Senate Ready to Work

Pursuant to the call of the Governor, the Senators from the various islands met in special session in the hall of the House of Representatives, Capitol building, at 10 o'clock this forenoon. There were in attendance some two hundred people who occupied the seats that were placed in the makai end of the room. The President's chair was on the raised platform at the mauka end of the room. To the right, near the door, was the press table while in a corresponding position opposite was the table of the interpreter. The secretary's desk was immediately in front of that of the president.

The desks of the Senators were arranged in a quadrangle—five on the Waikiki, four on the makai and five on the Ewa side.

With the exception of two Home Rule Senators — Kalauokalani and Kaiue—all the members of the upper house in the city were on hand before 10 o'clock. Starting at the first desk and ranging down the Waikiki side, the Senators were seated as follows: John T. Brown, J. B. Kauhi and Luka Nakapaahu. Next came two vacant seats for D. Kalauokalani and S. E. Kaiue. The former came in just as the business of the morning had been completed but the latter did not show up at all. The first seat of the makai side, Waikiki end, was occupied by P. P. Woods. Next came C. L. Crabbe, J. D. Paris and C. H. Dickey. The first two seats of the Ewa side, makai end, were vacant but have been assigned to Cecil Brown and S. W. Wilcox, both of whom are absent from the city. Next came L. L. McCandless, W. C. Achi and D. P. R. Isenberg.

It was just shortly after the stroke of 10 that Senator Achi arose and, stating that the time had come for the Senate to meet in special session, nominated H. P. Baldwin as temporary chairman. This nomination was quickly seconded, Senator Achi put the motion and Mr. Baldwin went into the chair without one dissenting vote.

The next business was the nomination of a temporary secretary. Wm. Savidge was nominated and seated without a dissenting vote.

A motion was next made that the chair appoint a committee of three on credentials but at this point, it was suggested that a temporary interpreter was necessary on account of the Hawaiian members. Senator Crabbe thereupon nominated John E. Bush who was likewise seated without a dissenting vote.

On motion of Senator Paris, the chair was empowered to appoint a committee on credentials with instructions to examine the papers of the various members. The chair thereupon appointed the following committee: Senators Crabbe, Paris and J. T. Brown.

At this point, Senator Achi moved that adjournment be taken until tomorrow at 10 a. m. on account of the absence om some of the members. This carried and the Senate, after sitting for just a little over ten minutes, adjourned until tomorrow at which time organization will be effected.

Senator Crabbe has received the endorsement of the Republican members of the Senate for the presidency and he will be voted into the chair tomorrow. H. P. Baldwin will probably be the vice-chairman. Wm. Savidge and John E. Bush will be secretary and interpreter, respectively. It is not yet known who are to be the sergeant-at-arms, messenger and janitor.

It is understood that, notwithstanding the recent action of the Central Committee with reference to the Hilo election, Rev. Stephen L. Desha, the Hilo candidate for the Senate will contest the election of J. D. Paris, this on account of the insistence of the Hilo people who claim that they have a right to demand a recount of the ballots. This matter will probably be developed at the session tomorrow.

The Senate members on the Republican side, met in joint caucus last night with the executive committee. A lot of business was attended to but as every member was sworn to secrecy with reference to what took place, nothing can be given out.

The Republican members held a short caucus at headquarters this morning.

S. W. Wilcox, Senator-elect from Kauai, is expected down in the morning. His presence here will give the Republicans seven members on the floor and the arrival of Cecil Brown in the Zealandia will raise the majority to eight.

The Governor's message to the Senate was in readiness this forenoon but as no organization was perfected, the presentation of this was left until tomorrow. Governor Dole was himself to have been in town at 9:30 o'clock but he did not turn up at all until after the Senate had adjourned. The band was on hand and Captain Berger was in the hall of the Capitol building waiting anxiously for the Governor to put in an appearance before starting up. The consequence was tht neither the Senate nor the spectators got a chance to hear any music.

Speculation is rife with reference to the probable action of the Senate on the matter of governmental appointments. In all probability, these will be decided on in a joint caucus of the executive committee and the Republican Senators.

CAMPBELL ONLY BADLY SCARED

Neighbors Thought Negro Had Committed Suicide.

SULPHUR BOTTLE WAS CAUSE OF EXCITEMENT

PATROL WAGON WITH POLICE OFFICER WENT HURRYING TO SCENE—MESSAGE SENT IN BY A WOMAN.

At the noon hour today, Edward Campbell, a negro, played a good practical joke on the police department and still lives to tell the tale.

The police were engaging in a quiet noon hour, the righteousness of the town making their duties seem a sinecure, when a telephone message from a Mrs. Nobles awoke them from their day dreams. Mrs. Nobles telephoned from Robello lane in Palama that Edward Campbell had just shot himself and was lying on the floor near death's door.

