How old is Ann?

Let V represent Mary's age now.
Ann was then X years old.
2X equals 10, which was Mary's age when she was 10 years old.
V equals prime
2V equals 10, and 10 equals the price of a glass of primo lager.
A glass of primo lager every day will keep you always young, healthy and strong and Ann is as old as she looks.

OUR ADVERTISING RULE

No Exaggeration! No Broken Promises!

Exaggeration is the bane of trade. It stimulates at first but always is a sign of weakness. We promise nothing that cannot be made good. We want the confidence of our customers and this is the way to get it. Remember this---fix it in your mind. Nothing but the truth must be told about our goods or about our store. We insist upon that. Misrepresentation is forbidden. Exaggerated statements as to qalities and values must not be made. That is the rule laid down to all employes.

We Are Now Ready For Business.

We have a remarkable stock of goods---all new, and the stock includes many exclusive novelties and dress patterns. Come and see our attractive display, and we will not necessarily expect you to buy. You will find the values tempting, however.

SOROSIS and WALK-OVER SHOES are leaders in our shoe department. We sell these shoes at the same price they are sold anywhere in the United States.

For convenience we have our store divided into several departments, comprising of HOUSEHOLD GOODS, LADIES' NECKWEAR, FANCY GOODS, ART GOODS, DRESS GOODS, MEN and BOYS' FURNISHINGS and CLOTHING, BOOTS, SHOES, etc.

AT THE CHURCHES

Central Union church was crowded yesterday morning with the people of its own congregation and those of the Methodist and Christian churches. On the pulpit were Governor Carter, Rev. G. L. Pearson, Rev. W. M. Kinnaid, Rev. E. S. Muckley and Rev. J. L. Hopwood. After the anthem "O Lord How Manifold," Governor Carter read President Roosevelt's Thanksgiving proclamation, followed by his own. The sermon by Rev. G. L. Pearson, of the Methodist church, was on the subject "Thanksgiving as a Means of Promoting National Prosperity." Special music was rendered.

At St. Andrew's Cathedral there was also a Thanksgiving service with special music. Rev. Canon Mackintosh preached a short sermon on the meaning of Thanksgiving.

At the Catholic Cathedral there was a special Thanksgiving mass at 9 o'clock. No sermon was delivered. There was special music by the choir, a feature being a duet by Mrs. Alapai and Father Valentin.

At Kawaiahao church the women of the congregation and their families gathered out under the trees and enjoyed a fine Thanksgiving dinner. While some of the food was donated a large amount was brought by the women themselves.

A LONG ROW.

The German training ship Herzogin Sophie Charlotte left for Sydney last Wednesday afternoon. During the night the steamship China was signaled. The next day at 4 a. m. a boat commanded by third officer Vogt and manned by eight of the boys was sent ashore from the vessel which was then twenty miles from the harbor, to get the mail. The boat's crew took dinner here and then rowed back to her ship which by this time had come up quite close to land. The Herzogin Sophie Charlotte then set sail for Sydney and soon disappeared from view.

FACE TO FACE WITH FACTS

It is a fact that shoes must not only be of honest material and well made but they must be neat, snappy, catchy and not ordinary.

This is embodied in a BASAN SHOE, this is what makes people talk about the Basan Shoe, and this is what is increasing our sale on this celebrated make.

Basan studies every detail of shoe building, so that each season their goods approach nearer perfection.

They are progressive people, and place their goods with progressive dealers.
