H. W. Green the genial collector, who is well known to every man in Honolulu, returned from Seattle yesterday on the steamer Lurline. He says the Hawaiian fish in the exhibition building are certainly attracting a large number of visitors there daily.

James W. Price of San Jose, Cal., has written this paper to the effect that he is willing to come to Honolulu and give two exhibitions of his dirigible airship for the sum of $1,500.

All members of the regular police who have been stationed at the various plantations during the strike have been called in with the exception of three men at Waipahu. Some Japanese have protested against the withdrawal of the men, being still afraid of the late strikers.

Secretary Wood of the Promotion Committee received a cable from the Hawaii's Exhibit Commission in Seattle for 500 additional cases of pineapples. The demand for the island fruits is so great that the local people will send up the additional cases as soon as possible.

Miss Starbird, teacher at the Royal school, returned this morning on the Claudine from Hilo, where she has been spending part of her summer vacation. Among other pleasure trips Miss Starbird reports a very interesting tour of the volcano, which is quite active at present.

Julius Ramon was this morning released by Judge Andrade in the police court, the case against him being nolprossed by County Attorney Cathcart. He was charged with stealing five cents but his honest explanation won out for him.

License Inspector Fennel has begun a crusade against the sellers of adulterated liquor. Yesterday he made the round of the liquor houses in company with Food Commissioner Duncan and secured a number of samples of "Dago Red," which will be analyzed by the food commissioner.

After clever work on the part of Joe Leal in catching nineteen Chinese gamblers red-handed in the palkau fortress at Waipahu, Deputy Sheriff Fernandez yesterday nol-prossed the case before the District Magistrate at Ewa. Only five of the nineteen bailed out appeared and the balance forfeited their bail money. Fernandez gave as his reason for the astonishing action that there was no evidence.

Mori, the Japanese who stabbed Sheba, has failed to secure a reduction in his bail of $5000 fixed some time ago by Judge De Bolt. Mori must have two sureties upon his bond and according to the law each surety must be worth twice the amount of the bond, meaning that Mori must get two bondsmen worth $10,000 each.

BALLINGER AND PINCHOT CLASH OVER LANDS AND WATERWAYS

Washington, Aug. — It is confidently believed in semiofficial circles here that the clash between Richard A. Ballinger, Secretary of the Interior, and Gifford Pinchot, head of the government forestry department, over the conservation of timber lands and waterways will result in the retirement of one or the other of these officials. Mr. Pinchot in his speech before the Irrigation Congress at Spokane directly charged that a water power trust was threatening to grab the resources of the northwest and that "legal technicalities" should not be allowed to stand in the way of the proper conservation of these resources. This was regarded as a criticism of Mr. Ballinger's policy, if not the policy of the administration. Since Mr. Ballinger has come into office he has restored to entry and settlement 180,000,000 acres of public lands which in the last days of the Roosevelt administration were withdrawn from entry as a part of Mr. Roosevelt's conservation policy.
