SPORTS

AN AWFUL BEATING

Who says those Butchers can not play some ball? Ask the Lusitanas. Talk about your drubbings! Well lie L. A. C.s got theirs yesterday at the ball park and before the lads under Bushnell had finished they had piled up 21 runs against the Portuguese aggregation. Everybody but Kuhina on the Mets got one or more blasts and Bushnell, the crack pitcher, punched out all kinds of hits, batting him in six times up he got three singles, a two bagger, a three bagger and a home run. This record will probably stand in these islands as long as baseball is played. This lad Bushnell can play some ball and this recent performance places him in a class by himself in the Winter League.

Freitas and Rodrigues did the slab work for the L. A. C.s and allowed in all twenty-two base hits. Bushnell allowed but two off his delivery. In the second inning the Butchers piled up nine runs.

SPORTING TIPS

Dick Sullivan and Jack McFadden may pull out of town on the Alameda. This will be the last of the fighters.

Dick O'Meara claims that he is no tramp.

Chances are that Jack McFadden did not relish the idea of being called a preliminary fighter. Jack is as good as many fighting main-events on the Coast.

Sullivan will try to get on with Al Neil, the former welterweight champion. Chances are that Sullivan can beat Neil.

Spider Welch should be made a present of those pillows.

The Chinese Athletic Club held a mass yesterday afternoon to celebrate their victories on the diamond.

Hellbron's Butchers won the first series of the Mid-Winter League. They only lost one game in the series.

Wrestling is now talked of to take the place of boxing. We predict that the manager will not be over-burdened with maruma at the close of these shows.

The Honolulu Athletic Club will hold a banquet at the Grill on Tuesday to celebrate their winning of the championship the third consecutive time. Barney Joy will act as toastmaster.

The first race for the Beckley Cup will be on Sunday next.

Soccer practice will begin this week.

The great majority of sports do not take any stock in Dick O'Meara's confession.

COLLEGE PITCHER MAKES RECORD

That twenty-four inning game played at Boston recently was certainly one hummer and sets the mark for continuous playing in the major leagues. The pitchers who opposed each other showed rare form, and a remarkable thing about them is the fact that both are recruits from colleges, Coombs, the victor, hails from Colby College, while Harris, who was on the losing side, hails from Holy Cross. Coombs has been pitching for only a couple of months. He struck out twenty men in the twenty-four innings. Harris struck out fourteen of the Athletics in the same time. Several of the batters went to bat during the contest as often as ten times. The game was to have been the first of a double-header, but it consumed four hours and forty-seven minutes of playing time, so that the second contest had to be called off. Only one contest in the history of baseball lasted a longer number of innings than this game. In 1891 Fargo and Devil's Lake played twenty-five innings in Dakota, neither team scoring a run. Harvard College and Manchester went twenty-four innings about thirty years ago. On the 4th of July, 1905, Waddell and Cy Young fought a twenty-inning battle. Last season the Philadelphia Nationals played a twenty-inning game with Chicago.

SIMPLE LIFE ON HAWAII PRAISED

Honolulu's Righteousness Described By Lecturer In Teledo

The Toledo Daily Blade of September 12 contains the following account of a lecture on the Islands given at the meeting of the Men's Club of the First Baptist Church of Toledo held on the evening of September 11:

L. V. McKesson gave the club an interesting description of his recent trip to the Hawaiian Islands. The trip was made in February, in the rainy season, and the ocean was very stormy during the entire passage of six days from San Francisco to Honolulu.

"The bay of Honolulu is most beautiful. The climate of the islands is delightful, the volcanoes and hot springs marvelous, the mountains and valleys of surpassing beauty. In the total population of 160,000 there are about 10,000 whites; the rest are a mixture of Hawaiians, Japanese and Chinese. The native Hawaiians are dark-skinned, but not like the negro. They are straight-haired, jolly, fat people, a bit averse to work, and are great fishermen and navigators. Even the children are expert swimmers. All kinds of fruit are there—strawberries in February. One of their chief articles of diet is called 'poi,' which is said to contain 90 per cent of pepsin and is healthful.

"The immensity of the sugar factories is amazing. Much of the soil is decomposed laval beds, some twenty feet deep, and the richest in the world, often producing 16 to 18 tons of sugar to the acre. aWter is scarce, and irrigation works have been built, with a daily capacity of 70,000,000 gallons to supply the sugar plantations with needed moisture and insure regular crops.

"The flowing lava is so hot twenty miles from the crater that we cooked our coffee in it.

