COMPANY D'S MEETING.

Big Attendance and Several New Members Elected.

Company D, N G H, held their regular monthly meeting last evening in the drill shed. George Bruns, John Coakley, O. C. Johnson, T. E. Wall, W. H. Charlock, Jr., and C. B. Lemon were elected to membership and applications for the same were received from W. W. Harris, L. B. Whitney, Geo. Macy and P. H. Foster.

Captain Broome, Adj. Kenake and Sergeant Major Kennedy paid the company a visit during the meeting.

After business was over a number of the members adjourned to Hart's Ice Cream Parlors and enjoyed the sweet music discoursed by the fine Regina music box, under the management of Prof. Nigel Jackson.

This company has seventy-five members now and there is a steady increase. The boys were a trifle put out on account of a conflicting order in the Star. That military organ reported, on the 4th inst., that all members should appear at the meeting in uniform. On the 5th it said, "citizen's dress." As a consequence the costumes varied, some of the men, in order to be on the safe side, wearing their uniforms and carrying a dress suit in a package under their arms.