Immediately the machinery of the law began revolving at a 2:40 gait. Officer Nielsen jumped into the patrol wagon, taking with him two trestles to assist in the work of placing the wounded man in the ambulance. Driver Galt mounted his box and, grasping the reins, soon sent his fiery steeds flying, the wagon causing tons of good foot-deep Palama mud to fly into the air like a miniature volcano.

The house in Robello lane where the horrible tragedy was supposed to have taken place, was soon reached and the officer rushed in, prepared for a tragedy. He was consequently much astonished when Campbell, who was supposed to be writhing in agony, met him at the door, wearing a broad smile and being very much alive. At to his deadly wounds three small scratches in the palm of his hand was all that could be seen.

It appears that Campbell, who is of a scientific turn of mind, was experimenting with some sulphur which he was burning in a bottle. The bottle was shattered in his hand by an explosion, and Campbell thoroughly frightened let out an unearthly yell and threw himself on the floor where he proceeded to die in the most approved fashion.

The neighbors who rushed into the room found him in this state and thinking that he was good for a coroner's inquest, they immediately sent for the police. In the meantime, Campbell had already discovered that he was not dead and the patrol wagon dragged wearily back through the mud and slush.

THEY HAD WIDE TIRES

Owing to the fact that Acting Superintendent of Public Works H. E. Cooper a short time ago called upon the police to enforce the wide tire act, Act 25 of the Penal Laws of 1899, a number of defendants appeared in the Police Court this morning, they having been arrested by Hack Inspector Sam Macy for having violated this act mentioned. The particular section in question reads as follows:

"In the case of vehicles with springs, the width of wheel tire shall be at least one and one-half times the diameter of the axle. In the case of vehicles with wooden axles the width of wheel tire shall be at least the diameter of the axle. Other styles of axle shall have tires of the same width as those of equal carrying capacity above specified."

Of the defendants, George Naiwi, a driver for Lewers & Cooke, pleaded guilty and was fined $10. Jos. Powell and John Dolf pleaded guilty and were fined $10 but noted appeals. The case of Ah Kean, arrested on the same charge, was continued.

The defendants all stated that they were ignorant of the law in question as it had never been enforced before.

COLDS

The winds and rain have brought an epidemic of colds. But you need not be alarmed if you have a good remedy on hand to nip it at the start.

Anti-Grippe Tablets

will cure your cold in a few hours. They are a wonderfully good remedy for this complaint. We have mail orders from different parts of the world. One customer writes, "They are the best medicine for colds and grippe I ever saw. I cannot get anything to equal them and have to send 5,000 miles." That's good evidence of merit.

AN INSANE NATIVE

FRIGHTENS A NUMBER OF KALIHI'S LADIES

HAD WOODEN SWORD THAT LOOKED MUCH LIKE REAL THING. DUVAUCHELLE MADE ARREST.

Last night, Manini, an insane native, managed to scare almost out of their wits a number of fair young ladies living near the Kalihi terminus of the Rapid Transit line by means of his antics. Manin appeared at the back of Mr. Lloyd's premises and, with loud yells, kept announcing that he would slay the inhabitants in the neighborhood and would surely allow no one to survive to tell how the deed had been done.

A number of ladies were in the neighborhood at the time and very much feared that Manini would really do some harm.

The police were notified and Mounted Officer Duvauchelle went to investigate the matter. When he arrived, Manini had left the Lloyd premises and was in his house, situated close by. Duvauchelle saw the man through the window. He had in his hand a wooden sword which looked so much like a real one that the officer at the time thought he was up against the real thing. Duvauchelle went to the door and demanded admittance. Manini refused to open the door and swore that if Duvauchelle entered, he would assuredly carve him into mince meat with his good and trusty sword.

Notwithstanding these dire threats, the officer drew his club and made a rush into the room. On his sudden appearance, Manini forgot his thirst for blood and, dropping his sword, tremblingly surrendered to the officer, who took him to the police station.

Manini seems to be laboring under the hallucination that someone is after him. He is at present held at the police station for examination as to his mental condition.

THANKSGIVING BOXING

Arrangements have been made for a big athletic tournament to be given in the Orpheum on Thanksgiving night. One ten-round bout has been arranged between "Kid" De Lile, the Camp McKinley soldier, who is known to the public as a baseball player, and "Jimmie" Kennard, who recently made so good a showing in his fight with Wesday.

Another ten-round contest has been arranged between Ulysses Harris and Jack Riley.

There will be several four-round bouts arranged for. These will be between the best of the boxers in the city. Besides the boxing contests, there will be a number of Japanese wrestling matches.

