OUT THIS MORNING!
BEADLE'S DIME NOVELS—No. 116.
Comprising a highly pleasing story of the North Western Wilds, viz.:
THE HIDDEN HOME.
BY EDWARD WILLETT.
The romance of Forest Life possesses a perennial interest, as readers of this spirited work will confess. Mr. Williams is a very pure unsensational writer, of a well deserved position among our most popular authors.

THREE YEARS IN THE SIXTH CORPS—A CONCISE NARRATIVE OF EVENTS IN THE ARMY OF THE POTOMAC FROM THE AUTUMN OF 1861 TO THE CLOSE OF THE REBELLION, APRIL 9, 1865.—BY SURGEON GEORGE T. STEVENS.
This is the most beautiful and interesting work which has been written as an army record. It is not only a history of the Old Sixth Corps, but it gives a complete narrative of all the events in the Grand Army of the Potomac—its Campaigns, its Battles, the scenes in the camps and in the hospitals, in the bivouac and on the march—abounding in beautiful incidents, profusely and elegantly illustrated.
No work has ever been published which so perfectly reflects the every-day life of the soldier, while at the same time it gives a complete record of all the great movements of the Army.

A NEW NOVEL
BY SOLON ROBINSON,
THE VETERAN AGRICULTURAL EDITOR
OF
THE NEW-YORK TRIBUNE.
A novel by Solon Robinson, long and well-known as the Agricultural Editor of THE TRIBUNE, will be commenced in the WEEKLY TRIBUNE of December 8th. It is called NEWONTOC;
A STORY OF WESTERN LIFE, INDIAN AND DOMESTIC.
Though Mr. Robinson's first novel, we do not doubt that it will newly prove the worth of the pen that in so many chapters of successful writing for the farm and the fireside, and in behalf of the friendless poor of a crowded city has been entertaining and instructive.
A true Indian novel is among the rarities of latter-day fiction, and the pioneer life of the West, abounding, as it does, in rude but rich material for the work of the novelist, has found, of late, but few faithful delineators. It is not too much to say that few Americans have been so near to the American people in their homestead life and character as settlers and pioneers as the author of Newontoc; few have traveled so far and observed so closely amid the varieties of the farmer's and pioneer's life, East and West; and no writer for the daily press has had a keener relish for, and livelier sympathy with, the fresh and free out-door life which enters into the elements of his novel. Mr. Robinson's writings have always been marked by a quaint and direct force; pictures, simple but graphic, of things as they really are; practical and minute knowledge of the useful and the beautiful as they are brought together in every-day consciousness—these are some of the features of a style of word painting with which the readers of this paper have long been familiar.
The new novel, which will be begun the first week in December, will continue during the Spring.
In addition to this, THE WEEKLY TRIBUNE will contain, as usual, features of entertainment, instruction, and variety, surpassing those of any other journal published to benefit the home-life of the people, and justify the ever-increasing support which has made it the most widely circulated paper in America.
THE NEW-YORK WEEKLY TRIBUNE
is printed on a large double-medium sheet, making eight pages of six broad columns each. It contains all the important Editorials published in THE DAILY TRIBUNE, except those of merely local interest; also Literary and Scientific Intelligence; Reviews of the most interesting and important New Books; the Letters from our large corps of correspondents; the latest News received by Telegraph from Washington and all other parts of the country; a Summary of all important intelligence in this city and elsewhere; a Synopsis of the Proceedings of Congress and State Legislature when in session; the Foreign News received by every steamer; Exclusive Reports of the Proceedings of the Farmers' Club of the American Institute; Talks about Fruit, and other Horticultural and Agricultural Information essential to country residents; Stock, Financial, Cattle, Dry Goods and General Market Reports; making it, both for variety and completeness, altogether the most valuable, interesting and instructive WEEKLY NEWSPAPER published in the world.
The Full Reports of the American Institute Farmers' Club, and the various Agricultural Reports, in each number, are richly worth a year's subscription.
THE NEW NOVEL GRATIS.
Any person sending the money for ten copies WEEKLY TRIBUNE will be entitled to an extra copy gratis. The work, if published in book form, would cost two dollars.
Price of THE WEEKLY TRIBUNE five cents per copy. For sale by all Newsmen.

THE ATLANTIC MONTHLY AND
OUR YOUNG FOLKS
FOR DECEMBER, 1866.
CONTENTS OF ATLANTIC MONTHLY.
John Pierpont: My Garden; Borneo and Rajah Brooke; Passages from Hawthorne's Note-Books; Katharine Morne; the Sword of Bolivar; Through Broadway; My Heathen at Home; A Friend; The Singing-School Romance; Autumn Song; The Fall of Austria; Reconstruction; Reviews and Literary Notices.
Among the contributors to this number are R. W. Emerson, J. T. Trowbridge, H. T. Tuckerman, John Neal, C. C. Hazewell, Rev. G. Reynolds, the Author of "Herman," and J. W. Palmer.

