["Private and Confidential.]
UNITED STATES EXPRESS COMPANY,
BUFFALO, October 5, 1866.

"To Superintendents and Agents of the United States Express Company.

"An organization known as the 'Merchants Union Express Company' has commenced an Express business over some of the routes occupied by this Company. Our superintendents and agents are instructed under no circumstances to have business relations with this organization, directly or indirectly. No express matter of any description is to be received from them, or delivered to them, whether paid or unpaid, consigned or unconsigned.

"You are also instructed to retain the business of the United States Express Company, at whatever reduction in price may be necessary, on all routes where 'The Merchants' Union Express Company' comes in contact with this Company.

"To accomplish this you will, from time to time, reduce the rates of transportation on all Express matter to such a figure as, in your judgment, will not only secure the business, but preserve the most friendly relations with the patrons of the Company and the public generally.

"Upon routes where there is no competition, you will maintain rates unless otherwise instructed from this office.

"Yours respectfully, HENRY KIP, Gen'l Supt."

"B."

THE AMERICAN EXPRESS COMPANY.
OFFICE OF THE AMERICAN EXPRESS COMPANY,
Nos. 122 and 124 BROADWAY, N. Y., February 15, 1867.

DEAR SIR: The managers of the American Express Company have deemed it prudent and for the best interests of the stockholders to omit the usual quarterly dividend, payable on this date, so that the entire earnings of the Company may be used in carrying on to a successful result the competition with an organization formed to "black-mail this and other established express companies. The generous support given from all quarters to the Merchants' Union Express Company is conclusive evidence that the American people have no sympathy with a Company that publicly say they will destroy legitimate competition or "die in the attempt."

If such a course will cause my stock to again become as valuable as ever, it will be contrary to all past experiences in the managements of corporations.

On the contrary, if you would divide among the stockholders the vast sums paid for publishing articles signed "Padlock," "Stockholder," and other larger and still more foolish expenditures, and give the same attention to the legitimate business of the Company, my stock would much sooner command a respectable price in market than it will under the present management.

Your obedient servant, NORRIS WINSLOW.
