LITERARY ITEMS.

Dr. Isaac I. Hayes, the Arctic voyager, has in press a new volume, entitled "The Open Polar Sea; a Narrative of a Voyage of Discovery Toward the North Pole, Made in the Years 1860-61, in the Schooner United States." This work will be illustrated from designs by Darley, White, Fenn and others, after the author's sketches.

Hurd & Houghton announce for speedy publication, Lord Macaulay's "Speeches and Poems," with the report and notes on the Indian Penal Code, to match the History; "Charles Wesley, seen in his finer and less familiar Poems," edited by Frederic M. Bird; "Antonius, a dramatic Poem," by J. C. Haywood; "Venetian Life," by W. D. Howells, second edition enlarged.

W. J. Widdleton announces the following works for publication in elegant uniform style: "The Iliad of Homer," translated into English accentuated Hexameters, by Sir John F. W. Herschel; and the "Æneid of Virgil," translated into English verse—the octosyllabic ballad Epic of Sir Walter Scott—by John Conington, Corpus Professor of Latin in the University of Oxford.

A statement which has recently appeared in the papers, that Mr. Swinburne would reply to his critics in a preface to a new edition of the "Poems and Ballads," is incorrect. Under the title of "Notes on Poems and Reviews," the poet, at the instance of his present publisher, and by the wishes of private friends, has prepared a pamphlet, giving his interpretation of the poems objected to. Mr. Swinburne has withdrawn all his books from the Messrs. Moxon, and in future they will be published, along with his "Poems and Ballads," by Mr. Hotten of Piccadilly, who will shortly issue Mr. Swinburne's new book, "Essays upon the Life and Character of William Blake, the Artist and Poet." A volume of criticism on the much-censured "Poems and Ballads," by Mr. W. M. Rossetti (brother of Miss Christina Rossetti, the poetess), will be issued by the same house in a few days.

Among the other good things which are promised for the forthcoming Paris Exhibition, is a collection of the finest specimens of French printing and bookbinding. M. Firmin Didot, the Duc d'Aumale and several other distinguished collectors have promised to contribute, and copies of the first edition of Jacques de Thou, 1582, of the first edition of Montaigne's works, 1595, once the property of Queen Elizabeth, have already been offered.

A preliminary meeting for promoting the contemplated memorial to Lord Byron, has been held in Nottingham. The proposition most in favor was the erection of a bronze statue in Nottingham. Mr. Walker suggests Carlton-st. (Swine-green), the scene of the noble poetic first couplet—

"In Nottingham town, near to Swine-green, Lives as curst an old woman as ever was seen"— as the most appropriate place. The top of Market-st. was also mentioned as a proper place for the statue. The following resolutions were unanimously carried: 1. "That it is heartily desirable that an effort should be made for collecting a national subscription with a view of erecting a memorial to Lord Byron." 2. "That it is desirable to form a provincial committee, and that Mr. Down and Mr. Chapman be the Honorary Secretaries." It was then arranged to write to Lord Lytton, Lord Houghton, Sir John Bowring, Lord Brougham, Mr. Charles Dickens, and other noblemen and gentlemen for support. When replies from the above have been received, a public meeting will be convened.

Under the title of "Twelve Champions of Revolution," a work has been published at Berlin, giving the biography of twelve men of the revolutionary epoch of the last twenty years in Germany, France, Russia, and Italy. Freiligrath, Karl Rüttd, Robert Blum, Dortu, Hecker, Ruge, Schlöffel, represent Germany; Ledru Rollin and Louis Blanc, France; Bakunin, Russia; Mazzini and Cavour, Italy. The work is by M. Gustav Struv, one of the Democratic leaders of 1848, and Dr. Rasch.

THREE YEARS IN THE SIXTH CORPS—A CONCISE NARRATIVE OF EVENTS IN THE ARMY OF THE POTOMAC FROM THE AUTUMN OF 1862 TO THE CLOSE OF THE REBELLION, APRIL 9, 1865.—BY SURGEON GEORGE T. STEVENS.
This is the most beautiful and interesting work which has been written as an army record. It is not only a history of the Old Sixth Corps, but it gives a complete narrative of all the events in the Grand Army of the Potomac—its Campaigns, its Battles, the scenes in the camps and in the hospitals, in the trenches and on the march—abounding in beautiful incidents, prettily and elegantly illustrated.
No work has ever been published which so perfectly reflects the every-day life of the soldier, while at the same time it gives a complete record of all the great movements of the Army.

