Chap. 124.

AN ACT to provide for submitting to the People the question, "Shall there be a Convention to revise the Constitution and amend the same?" Passed March 19, 1866.

The People of the State of New-York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. At the general election to be held in this State on the Tuesday next after the first Monday of November, eighteen hundred and sixty-six, there shall be provided for the poll of each election district, and kept thereat by the Inspectors of Election of such district, a box marked "Convention" proper for the reception of ballots. Every person in such district qualified to vote at such election for members of the Legislature, may vote at such poll a ballot, either written or printed, or partly written or partly printed, on which shall be inscribed the words, "For a Convention to revise the Constitution and amend the same," or the words, "Against a Convention to revise the Constitution and amend the same." Such ballot shall be deemed a "convention," and shall be received by said Inspectors of Election, and shall be deposited in said ballot-box. The poll-list for the said election shall be so prepared and kept that there shall be a column therein containing a mark or figure for each voter who shall vote one of such ballots, which column shall be headed "Convention." All the provisions of the Act entitled "An Act to provide for voting other than for militia and town officers," passed April 9th, eighteen hundred and forty-two, and all laws amendatory thereof, and all the provisions of the Act entitled "An Act for ascertaining by proper proofs the citizens who shall be entitled to the right of suffrage and to prevent fraudulent voting," passed April fifteenth, eighteen hundred and sixty-five, and the Act entitled "An Act to ascertain by proper proofs the citizens who shall be entitled to the right of suffrage," passed May thirteenth, eighteen hundred and sixty-five, so far as the same are applicable, shall apply to the proceedings under this act.

The Secretary of State shall, immediately after the assembling of the next Legislature, in the year eighteen hundred and sixty-seven, report to the Legislature the election herein provided for.

This act shall take effect immediately.

Respectfully, FRANCIS C. BARLOW,
Secretary's Office, City and County of New-York, ss:
I hereby certify the above to be a true copy of the original notice received by me this day from the Secretary of State.

California Wines.

GURNER & Co.,
DEALERS IN
PURE CALIFORNIA WINES,
No. 80 CEDAR-ST.,
NEW-YORK.
These valuable Wines are gaining public favor with astonishing rapidity, and their unprecedented and unrivaled popularity are not without merit. They have only to be fairly tested to give them the preference over all others. As a portion of the blood they expel all other Wines, and the numerous certificates which have voluntarily been tendered from the most eminent physicians, as well as gentlemen in every position in life, are proof conclusive that these Wines are useful in all cases for which they are recommended.
The following brands are now offered by us. They comprise all the varieties now grown in the State, suitable for sale:
WHITE, or ROCK WINE, of a light straw color, very delicate and fine flavored.
CLARET, a superior wine for table use.
ANGELICA, a rich and naturally sweet wine, much admired by ladies, and valuable in the sick chamber, as it makes fine wheys and jellies. It is a fine dessert wine, and well adapted for Communion purposes.
MUSCATEL, a light colored, highly aromatic wine. Very similar to the celebrated Tokay.
PORT.—Deep red color, fine flavor, and in many respects similar to the old wines of Lisbon.
GRAPE BRANDY.—The pure distillation of our wines.
WINE BITTERS.—A very agreeable tonic.
This is one of the most valuable combinations of a medicinal and an agreeable beverage that has ever been offered to the public. Millions of bottles were sold throughout the North during the last four years, and wherever introduced, it has proved a welcome addition to the invalid table, the family circle and the bachelor's sideboard.
Ladies who have lost strength and appetite, and suffer from nausea, vomiting and vertigo; gentlemen who "don't feel very well" just before breakfast or dinner, whose stomachs are out of order, and whose systems are generally deranged; mothers weaning children, and suffering from general debility; children of sickly nature and scrofulous constitutions; travelers who have occasion to change the water, and all who live in malarious districts, and are subjected to miasmatic influences, will find it one of the most valuable invigorators that can be taken.
It was used very extensively in 1861 with such general satisfaction that in offering it to the public now we deem it unnecessary to publish any of the many certificates which we have received, testifying in the strongest terms in its favor. All that we can say is to guarantee that we will pledge ourselves to furnish no article PURE AND UNADULTERATED.
It has been given to little children suffering from weakness and weak lungs, with most happy effect. One little girl in particular, with palms in her hand, loss of appetite and daily wasting consumption, to whom all medical skill had been exhausted, has now nothing to regret. She began with but a teaspoonful a day. Her appetite and strength rapidly increased, and she is now well.

THE LATE RIOT.

What The Times's Eye-Witness Says of the Affair.

THE MASSACRE PRECONCERTED BY REBELS.

Correspondence of The N. Y. Times.

NEW-ORLEANS, La., Tuesday, July 31, 1866.

With the origin of the riot yesterday the readers of The Times are well aware. The appearance of the colored procession on Canal-st., composed of about 100 freedmen, was the signal for its commencement. Some white bystanders attempted to take away the national flag which they were carrying, and a shot was fired. The blacks claim that the whites fired it. The whites tell a contradictory story. I have seen responsible men who were present, but they fail to give an authoritative statement about this first shot. Immediately after it was fired, however, a bright yellow boy commenced haranguing his comrades in the procession, advising them to clear the streets of the "white ——— ———." He was arrested by an aid of the Chief-of-Police. This was the first arrest made. The procession then moved on, and turned into Dryades-st., halting in front of the Mechanics' Institute, now used as the State Capitol, where the Convention was in session. They were met with vociferous cheers from friends of both colors. They gave their version of the disturbance above mentioned, and were greeted with remarks of approval when they claimed to have repulsed their assailants. They were encouraged to take a firm stand for their "rights," and told to arm themselves and be ready for any emergency. These things I heard myself, and for the first time I felt serious apprehensions of a riot. The merchants commenced closing their stores, and I started from the building to the telegraph office. A squad of policemen were gathered on Baronne-st., in the rear of the Institute, and soon marched toward it.

The procession disturbance had been reported to Police headquarters, where, anticipating trouble, a large reserve force was stationed. Orders were immediately issued to arrest the negroes engaged in it. Sheriff (ex-Rebel Gen.) Hayes accompanied the force to the scene of action, and found Dryade-st
