FOR SATURDAY SADNESS

By Diogenes.

Each voter changed from wrong to right
From now to date,
Counts double on election night
Against wrong's slate.

Humane Society workers should keep watch on the loads put on teams going up the hills. What is all right for the levels is excessive for steep grades. Yet teamsters may often be seen cruelly beating overloaded horses that give out climbing Punchbowl slopes.

• • •

Remember! Hawaii will have to carry for two years the men who carry Hawaii on November 6. Don't load up the Territorial coach too heavily for the start. Nobody can tell how long is the pull, or how steep the grade, that leads up to Statehood.

• • •

With so much building going on and in prospect, builders should be required to keep the sidewalks open, with secure scaffolding overhead to protect pedestrians. This is done in all large cities on the Mainland. Honolulu can probably never have things done right, however, until it has a city self-government.

• • •

"Hullo Central! This is the Chamber of Commerce. Say, get your wires untangled or look out for a mutuality that will reduce your outfit to old junk."

• • •

If the Tramways company cannot find even comfortable standing room upon its cars of the existing style for its ordinary patronage, it ought to petition the Governor's council for leave to attach platforms upon outriggers to the vehicles.

• • •

Munsey's Magazine, in an article on the Kansas City convention, gives Prince David of Hawaii the distinction of having given the deciding vote in the committee on resolutions for "sixteen to one." At home here John Wise has that undisputed distinction. If the writer of Munsey's account is a Democrat there may be method in his making such a mistake. Sensible Democrats may be pardoned for thinking the one who cast the die that way could not have been Wise.

Secretary Hay's Laurels.

The New York Times, as well as the anti-administration press, give Secretary Hay full credit for the conduct of the China negotiations. The Times says:

This nation has come to a higher place and to more distinguished honor among the civilized powers of the world and the administration has established new titles to the confidence of the American people by the wise and statesmanlike policy of the President and Secretary Hay in dealing with the exceedingly difficult situation created by the troubles now approaching a fortunate adjustment in China. We do not transcend the limits of historical accuracy nor of fairness to the other powers when we claim for the Government at Washington the moral leadership in the undertaking that has brought the Chinese authorities to their senses and prepared the way for the safe delivery of the people of the legations out of their perils. The eyes of the anxious world have been fixed with more eager expectation upon Washington than upon any other capital of the allied powers. It was there that the first authentic and reassuring dispatch from the beleaguered legationers was received and given out; it was there that the first announcement was made of a firm and consistent policy in dealing with the imperial authorities.

Salvation Army Notes.

Several new Salvation Army people to reinforce the ranks of the workers in Hawaii arrived in the China. Among the number were Captain and Mrs. Gillett who have seen work in many parts of the United States. Captain and Mrs. Grant will go to Hilo.

Major Wood intends calling a conference of Salvation Army workers together, the first meeting to take place in September 22. Officers from all over the Islands will be present.

A Safeguard Against Sickness HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS

Pugilists Have All Made Good Money

New York, Sept. 3.—This is the first week almost in five years in which no fight is scheduled in the metropolitan district, and for the reason that prize fights are now misdemeanors.

Fitzsimmons, exclusive of royalties on his picture fights and his stage engagements, got approximately $70,000 out of the Horton law. Jim Jeffries put away $40,000 in Government four per cents, and it is his boast that he has nearly twice that much more.

Tom Sharkey has a house in Sheepshead Bay and can write his cheque for at least $30,000. Corbett has not had so many opportunities proportionately as some of the others, and $45,000 might be set down fairly as his earnings.

McCoy might be placed at close to the same figure, and Peter Maher says he has a home in Westchester and can live until the Horton law comes around again.

Terry McGovern's share is thought to be larger than that of any of the others. He has managed with great skill. He will not approximate his earnings, but they were probably quite large.

The ever popular Rainier beer is becoming a household word and "will you have a glass of Seattle," is more often heard than anything else. The Criterion Saloon has the beer on tap or in bottles.
