LITERARY ITEMS.

An attempt is being made to resuscitate the operations of the Oriental Translation Committee. The Oriental Translation Fund was established in 1828 by several Oriental scholars and others interested in Eastern literature, "for the translation and publication of such works on Eastern history, science, and belles lettres as are inaccessible to the European public in manuscript form and indigenous language." This scheme received at first very considerable support, and the reigning Sovereign has from its commencement always been the patron of the undertaking. During a period of 32 years the Committee have published, or aided in the publication of more than seventy translations. Of these many are highly valuable, all are curious and interesting, and several of them are of such a nature, that without the aid afforded by the Society, they could scarcely have been undertaken. The Sanskrit translations include those of the Sankhya Karika, Rig Veda, and Vishnu Purana. Among those from the Arabic, are found the travels of Ibn Batuta, and of the Patriarch Macarius, Al Makkari's history of the Mohammedan Dynasties in Spain, and the extensive Lexicon of Hajji Khalfa. There are also on the list translations from the Persian, Syriac, Ethiopic, Armenian, Chinese, and Japanese languages. For the last two or three years no work has been issued from the press of the Society, nor is any one preparing for publication; but as there are signs in the literary world of a renewed interest in Oriental learning, the Committee invite the special cooperation of all those who are anxious to bring the East and West into a still closer communion with each other. We trust attention will be particularly directed to Chinese encyclopedias, which contain a mass of knowledge whose value is known but to few.

The new volume of The Sunday Magazine, beginning in October, will contain a new story by Jean Ingelow, entitled "My Chosen Friends," "The Huguenot Family in the English Village," by Sarah Tytler; "The Seven Conclences, with Cases in Point," by John De Liefde, author of "Six Months Among the Charities of Europe;" and "Studies of Old Testament Characters," by the editor, Dr. Guthrie.

New Publications.

A NEW POEM—SLIGHTLY SATIRICAL, entitled MOSES; or The man who supposes Himself to be Moses No Moses at all.

In which Andrew Johnson's claim to be Moses is proved to be a dead duck and a chest. It is also most conclusively shown that Seward is not Aaron, Raymond and Weed are not Korah and his company, Boocher is not Jethro, Vallandigham, Wood and other Copperheads are not the genuine Servants, Goulds are not "dead ducks," &c., &c.

PREFACE.

"'Tis sold that Andy Johnson s'poses
That he's a genuine second Moses.
As certain folks don't seem to know it,
I've writ this truthful book to show it.
I trust e think you'd better buy it,
And when you've read, you won't deny it
That Andy is as much like Moses
As bramble bushes are like roses.
The dickest Hebrew since the flood,
Without a drop of Jewish blood."

Teachers.

"AMER. SCHOOL INST.," founded 1855, IS A RELIABLE EDUCATIONAL BUREAU: (1.) To aid all who seek well-qualified teachers. Principals, School Officers and Heads of Families should send full particulars of what teachers they want, and ask for the "Teachers' Bulletin." (2.) To represent educated teachers who desire positions. The demand for experienced teachers is good, especially for those who teach Classics, Military Tactics and Music. Professors of Music and superior Female Music Teachers are always in demand. All teachers should have the "Application Form." (3.) To give parents information of good schools. Facts concerning schools are properly classified, and are promptly submitted to those who seek schools for their children and wards. The reliability of the "American School Institute" is amply vouched for by well-known educators and business men in all sections of the country. This testimony will be sent when desired. J. W.
