PINKHAM SILENT

and the gang unlocked. Pinkham says he goes out among the lepers the same as he would go out anywhere else, and there are a few of them upon whom he calls at their homes.

Whenever he has been present at mass meetings he has sat upon the platform surrounded by the various committees and afterward has made his way through the crowd. He never has been molested yet.

He always goes to the office of the Board of Health in Honolulu to confer on business matters. There are clerks, employees and policemen there, and the lepers come and congregate in the room and converse the same as they do elsewhere. "I always treat them with the usual courtesy and respect," says Mr. Pinkham, "and they treat me the same way."

Pinkham says that just before he turned over the mail on his return trip he was handed a copy of the reading of the communication of the report to the Committee of Ten. "I don't think," he said, "that this report calls for particular consideration on my part. The results of the meeting will be given to the public at the proper time. There will be no meeting of the Board of Health Wednesday."

Some of the cases and claims at the Settlement are very difficult, and Pinkham says the lepers always assist him over them. When going up and down the path he is always accompanied by one leper on ahead to carry his baggage and the other to watch the horse. These two are very faithful and efficient.

The pail is far less dangerous than it used to be, although there are few who care to attempt to ride up it.

Wm. Notley, the chairman of the Committee of Seven at Molokai, has written the following letter to J. C. Lane, in which he speaks about Pinkham's visit at the Settlement:

Kalaupapa, Molokai, Dec. 6.

John C. Lane, Chairman Committee of Ten, Honolulu, Oahu.

Dear Sir:—Since my last letter we have had a visit from President L. E. Pinkham and held a meeting called by him of the Committee of Seven at the Board of Health office at 9 a. m. to discuss the pro and con of what he had come to the Settlement for on the J. Lor Wallach matter.

Yesterday he left his letter with some questions for our Committee of Seven to reply to in writing, which I have just now sent a copy of the questions to Chas. K. Notley.

I have also handed him the copy of our resolution which had enclosed copy of my letter to him.

Had I the time I would had a copy of Mr. L. E. Pinkham's letter made for you to read of what he had to say and learn what the Old Gentleman is up to.

Trusting to hear satisfactory news from you on the J. Lor Wallach matter which would tend to settle all for the good of us poor unfortunates, I am, etc.

RIGHT OF WAY FOR KOOLAU RAILWAY

Acting Governor Mott-Smith this morning approved the reservation and transfer to the Koolau railway of a right of way through Hauula. The road already runs through that district, but the land for the right of way has never before been transferred.

The railroad had the usual contract with the Superintendent of Public Works, under Section 73 of the Organic Act, for a right of way over Government lands. The reservation is to make this available. The strip of land transferred is 40 feet wide. The road is now built from Kahuku through Laie to Kahana.

The Weekly Edition of the Evening Bulletin gives a complete summary of the news of the day.

SIMS APOLOGIZES

over the matter ——. But I don't want to go into the particulars. I trust that Your Honor will feel assured of the sincerity of my apology.

"I also wish to express my regret for the remarks which I made which were derogatory to the prosecuting attorney. I wish to state that there were no grounds for the statements I made, and I hope that Mr. Brown will accept my apology. I also wish to apologize to the other officers of the Court and others whom I may have offended, and I will state that, God helping me, there will be no such incident happening again."

"I accept your apology, as I did your written apology," answered the Judge. "I have known you for a great many years, and our relations have been very cordial. When you were the clerk of the Circuit Court under Judge Gear, you were always courteous and gentlemanly towards me in every respect. It hurt me a great deal to have to deal with you as I did, but I gave you every opportunity before I took serious steps. I think that you are still at the age where you can mend your ways, and I hope that you will carry out the sentiments expressed in your last remarks, and that such incidents will not occur again."
