On TUESDAY, November 13, and following days, the PRIVATE LIBRARY
of W. H. CORNER, esq., of Baltimore, Md.
This collection consists almost exclusively of Works relating to "the New World," and is the result of many years' labor, constant attention, and great expense. The books are generally well bound and clean. The copies are very scarce books, and several of extreme rarity. The pamphlet pamphlets is large, and comprises many of value. The Library is especially rich in WASHINGTONIANA. Attention is solicited to the unrivalled collection of Washington Portraits, numbering nearly 500 different Portraits, including two or three that are believed to be unique; others of extreme rarity, and, as a whole, unsurpassed. Washington Medals, and Coin in Silver and Bronze. Indian work, Cortez and Montezuma and Andreana are well represented. Indian Histories and Captivities also.
There are many "uncut" books, both bound and in boards, early printed books, Bradford's, Franklin's, Chris. Sower, &c. Also, many Rare Tracts, generally of the largest size printed, and no unequalled collection of Books and Pamphlets in relation to the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, including a complete set of Reports to date.
Among the Books may be noted a fine set of Niles's Register; Schoolcraft's Indian Tribes; Sanderson's Signers, uncut; Documentary and Colonial History of New-York; Jacob's Life of Capt. Cook; Jones's Life of Marion; Heath's Memoirs; Drayton's Memoirs, uncut; Lewis's Missouri; Thacher's Journal; Reidesel's Letters; Zenger's Trial, fine; Bancroft's Spy Unmasked; Benson's Vindication of the Capture of André; do. Discourse on Indian Names; Stiles's Three Judges; Findley's Whiskey Insurrection; Kercheval's Valley of Virginia; Freneau's Poems; Trial of André (Philadelphia); Trial of André (Providence), &c. &c.

Under and by virtue of a decretal order of sale made by the Circuit Court of the United States for the District of Wisconsin, bearing date on the 19th day of September, A. D. 1866, I will expose for sale and sell at public auction at the Post-Office, in the City of Milwaukee, on Saturday, the 27th day of December, A. D. 1866, at the hour in the afternoon of that day, all the following described mortgaged premises:
All and singular the railroad of said Company, commencing in the City of Milwaukee, and running thence to Portage City, a distance of 43 miles, which road has been constructed and is now in full operation, and also the railroad of said Company as well that part which has been constructed as that part which remains to be constructed, from Watertown, by way of Columbus, to Midland, where it connects with the main line of the railroad of said Company, a distance of 40 miles, one-half of which last mentioned road being the part between Watertown and Columbus, was constructed at the time of the execution of said mortgage, and was then in full operation; including and singular the several tracts, pieces or parcels of land which then did or might thereafter constitute the site of the roadways, town sites, engine-houses, workshops, depots, and other buildings, and all the other land and real estate which then constituted or might thereafter constitute, or be a part of, or appertain to said railroads, or either of them, and also all and singular the superstructure of said rail roads, whether then made or made thereafter, and all the engine houses, workshops, depots and other buildings, and all the other improvements on or appurtenant to said railroads, or either of them, whether then built or made, or thereafter built or made; and also all and singular the locomotive engines, cars and rolling-stock, and all the machines, tools, implements and utensils, and other personal property which had been procured for or used in connection with said roads, or either of them, prior to the appointment of Hans Crocker as Receiver of said road, except 48 box-cars, numbered respectively 156, 172, 234, 238, 239, 240, 247, 344, 346, 348, 350, 357, 358, 359, 360, 361, 362, 363, 364, 365, 367, 368, 369, 370, 371, 372, 373, 374, 375, 379, 380, 382, 384, 386, 388, 390, 392, 394, 397, 398, and 401, 406 and 408, and including as part of said mortgaged premises such proportion of the rolling-stock bought by the Receiver since his appointment, as the net earnings of the Eastern Division of the said railroad, bear to the earnings of the Western Division, as ascertained by the report of H. L. Palmer, and as contributed by the court, and also all and singular the rights, liberties, and franchises of said railroad company, so far as they relate to said railroads from Milwaukee to Portage City, and from Watertown, by way of Columbus, to Midland, aforesaid, and all the property, real and personal, and all the rights, liberties, privileges and franchises of said railroad company, so far as they relate to said railroad from Milwaukee to Portage City, and from Watertown, by way of Columbus, to Midland. The said sale will be made without prejudice to any claim, right or interest of Ephraim Mariner of, in or to the front sixty feet of lots five (5), six (6), and seven (7), and the alley between lots five (5) and six (6) in block forty-one (41) in the Second Ward of the City of Milwaukee, as purchaser under two several judgments against the Dutchess and Milwaukee Railroad Company, one in favor of Hill & Rodd, and the other in favor of Joseph Carney; and that I will sell all the other property hereinbefore described, before I sell the railroad from Watertown, by way of Columbus, to Midland.
CASSIUS FAIRCHILD,
U. S. Marshal for and in the District of Wisconsin.

TO-NIGHT, at 8 o'clock, and every evening, the NEW and POWERFUL DRAMA OF THE PARSONAGE, in 5 acts, founded on Charles Reade's widely read, sterling romance, by ARTHUR SHIRLEY, author of "Lost, the Forsaken," "Tissington's Butterfly," etc., and entitled GRIFFITH GAUNT; OR, JEALOUSY,
presented with ENTIRELY NEW SCENERY, by Hayes and Ferru; New Music, by H. Tredinnick; New Costumes, by R. Williams; Machinery and Properties, by Denham and Lundy, and a carefully chosen cast including Miss Rose Eytinge and Mr. John K. Mortimer, who have been engaged expressly to sustain the leading characters in this brilliant play: Mrs. Gomersal, Mrs. Marie Wilkins, Messrs. Mark Smith, Lewis Baker, Gomersal, Bland, Jamieson, &c.
In the course of the drama an entirely novel and startling scene, representing, with historical accuracy, the old sports at the festival of LANCASHIRE FAIR,
including a "Country Dance," "Climbing the Pole," "Jumping in Sacks," tea old English games, a "Fig Gloar," etc., together with the old-fashioned puppet and side shows peculiar to the old established festivals of "Merrie England."
