Col. Fred Funston, in command of the Kansas troops aboard the Indiana, was for two years on the Staff of Gen. Garcia, the Cuban insurgent chief. During the campaign Col. Funston was twice wounded one bullet piercing his body. He was Garcia's chief of artillery and fought all through the hardest part of the war for independence.

One of the most important advertisements to Merchants which has ever appeared in the BULLETIN will be found under By Authority in today's live BULLETIN. It is from Minister of the Interior King and calls for sealed tenders for furnishing supplies to the Road Supervisor of Honolulu. Read it. It is instructive, showing the articles absolutely required for road work.

The Third Team of Punahou yesterday defeated the Second Team of the High School on the College grounds. This is the second time the Punahou have come out victorious. They appear to have had a deal more practise and their mass plays are very good. The High School team lacks team work but they are full of pluck and with proper training would make it hot for their opponents.

Harry Robinson the shipwright died yesterday morning. He was 56 years of age and came here from Nova Scotia with the marine railway builders more than sixteen years ago. Mr. Robinson was a member of the original Myrtle Boat Club's champion crew, and died an honorary member of the club. For years he worked on the marine railway after it began operations. In recent times he was caretaker for the Myrtle Boat Club. Shortly before his death, Mr. Robinson did repair work on a schooner for the McDongalls at Kailua.