ELKS' CHARITY WORK

WOMAN'S SALE WILL BE THE EVENT OF THE WEEK

ELABORATE DISPLAY—FUNDS FOR FREE KINDERGARTEN—THE SALE OPENS FRIDAY AFTERNOON.

The woman's sale to be held in the Elks hall Friday and Saturday will be the feature of the week. Articles of every description are coming in daily and keen interest seems to be taken in the affair by everyone as the cause is philanthropic and the motive most noteworthy, namely, that of affording the women of the city and Islands an opportunity to display and sell specimens of their handiwork.

The executive committee announced six months ago this contemplated sale, so that the women have had ample time to prepare for it, and in consequence, the display should be most interesting.

The Elks have most generously donated the use of their hall so that the expenses will be considerably lessened for that reason, and after such matters as printing and the insurance on the articles sent in for sale, the door receipts will be turned over to the Free Kindergarten fund.

The sale opens Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock and continues throughout the evening, and Saturday all day from 9 o'clock in the morning. The gentlemen will therefore find it convenient to attend as the sale is open both evenings until 10 o'clock. Tea and lemonade will be served and articles of every description known to the dexterity of the feminine hand will be for sale.

There will be music each evening. The following artists have kindly consented to appear: Mrs. Montague Turner, Miss Hartnagle, Prof. Amme, Mrs. F. H. Humphris, Miss von Holt and Mrs. Hoffmann, Mr. Wall and Mr. Berger.

The patronesses who are interesting themselves in the sale are Mrs. S. B. Dole, Mrs. Estes, Princess Kawananakoa, Princess Kalanianaole and the ladies presiding at the different consulates, Mrs. F. A. Schaefer, Mrs. H. M. von Holt, Miss Hoare, Mrs. Isenberg, Mrs. Alvarez, Mrs. H. McFarlane, Miss Cartwright, Mrs. Okabe, and Mrs. R. F. Lange.

Articles are supposed to be sent in on Thursday; perishable articles on Friday morning. Contributors must mark their own goods with the price and sign the rules, either before, or when they deliver their articles to the committee. Everybody is cordially invited to attend.

WINSTON APPLIES

E. C. Winston, member of the Territorial Central Committee from the Fifth District and one of the very hardest workers for the Republican party during the recent campaign, has filed with the committee in question his application for the position of Superintendent of Public Works. Mr. Winston has a large number of friends among the business men of the city and on the Central Committee who wish him every success.

It seems to be generally conceded about town that Henry E. Cooper, the present Treasurer of the Territory, will be among those considered for the position. Another name is that of Judge A. N. Kepoikai.

BOYD AND WRIGHT RESERVE PLEAS

Validity of Spencer's Foremanship Is Attacked.

HACKMAN BLACKBURN ON TRIAL FOR DRIVING OVER AND INJURING COL. A. G. HAWES.

James H. Boyd and B. H. Wright were arraigned under their respective indictments for embezzlement of public funds before Judge De Bolt this morning. They were represented by Humphreys, Thompson & Watson and Robertson & Wilder. At the request of their counsel, the defendants were allowed to reserve their pleas until Saturday morning at 9 o'clock.

C. W. Ashford moved to quash the indictment of August Herring on the ground that James Gordon Spencer, who signed as foreman, was not foreman of the Grand Jury when the indictment was found. The motion was

PROGRESS OF McBRYDE

VISITING FINANCIERS WERE PLEASED WITH IMPROVEMENT

KAUAI MASONS TO HOLD BANQUET ON ST. JOHN'S DAY. A SPELL OF BAD WEATHER.

Eleele, Kauai, Nov. 18.—Walter McBryde is very much pleased about the future outlook for the sugar industry of Hawaii. He has been looking into the sugar reports from Germany very closely and feels very confident that Hawaii will soon enjoy good times again.

Messrs. Lloyd and Tourney have been inspecting the plantations on leeward Kauai for the last week. Mr. Lloyd visited McBryde plantation something over a year ago and is very much pleased with the improvements which have been made since then. About 2000 acres have been planted to cane during this time, making a total acreage of 4200. McBryde's new mill at Wahiawa is certainly a fine one in every respect and is very neatly arranged.

H. A. Jaeger's store at Wahiawa will be moved to Kukuiula near Koloa.

Eleele is losing what Wahiawa gains. Since the new mill has been built at Wahiawa, Eleele looks quite deserted and eventually will lose the plantation office.

Walter S. McLean of David Lawrence & Co., was here upon business Saturday.

A Masonic banquet will be given at Waimea on St. John's Day, Dec. 27 by the Masons of Waimea and the surrounding district, to the Masons of Kauai and visiting brethren.