A NEW NOVEL
BY SOLON ROBINSON,
THE VETERAN AGRICULTURAL EDITOR
OF
THE NEW-YORK TRIBUNE.

A novel by Solon Robinson, long and well-known as the Agricultural Editor of THE TRIBUNE, will be commenced in the WEEKLY TRIBUNE of December 5th. It is called

ME-WON-I-TOC;

A STORY OF WESTERN LIFE, INDIAN AND DOMESTIC.
Though not Mr. Robinson's first novel, we do not doubt that this will newly prove the worth of the pen that in so many chapters of successful writing for the farm and the fireside, and in behalf of the friendless poor of a crowded city has been entertaining and instructive.
A true Indian novel is among the rarities of latter-day fiction, and the pioneer life of the West, abounding, as it does, in rude but rich material for the work of the novelist, has found, of late, but few faithful delineators. It is not too much to say that few Americans have been so near to the American people in their homestead life and characters as settlers and pioneers as the author of Me Won-I-Toc; few have traveled so far and observed so closely amid the varieties of the farmer's and pioneer's life, East and West; and no writer for the daily press has had a keener relish for, and livelier sympathy with, the fresh and free out-door life which enters into the elements of his novel. Mr. Robinson's writings have always been marked by a quaint and direct force; pictures, simple but graphic, of things as they really are; practical and minute knowledge of the useful and the beautiful as they are brought together into every-day consciousness—these are some of the features of a style of word painting with which the readers of this paper have been long familiar.
The new novel, which will be begun the first week in December, will continue during the Spring.
In addition to this, THE WEEKLY TRIBUNE will contain, as usual, features of entertainment, instruction, and variety, surpassing those of any other journal published to benefit the home-life of the people, and justify the ever-increasing support which has made it the most widely circulated paper in America.
THE NEW-YORK WEEKLY TRIBUNE is printed on a large double-medium sheet, making eight pages of six broad columns each. It contains all the important Editorials published in THE DAILY TRIBUNE, except those of merely local interest; also Literary and Scientific Intelligence; Reviews of the most interesting and important New Books; the Letters from our large corps of correspondents; the latest News received by Telegraph from Washington and all other parts of the country; a Summary of all important intelligence in this city and elsewhere; a Synopsis of the Proceedings of Congress and State Legislature when in session; the Foreign News received by every steamer; Exclusive Reports of the Proceedings of the Farmers' Club of the American Institute; Talks about Fruit, and other Horticultural and Agricultural information essential to country residents; Stock, Financial, Cattle, Dry Goods and General Market Reports; making it, both for variety and completeness, altogether the most valuable, interesting and instructive WEEKLY NEWSPAPER published in the world.
The Full Reports of the American Institute Farmers' Club, and the various Agricultural Reports, in each number, are richly worth a year's subscription.
THE NEW NOVEL GRATIS.
Any person sending the money for ten copies WEEKLY TRIBUNE will be entitled to an extra copy gratis. The work, if published in book form, would cost two dollars.
Price of THE WEEKLY TRIBUNE five cents per copy. For sale by all Newsmen.

AN IMPORTANT BOOK
PUBLISHED THIS DAY BY
CHAS. SCRIBNER & COMPANY,
No. 654 BROADWAY, New-York.
THE CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION:
ITS HISTORY, POWERS AND MODES OF PROCEEDING, etc.
JOHN A. JAMESON,
Of the Superior Court of Chicago, Illinois.
One Vol., Octavo, 575 Pages. Price, $4 50.
The most urgent question in American public law, at present, relates to the Nature and Powers of the Constitutional Convention.
In this inquiry, the Author has been led to inquire into,
1. The history of all the Conventions thus far held in the United States, including, as well, those of the Revolution as the Secession and Reconstruction Conventions held since the year 1860.
2. The proper functions of the Convention.
3. The powers of the Convention.
4. Such of the modes of proceeding in Convention as have become settled, or in respect to which discussions generally arise in those bodies.
In the execution of this work, particular pains have been taken to present with accuracy all the facts relating to the Convention system, or in respect to which questions have arisen, and have been the subjects of discussion in its pages.
Although many of the questions considered are vital to existing political issues, the author has not shrunk from discussing them.