THE ATLANTIC FOR 1867.
In addition to frequent contributions from the regular staff of writers for the ATLANTIC, comprising many of the best names in American literature, the volumes for 1867 will contain the following features of special interest:
Oliver Wendell Holmes will contribute a romance of New England life, a story of the present, entitled "The Guardian Angel," to extend through the year.
James Parton will furnish a series of Biographical Papers and of Industrial Articles upon prominent and peculiar American manufactures.
James Russell Lowell will write during the year regularly. His contributions will consist both of prose and poetry.
Bayard Taylor, who is about to visit Europe, will send from there a series of sketches of "The By-Ways of Europe." Mr. Taylor will also furnish during the year other sketches in prose upon miscellaneous topics.
Thomas Wentworth Higginson will supply several of those charming sketches of out-door life and natural scenery, which have made him so acceptable a contributor in years past.
Edward Everett Hale, Author of "The Man without a Country," "My Double and How He Undid Me," will contribute several stories and sketches in his peculiar vein.
F. Sheldon and Charles Dawson Shanly, two of our most brilliant writers, will furnish regularly for the Magazine articles of a popular character.
The Political Articles will continue to be a prominent feature. Impartial Suffrage, the Rights of Congress, and kindred topics, will receive full and earnest attention from the ablest writers in the country.
TERMS.—SINGLE SUBSCRIPTION—$4 per year. CLUB RATES—Two Copies for $7; Five Copies for $16; Ten Copies for $30, and each additional copy $3. For every Club of Twenty Subscribers an extra copy will be furnished gratis, or Twenty-one Copies for $60. Specimen Numbers sent to any address for 25 cents.
CONTENTS OF OUR YOUNG FOLKS.
The Little Man of the Mountain, by Elsie Teller, with full-page colored illustration; The Four Seasons, by Lucretia P. Hale, with four illustrations; A Summer in Leslie Goldthwaite's Life, by Mrs. A. D. T. Whitney; Willy Ely's Christmas Tree, by L. D. Nichols; The Birthday Box, by Hesba Stretton; Jo's Trial, by J. T. Trowbridge; Birdie's Christmas, by Margaret T. Canby; Pictures and Poets, with four full page illustrations; Skating Song, by Emily H. Miller, set to music by H. M. T.; Round the Evening Lamp; Our Letter Box.
OUR YOUNG FOLKS FOR 1867.
The editorial conduct of the Magazine will be the same as that which has been so acceptable thus far.
The list of contributors will include, as heretofore, the names of the most distinguished writers of the country, and the publishers will continue to rely for illustrations upon the assistance of the best artists and draughtsmen. Among the particular matters of interest that relate to the new volume may be mentioned the following:
The leading story of the year will be contributed by the Rev. Elijah Kellogg, author of the celebrated "Spartacus to the Gladiators," &c., and will be a vivid picture of the life of American boys and girls a century ago, preserving the history of customs and manners which are now forgotten or unknown, and enlivened with anecdote and incident.
Mrs. Harriet Beecher Stowe, after completing "Little Pussy Willow," will contribute regularly.
"Ronald the Wild Joe," the popular contributor to the old "Schoolmate," will furnish a series of articles of adventure and observation in foreign countries.
Bayard Taylor's tales of distant lands will be continued.
Mrs. A. M. Diaz has written several articles which will be found especially entertaining.
"Aunt Fanny" has supplied several stories which will be printed during the year.
P. H. C. will give several more of his favorite Lessons in Magic, some of which will take up a different class of experiments from those that have been previously explained.
Music. Each number of the next volume will contain a song composed expressly for "Our Young Folks." These songs will be written by Emily Huntington Miller, and each will be especially adapted to the month in which it appears.
Contributions will also be occasionally furnished by H. W. Longfellow, James Russell Lowell, J. G. Whittier, Capt. Mayne Reid, T. B. Aldrich, and other well known and favorite writers.
The Publishers will spare neither trouble nor expense in giving the best Illustrations which can be obtained. Full page Engravings from designs by Artists of the first estimation will be given regularly, and Colored Illustrations will be frequently supplied.
TERMS: Single Subscription—Two Dollars a year. Club Rates—Three Copies for Five Dollars; Five Copies for Eight Dollars; Ten Copies for Fifteen Dollars; Twenty Copies for Thirty Dollars; and an extra copy gratis to the person forming the Club of Twenty. Specimen Numbers sent to any address on receipt of Twenty Cents.
Special Premiums from Fifty to Two Hundred Dollars are offered for the largest clubs of new subscribers.
The Atlantic Monthly and Our Young Folks will be sent to one address for Five Dollars.

Teachers.

"AMER. SCHOOL INST.," founded 1855, IS A RELIABLE EDUCATIONAL BUREAU:
(1.) To aid those who seek well-qualified teachers, Principals, School Officers and Heads of Families should send full particulars of what teachers they want, and ask for the "Teachers' Bulletin." (2.) To represent educated teachers who desire positions. The demand for experienced teachers is good, especially for those who teach Classics, Military Tactics and Music. Professors of Music and superior Female Music Teachers are always in demand. All teachers should have the "Application Form." (3.) To give parents information of good schools. Facts concerning schools are properly classified, and are promptly submitted to those who seek schools for their children and wards. The reliability of the "American School Institute" is simply vouched for by well-known educators and business men in all sections of the country. This testimony will be sent when desired.