"The millionaires of the island are the children of former missionaries. Some of them are the most perfect examples of the 'simple life' I have ever seen. We in this country have much to learn from these islanders in civic life. There is more real righteousness among them than here. They have a brewery, though I saw little drunkenness. Of course there are tough sections of the city, too.

"The writes and natives intermarry. The children of the rich are sent to the United States and Europe to be educated. Honolulu has its '400,' too, and they are extravagant in display.

"One of the most inspiring sights I saw on the islands was a moonlight revival meeting, where hundreds had gathered to hear a wealthy young Scotch woman, the daughter-in-law of a prominent banker, through whose efforts many are being converted. They are having great revivals, of the old-fashioned kind."

The club meeting closed with refreshments and a hearty vote of thanks to Mr. and Mrs. Bartley for their generous hospitality.

A cough is a danger signal. You should heed its warning promptly. Begin at once, and take regular doses of

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral

All serious lung troubles begin with a common cold. A cold in the throat easily passes to the bronchial tubes, and you have bronchitis, leading possibly to pneumonia or consumption. Stop your cold before it goes down into the chest. When you bring a bottle of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral into the house you bring with it relief, good cheer, hope, and sunshine. It is a standard and unrivaled remedy for colds and coughs.

There are many substitutes and imitations. Beware of them and of so-called "Genuine Cherry Pectoral." Be sure you get AYER'S Cherry Pectoral.

Put up in large and small bottles.

C.A.C. CELEBRATES THE CHAMPIONSHIP

Baseball Luau of Club Hears Chinese Consul

The winning of the championship of the Riverside League was celebrated last night by the Chinese Athletics by a luau given at the residence of Ang. Ayau on Aala Lane. The affair was perfect of its kind and was attended by all the members of the club as well as a number of invited guests.

Before the feasting began the championship cup was filled with champagne by Mrs. A. K. F. Yap, the pretty wife of the president of the club, who offered a toast to the future success of the athletic sports of the organization. Then each member drank from the pretty silver emblem of championship, while the club members showed their approbation with cheers.

Besides the members of the club there were a few guests present who were called on for speeches, after the feasting was over. The presence of Chinese Consul Chang Tso Fan and his wife was considered a great compliment by the members of the club and he was heartily cheered as he rose to make a short address. He said in part:

"Mr. President and members and friends of the Chinese Athletic Club: I wish to congratulate you on the success which you have attained in this, the first year of your organization. The mere winning of the baseball championship is only a small matter as compared with the effect which it will have. This feast of yours will be known all over the world, in the United States, in England and in China. It will be far-reaching in its effect, as it shows the progressive spirit which is found in the modern life among the sons of China.

"I thank you for your courtesy to me and hope that you will find some way in which I can assist you and can help your club to a place even higher than that which you have attained."

Manager En Sue Kong, of the baseball team, made an interesting speech, speaking of the work which had been done in the line of athletics and foretelling that the club would win many championships like the one now in their possession. He urged particularly that the club members get together and see that the club had a permanent home. He stated that there was only a little enthusiasm needed to accomplish this and that he was sure that the next few months would see the members settled in their own quarters.

The decorations were very pritty, consisting of palms and Amrican and Chinese flags. One interesting flag was placed directly behind the head table at which Consul Chang Tso Fan was seated. This consisted of a yellow ground with a large Chinese dragon in black opening his jaws to smallow a red baseball which was coming towards him. A quintet club furnished the music and the feast was perfect in every way.

The members of the team winning the championship are: Sing Chong, ss.; P. Wong, lf.; John Lo, 1b.; H. Aki, p.; Hang Chack, 2b.; Ed. Ayau, 3b.; En Sue, c.; Mon Yin, cf.; Ching Yet, rf.

When the feasting was over speeches were called for from Sheriff Brown, A. V. Gear, H. Tomlins, County Attorney Douthitt, Coach En Sue, and a number of others. The speeches in Chinese were translated into English for the benefit of those present by Judge Gear, who made a hit with his unique method of interpreting.

Among those present were Consul and Mrs. Chang Tso Fan, Mr. and Mrs. A. K. F. Yap, Hung Quon, Lum Say Kan, Dr. Li, Mr. and Mrs. Chuck Hoy, Edwin Ayau, Sheriff Brown, E. A. Douthitt, J. S. Walker, Judge Gear, H. T. Lake, Messrs. Tomlins, Ayres, Barney Joy, Chang Kim, E. S. Kong, W. Kwai Fong, Lee Ping, En Sue.
