of roses, from the tiny little dwarf struggling to lift its head above the grass only six or eight inches high, so that it should not "blush unseen," to those on high bushes eight feet high. And every variety of tint and color, with a fragrance equal to the finest cultivated; though all single.

Here the student has no need of resorting to plates for illustrations in Botany. Here they can see the natural petals, stamins &c. to determine the class and variety, which is so much more impressive than plates.

The Catholics had a great day here on the 7th inst., called Corpus Christi—something relating to the body of Christ, and the Holy Eucharist. This was observed generally by the Germans, and some of the Irish. They were making as much preparation the day before, as we do on the 3d of July. Their church was beautifully decorated with the snowdrop and honeysuckle, which grow in abundance here wild, and other green bushes, and bouquets, where the services commenced at 4 o'clock in the morning with the ringing of the bell and firing of cannon or anvils rather. About 11 o'clock a grand procession, formed at the church, formed of a few marshals on horseback, a number of men on foot, then a large damask canopy, supported by four men, under which the senior Priest walked. Then a band of angels in the persons of little girls that look more like angels, than anything else, with their white dresses, blue ribbons and bouquets; then some boys in scarlet robes down to their ankles, which a farmer beautifully contrasted with a white Mull gown over all except the red cape; then some other officials with their sweet incense, followed by a vast concourse of women of all ages, size and dress, that looked exactly like Angels do not look, commenced moving about as slow as live mortals could move, with all the solemnities of a funeral procession; after going about one square they came to an altar erected under a green bower, decorated with impressive pictures of the Crucifixion and the Blessed Virgin, and lighted with six candles; under which they halted about ten minutes, to perform some ceremony, bowing down before the altar as in their churches, chanting, kneeling, and saying their prayers in an under tone—when through at this one they went on in the same manner to another, and so on to all, that had been erected before the doors of private residences.

Here I observed some very poor looking, feeble, and even crippled old women, passing along saying their prayers, no doubt with true zeal and true devotion. Upon the whole, it was an imposing ceremony, and the whole day kept strictly as a Holy day. It was altogether new to me, and I believe is only observed in Catholic countries.

Respectfully,

G. R. S.

OLD and YOUNG

AFFIRM ITS TRUTH,

VIZ: THAT

Professor Wood's Hair Restorative

WILL preserve, infallibly, the growth and color of the Hair, if used two or three times a week, to any imaginable age. Perfectly restore the gray; cover the bald with nature's own ornament, the hair; make it more soft and beautiful than any oil, and preserve the scalp free from all disease, to the greatest age. Statesmen, Judges, Attorneys, Doctors, Clergymen, Professional Men, and Gentlemen and Ladies of all classes, all over the World, bear testimony that we do not say too much in its favor. Read the following and judge:

PROFESSOR S. THALBERG, PIANIST, says, on his arrival in the United States he was rapidly becoming gray, but on applying Wood's Hair Restorative his hair soon recovered its original hue.

CHARLES CARDEW, 11 NASSAU ST., N. Y., says the gray hairs on his wife's head were after a few weeks trial, turned into a dark brown, at the same time beautifying and thickening the hair.

A. C. RAYMOND, BATH, MAINE, says he is now sixty-two years old, and his hair and whiskers were two-thirds gray, but by the use of two bottles of restorative the gray hairs have disappeared, both on his head and face, and is more soft and glossy than for twenty-five years previous. His wife of the age of fifty-two, has used it with the same effect.

PINLEY JOHNSON, ESQ., N. O., says that he lost his hair by the yellow fever, in 1854. He used Wood's Hair Restorative, and his hair is now thick and glossy.

A. M. MIDDLETON, LIVINGSTON, ALA. says the Restorative has done much good in his part of the country. He used it for baldness, and now has a fine head of hair.

T. L. MOSBY, LEBANON, KY. says he has Wood's Hair Restorative used in hundreds of cases, and never knew it to fail in accomplishing all it professes to do.

A. J. ALDEN, McLANESBORO, ILL., says he had the bald head eight years, and was bald, but by the liberal use of Wood's Hair Restorative, he now has a rich, glossy head of hair.

If Physicians Will Use It, why is it not Safe for the People?

CINCINNATI, Nov. 2.

MESSRS. A. L. SCOVILL & CO.—

Dear Sirs—The public generally are fully aware of the thousands of remedies for diseases of the lungs, under the titles of Expectorants, Pills, Plasters, Liniments, etc., that are daily brought to their notice through the newspapers, by way of advertisements. My object in writing this note for publication is to induce the public, or at least those who are afflicted (if they will use efficient medicines) to make one trial of the medicine in use in pulmonary diseases. I am induced to do so in so doing I am acting most unprofessionally, and disobeying to the interests of medical science and the regular practitioners of medicine.

The medicine to which I refer is "Dr. Hall's Balsam for the Lungs." I have prescribed it in a large number of cases, and always with success. One case in particular to which I wish now to refer, was given up by several physicians who had been called in consultation with myself. The patient had all the symptoms of confirmed consumption, such as a cough, night sweats, hectic fever, harrassing cough, with continued pain in the lobe of the right lung, attended with a very diarrhœa. He commenced immediately to get better by the use of the above medicine, and was soon restored to his usual health. I have also found Dr. Hall's Balsam the most valuable expectorant for breaking up distressing coughs and colds that I have ever used.

W. D. WRIGHT, M. D.

MORE PHYSICIANS' TESTIMONY.

We, the undersigned Physicians of Cincinnati, certify that Dr. Wright's statements are entitled to the fullest confidence of the public, and we can fully corroborate what he has said, having used Dr. Hall's Balsam in a number of cases with the happiest effect.
