TRANSPORT RECORD

Breaking all records for the run made by transports of her type, the U. S. A. T. Sheridan arrived in port this morning from San Francisco, tying up at Naval Dock No. 2 at 7 o'clock. The transport left San Francisco on Thursday, June 1, and made the run down in 6 days 16 hours, arriving off Diamond Head at 4 o'clock from San Franciscetaoin .. sh cmfw from wharf to wharf. This is believed to have broken the former record by several hours. The Sheridan has made fast trips here before, but nothing like this.

The transport brings the Sixteenth U. S. Infantry, the First Squadron of the Seventh Cavalry and 100 men of the U. S. Marine Corps, with the officers and officers' wives. Col. B. D. Price is commanding officer of the Sixteenth Infantry, and Major Wm. J. Nicholson of the squadron of cavalry.

Among the passengers for this port is Surgeon General Wyman of the U. S. Army, on his regular tour of inspection. Hon. W. P. Hepburn, Congressman from Iowa, is a Honolulu passenger. He will remain in Honolulu until the arrival of the Taft party, when he will accompany it to the Philippines. Mrs. Hepburn accompanies her husband.

Brigadier General Edward Davis, U. S. A., is a Honolulu passenger. He has been recently retired and is coming to Honolulu to make his home here, where he is well known.

Brigadier General James A. Buchanan, U. S. A., is on the transport en route to the Philippines, where he has been recently assigned. Col. C. B. Byrne, of the U. S. Army medical department, is going to the Philippines, where he will be on duty. Other Army officers on board the transport are Lieut. Col. L. C. Allen, of the Sixteenth Infantry; Major C. W. Kennedy, of the same; Major G. E. McCarthy, U. S. Army Quartermaster, and Capt. A. J. Mathews of the U. S. Marine Corps. A. W. Adams and C. H. McGrew of the local U. S. customs service, were returning passengers. Lieut. Evan H. Humphrey, brother of Depot Quartermaster Humphrey, is an officer of the Seventh Cavalry.

The transport brought a large consignment of local mail, nearly 200 sacks in all, the accumulation of four days. The Sheridan is being rushed to Manila and will leave tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock. In San Francisco she was loaded in a great hurry, only a few days elapsing from the time she left the dry dock until she sailed for this port.

The summary of passengers shows that there are 144 cabin passengers, including officers, officers' wives and families and civilians, and the following steerage: 770 enlisted men, 16th Infantry; 252 enlisted men, 1st Squadron 7th Cavalry; 27 enlisted casuals; 100 enlisted men, U. S. M. C.; and civilians, a total of 1,299 on board the vessel, only five of whom are for this port.

The police last night arrested the manager of the Japanese theater and several actors. The warrants alleged an indecent exhibition and running a play house without a license.

DISCOUNT YOUR BILLS

When you neglect to pay a bill, you often have to pay interest. As soon as there is a cavity in one tooth, Nature has a bill against you. Every day you neglect it, she adds interest to your debt. Prompt attention to your teeth is the same economy as discounting bills.

A STRONG ENDORSEMENT UNSOLICITED.

Honolulu, T. H., May 18, 1905.
Mr. Clinton J. Hutchins, General Agent Hawaiian Islands for the Pacific Mutual Life Insurance Company, City.

Dear Sir:—I desire to express to you my appreciation of the prompt and business-like manner in which you have attended to the payment of the claim against the Pacific Mutual Life Insurance Company of California for $5,000 on the life of William Kamana, deceased.

I presented this claim to you on the first day of this month, and have today, sixteen days after the presentation of the claim, received from you a check for the sum of $5,455., being the amount in full of the Policy, $5,000., and $455., increased insurance. This is remarkably quick time for the settlement of the Policy and I desire to thank you and your Company for the way in which you have expedited the payment of this claim.

Very truly yours,
WILLIAM O. SMITH,
Administrator Est. Wm. Kamana.
