CHINESE CHARGES.

Many complaints have been made by the Chinese merchants in this city about the high charges that were made to their countrymen before they could be released from their quarantine after arrival on the steamers Glenelg, Oceanic, Suez, City of Sydney, Coptic, Madras and City of Tokio. We have been to considerable trouble in interviewing the Chinese merchants and ascertaining their views, we have also ascertained from the Custom House the official numbers of arrivals which corresponded exactly with those given by the Chinamen, and shall now proceed to place the figures before our readers without further comment.

The steamer Glenelg arrived here on March 29th with 436 passengers who were quarantined on board for fourteen days and at the quarantine station for three days, when they were removed to the Immigration depot, and, upon payment of $7.75, each man was released. The Oceanic arrived on 4 April with 521 passengers who were at once landed in the quarantine grounds, detained for three days and released after payment of $8 each. The Suez arrived from San Francisco on April 10th with 288 passengers who after three days detention were charged $8.25 each. The City of Sydney arrived on April 16th with 351 passengers, who, after a three days detention were charged $8.50 each. The Coptic arrived on April 18th with 636 passengers, who, after a three days detention were asked $10.25. The City of Tokio arrived on 7th May with 565 passengers, who, after a similar detention were charged $4.75 each. Of the passengers by the Madras, 601 in all, 550 paid $20 each for three weeks detention at the quarantine station, the remaining 21 being landed and liberated on payment of $10 each.

* * * *

We are informed that the money was paid to Mr. Smithies, Secretary of the Board of Immigration and to Mr. Hayselden, Secretary of the Board of Health, but generally to Mr. Hayselden and that Messrs. Brown & Morrill were sometimes present. The Chinese residents know that $2 per man was paid for Hospital Tax but they say they do not know and have never been able to ascertain what the other charges were for or why they varied when the detention had been of the same duration. Of the Madras, we will simply state that each Chinaman landed paid a sum of $18 for about three weeks detention in addition to his hospital tax.

The Hawaiian Gazette of 18th April referring to the immigrants landed from the Glenelg said they were "charged Five Dollars a piece for something unknown, but a complaint had been made to the Attorney-General who stated that the officials were not authorized to collect this money and that there must be some mistake. The money has been or is to be returned to those making application." The Chinese merchants tell us that they have never received a cent of this five dollars that "the officials were not authorized to collect" and which was "to be returned." It is a curious fact that Five Dollars always seems to be the amount over which there is some hitch in the Chinese Immigration. It was so with the planters when they wished to import laborers, it was so in the Hackfeld—Hayselden business and it seems now, that in the case of the Glenelg the same sum was charged through "some mistake" and but, as the Chinese merchants say, returned to them, possibly through "some mistake" also. Is it any use asking the late members of the Board of Immigration for a reply on this subject. We know that it is needless to expect one from the Government although we think it advisable that they should explain the charges for the satisfaction of our large Chinese population.

AN OPIUM DEALER.

Seizure of Smokers. Attempts to bribe the Police.

On Friday evening Captain Mehrtens seized an opium dealer named Ah Chong with all the implements of his trade in his possession, including a small tin box in which were fitted the nuts or baskets that contain the drug and which are sold for twenty-five cents each. Mehrtens had watched several Chinamen going to and from the house on Maunakea street but waited his time until he was sure of his prey, whom he has arrested upon several previous occasions. The man had taken about $2.25 in a very short time, so Mehrtens took him, his money, his tin box and two large packages of opium. It is a very difficult matter to arrest an opium dealer in the illicit transaction of his business so that Mehrtens is deserving of great praise.

At about eleven o'clock on the same night Mehrtens and Felibelir managed to arrest four opium smokers in a house on Nuuanu street with a pipe and quantity of opium. These men tried to bribe the police to let them go and Felibelir accompanied one to his brother's house where he obtained $150 in gold, treasury notes and silver which was offered to the officers but declined. They had originally bid $100 for their freedom but subsequently thought it worth another $50. It is gratifying to find that the offer was refused. In connection with opium smoking, the remarks of His Honor the Chief Justice at the Y. M. C. A. meeting on Thursday, which are published in our supplement should be read. His Honor also paid Mehrtens a well deserved compliment at the Supreme Court on Thursday.

Mr. E. V. Adams will sell some fine silver plate on Monday at noon.

This is the last day on which records can be made against the assessment.

Two young men went out on a shooting expedition Friday with the Sheriff's carriage. They found game very out of place at Ewa & had to hack it home. Which indicates that their valor, like the game they sought, was out of place. The plaster said a Gulick and a Cook were the pluckiest men in the party.

Mr. Cruzan's sermon for his theme Sunday morning, "The God we in the Midst of Death" and in the evening, "Why I believe the Bible to be a Revelation of Faith, not in the Word of God." The evening sermon is especially for young men and females.

Some of the finest works of art ever seen in Honolulu are now at Mr. F. G. Thrum's store. They are photographs from the Image of Six Orders of Merit in Mosaics of Mr. A. M. Hirsch of Wien, Austria. Mr. Frank King is the fortunate owner of the gorgeous contents. Well, Uncle Sam, the richest country, and it proud of it, should be not only wealthy but also to adjust form.
