DEMAND RICRES OF PRINCES

(Associated Press Cable.)

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Jan. 1.—One of the most significant changes following the establishment of the provisional Republic of China is shown in a proclamation issued today by the republican authorities providing for the adoption of the Western calendar, which will hereafter conform with the Christian calendar of Europe and America, to take effect at once, with the new year beginning on January 1.

Demands Their Hoarded Gold.

SHANGHAI, China, Jan. 1.—It is stated that Premier Yuan Shih Kai will present to the throne tomorrow a written demand signed by all of the imperial commanders of troops in the northern army, that the princes and nobles of the imperial clan surrender their immense wealth for the continuance of the war.

Unless the throne consents and the princes of the royal family give up their hoarded millions of centuries, the soldiers demand that their wealth be commandeered for the use of the army and for military purposes.

Starts for New Capital.

President Sun Yat Sen of the Chinese Republic departed today from this city for his new capital of Nanking. General Li Yuen Hung will be commander-in-chief of the republican troops in the field.

Emperor and Empress Flee.

LONDON, Eng., Jan. 1.—Special dispatches received here from Peking report that the emperor and empress have fled from the imperial palace to take up their residence in Sehike, which is on the Mongolian frontier.

INSURGENTS SHY AT POSSIBLE CANDIDATES

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 1.—Action which may have a far-reaching political effect in the ranks of the insurgent faction of the Republican party was taken here today by the delegates attending the first conference of the progressive Republican party of Ohio.

By a vote of 52 to 22 they refused an endorsement of Senator Robert M. La Follette as Republican candidate for President in the coming campaign.

They decided in favor of a personal expression of opinion by the delegates to the national convention in favor of a candidate, although they declared that La Follette was the logical candidate.

Senator J. D. Works of California, one of the leading progressives, made the statement that Theodore Roosevelt should declare himself positively and finally both as to his candidacy and his stand on the principles that have been accepted by the progressive wing of the Republican party.

McMANIGAL WILL TALK ON DYNAMITE

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Jan. 1.—Ortie McManigal, charged with murder for complicity with the McNamaras in blowing up the Times building, left here today in custody of Detective Malcolm McLaren for Indianapolis, where he is expected to give testimony before the Federal grand jury which is investigating the alleged dynamite conspiracy involving offices of organized labor.

PRESIDENT GREETS MANY THOUSANDS OF VISITORS

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 1.—During the New Year's reception at the White House today, President Taft, by actual count, shook hands with just 8092 visitors. The line of those who called to pay their respects to the President extended for some distance down Pennsylvania avenue.

CARS BURN IN ACCIDENT.

ST. PETERS, Mo., Jan. 1.—Eight coaches on the Wabash Railroad were derailed near here today and fourteen passengers were severely injured. The cars caught fire after the accident and were burned.

FIGHT ELEVEN ROUNDS.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Jan. 1.—In a scrutching fight here today L. A. Rivers knocked out Conley in the eleventh round.

DEVOTIONAL SERVICE ON U. S. S. WEST VIRGINIA

A short song service on the decks of the U. S. S. West Virginia Sunday afternoon was followed by devotional exercises led by J. M. Martin. George W. Paty, presided, introducing Paul Super, secretary of the Young Men's Christian Association, who gave a talk on the subject: "Scientific Fighting: Some Rules of the Game." Hawaiian music was rendered by vocal aggregations from Kawaiahao and Kaumakapili churches.

The service was conducted under the auspices of the Oahu Young People's Union and was largely attended by the men of the fleet.