Kauai is experiencing some very cold and severe weather at the present time. High winds accompanied by rain have prevailed for several days and the roads from Kekaha to Hanalei are very slippery and muddy.

Mr. and Mrs. Lynch will be at home to their friends at 513 Beretania street after December 1.

JUDGMENTS RECORDED

POSSESSION CLAIMED AGAINST MAGOON

CULMINATION OF MARRIED CAREER OF FROBOESES—A DEFENSE OF FRAUD IS SET UP.

Records of judgments against J. W. Kuaimoku have been sent up to the Supreme Court from the District Court of North Kona. One is in favor of H. Hackfeld & Co., Ltd., for $267.90; another in favor of Frank Gomes for $141.70, and a third in favor of Kona Trading Co. for $96.65. J. K. Nahale, deputy sheriff, has made return on executions in all three cases, that he has found no real or personal property of the defendant within the district. The records are sent to the Supreme Court to give judgment jurisdiction over property of the defendant wherever it may be found in this Territory.

Kalei has filed a lengthy answer to the bill for partition brought against himself and Kam Foo Sin by J. Alfred Magoon. He denies many of the crucial allegations and claims that he "has been in full, open, notorious and adverse possession of said premises against all persons," also that he has paid the taxes thereon for many years last past, and alleges the fact to be that he, Kalei, is the owner in fee thereof.

Wong Peart answers the debt complaint of Au Con Cheok, saying he denies its allegations and intends to rely on the defense of fraud.

Judge Robinson granted a divorce to Eliseo Froboese against G. F. H. Froboese, with custody of the minor child to her, together with an order to libellee to pay $100 attorney's fee and $50 a month permanent alimony. Creighton for libellant; no appearance of or for libellee. The complaint was of extreme cruelty and failure to provide maintenance.

The wireless telegraph service is now open for business to Mahukona and all points on Hawaii and Maui. Telegrams will be received at the Inter-Island Telegraph Company's office, 14 Kaahumanu street.

Joe Green appeared in the Police Court today charged with larceny in the second degree. As the Grand Jury after looking into his case, failed to find a true bill against him, Green's case was nolle pros'd.

AUDITOR AUSTIN OBTAINS WRIT

Respondents Commanded Forthwith to Admit Him to Office.

JUDGE GEAR RENDERS ELABORATE DECISION

REVIEWS AUDIT AND ORGANIC ACTS ON GOVERNOR'S POWERS OF APPOINTMENT AND REMOVAL.

Immediately on obtaining his writ of mandamus Mr. Austin, accompanied by his attorneys, C. W. Ashford and A. G. M. Robertson, went over to the Audit office to demand possession. The policeman guarding the entrance would not allow Austin to enter, so he had to stay in the corridors. His attorneys went in and served the writ on Mr. Meyers, demanding that he obey its command. He refused to do so.

In the meantime appeal papers had been prepared in the Attorney General's office and filed with Judge Gear. Notice of appeal was served on Mr. Robertson, who after that made another demand on Mr. Meyers to surrender the office to Mr. Austin. This was also refused and the attorneys departed with their client.

Judge Gear has rendered a decision in the mandamus suit of Auditor H. C. Austin against Attorney General E. P. Dole, High Sheriff A. M. Brown and Deputy Auditor H. C. Meyers. It is on the demurrer of complainant to the answer of respondents, which latter was simply that they acted under orders from the Governor in keeping the Auditor out of his office. The demurrer is sustained and the writ ordered to issue.

The decision occupies forty-eight typewritten pages, going into the laws relating to the Auditor's office, the authorities bearing upon executive appointments and removals, and the circumstances of this particular case.

Referring to the Audit Act of the former Republic, Judge Gear says if Section 8, vesting the power of suspension or removal of the Auditor or Deputy in the Executive Council, is now in force, "the power is reposed in the Governor by the law, which gives him the powers of the Executive Council," but adds:

"This statute allowing the suspension or removal of these officers by the Governor, regardless of the advice and consent of the Senate, is absolutely incompatible with and directly contrary to Section 80 of the Organic Act, which requires the advice and consent of the Senate for their removal from office."

Further on the Judge says: "It is clear to my mind that a careful study of the Organic Act, in connection with the Audit Act, would show that the Organic Act is in its provisions as to appointment, tenure and removal of officers therein named, is exclusive and annuls Sections 1, 2 and 8 of the Audit Act providing for appointment and removal of the Auditor and Deputy Auditor."

Next Judge Gear observes: "The question then arises as to the power of the Governor, irrespective of statute, to remove or suspend an officer duly appointed who—as we will admit for the purposes of this discussion—committed malfeasance in office."

Many pages are devoted to this question, construing the laws and quoting authorities and near the con-
