ALAMEDA BRINGS 57 PORTO RICANS

Experienced Cane Cutters Will Go To Kahuku Plantation

Fifty-seven more units in the pleasant game of work today arrived on the Alameda in the shape of Porto Ricans. They are going at once to Kahuku plantation.

These are not the families that have been advertising the mean people of Honolulu in San Francisco by claiming themselves to be destitute, but come direct from the other island on the east side of things. They are brought here by the Planters' Labor Bureau.

Secretary A. L. C. Atkinson of the Territorial Board of Immigration, stated this morning that the Porto Ricans and Spanish in Frisco who claim to have been lured to Honolulu by false pretenses are born fakirs in substance and hinted at their lack of ordinary horse sense.

He also said that it seems impossible to teach these people that upon arriving in Honolulu, the Hawaiian Islands are the best place to stay, but they periodically treck back to the Coast city and stay there, a burden on the authorities until brought back. They have work awaiting them here, with good homes and food, and they have no reason to be dissatisfied.

Secretary Mead of the labor department of the Planters' Association stated today that the date of the next arrival of Poro Ricans is not known.

It has been said about town that the Porto Rican has been much maligned as to his capacity for work and faithfulness. In his own home he is an efficient plantation worker, experienced in handling cane, and capable of doing all the work of the plantations.

SIX APPLY FOR POSITION

There are to date six applications for the position of chief clerk in the Executive office, but both Governor Frear and Secretary Mott-Smith say that they will not hurry in making a selection. Mr. Mott-Smith has completed the forty new forms of reports for the Board of Health, and this morning submitted them for approval to Attorney General Hemenway, and says he will not consider the clerk's appointment until after he is through with the reports.

Among the applicants for the chief clerkship are George Smithers, late license clerk in the Treasury office; L. S. Conness, of the Star; E. White Sutton, third deputy under Attorney General Memenway; E. P. Irwin, late of the Bulletin. The position pays $1,800 a year, with some additional pay for Board of Health work. H. P. O'Sullivan is acting chief clerk now, and has filled the position since Treasurer Conkling left for Hawaii last week. It is not known whether he is a candidate, but he is painstaking and conscientious in his work.

MAYOR AND COUNTY DADS SEE SCHOOLS

Mayor Fern, accompanied by Supervisors Quinn, Ahia, and County Engineer Gere, went over in Quinn's automobile today to inspect the school buildings of the Fifth District. Yesterday afternoon they went over the schools in the Fourth. Ahia stated today that the schools in the Fourth are in good condition. Of course, said he, there are certain things to be straightened out, but what they are, he would not say.

Chicago, June 23.—Agreements were entered into today by which the assets and business of the Continental National Bank and American Trust and Savings Bank are to be consolidated, making the second largest financial institution in Chicago, with combined capital and surplus of $16,500,000 and deposits of $115,000,000.

The signatures of the managing officers were attached to the agreement today. Their action will be ratified tomorrow or Friday by the directorates of the two institutions and later by the stockholders. Each of the banks is to retain its name and its corporate existence. In the new combinations the function of the Continental National will be to handle the commercial end of the business, leaving the trust and bond business to the American Trust.

PROMOTION MAY GET HELP FROM COUNTY

The question of financial assistance for the Promotion Committee is now up to the Board of Supervisors. W. H. Hoogs, at the last regular meeting of the Board, brought the matter up, and the solons now have it under consideration. There seems to be a general sentiment in favor of extending aid if it can lawfully be done, and an opinion will probably be secured from the County Attorney.

Japanese Who Assaulted Strike Breakers Pleads Not Guilty

Kisa Kono was arraigned before Judge Wedley this morning in the Circuit Court on the charge of assaulting two strike breakers at Paauilo recently, and making a threat to kill them both. He pleaded not guilty and his case was set for hearing on next Wednesday.

EXPERT WITNESS IN MISO CASE

United States District Judge Dole listened to the arguments presented further in the Miso case this morning by Attorney Peters, counsel for Fujiama, and Attorney Rawlins, representing the government. Peters introduced a nexpert witness on the stand who gave the technical qualities of Miso as a bean food. It is the purpose of the plaintiff in this case to establish that Miso is not in the classification under which custom duty was charged on shipments imported to the Islands, contending that the duty was too high. The hearing is still on before the Court.

GOOD SERVICE IS A BUSINESS ASSET

JULIA WARD HOWE, NINETY YEARS OLD; HER GREAT - GRANDCHILD AND NAMESAKE

Women suffragists in all parts of the country participated in a big celebration to mark the ninetieth birthday of Mrs. Julia Ward Howe on May 27. Mrs. Howe was born in New York city in 1819. Her father's house in Bowling Green was the meeting place of the literary folk of that time—Washington Irving, William Cullen Bryant and all of that coterie. Brought up in this intensely literary atmosphere, it was natural that she should write for the papers and magazines of her girlhood day. Her first poem appeared when she was not yet seventeen years old. In 1843 she went to Boston and married Samuel Gridley Howe, a literary man. Mrs. Howe first became interested in the anti-slavery movement, which was startling before she married. Then she took up prison reform, woman's suffrage, world peace, and she has lent her brain to nearly every worthy movement for the good of the American people. She has not only written many books, but she has lectured over the entire country. Her "Battle Hymn of the Republic" is known all through the land. She is still wonderfully active mentally for a woman of ninety years, and her memory of the past is astonishing. The baby in the accompanying illustration is Julia Ward Howe Hall, Mrs. Howe's great granddaughter.
