THE STATE ELECTIONS

The Republicans Seem to Have the Best of the Situation in Tuesday's Contests.

AN INCREASED PLURALITY IN OHIO.

Gov. Nash Re-Elected and the State Legislature Will Be Largely Republican in Both Branches.

Fusion Wins in New York City While Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Massachusetts and Other States Go Republican.

Columbus, O., Nov. 6.—The republicans carried Ohio by such increased plurality on their state ticket and with such an enlarged majority in the legislature as to cause all sorts of comment on "what did it." The result continues the republicans in power in the state, making an epoch of 42 years in succession for that party in Ohio, and it insures the re-election of Senator Foraker.

The extent of the republican success is attributed to the silver democrats not liking the attitude of John R. McLean, the democratic candidate for governor two years ago, and the Ohio members of the democratic national committee to the interior organizations of the republicans and other causes.

The republicans attribute the result largely to the popular desire not to disturb the prevailing prosperity, it accords also with Senator Hanna's appeal to "let well enough alone," the desire to support President Roosevelt in carrying out the policies of McKinley and the endorsement of Gov. Nash and Senator Foraker. Chairman Dick sent a messenger to Gov. Nash at the state house and telegrams to Senator Foraker, at Cincinnati, and Senator Hanna, at Cleveland, congratulating them on the result. In Hamilton county, which includes Cincinnati, there was a mixed delegation in the last legislature when John R. McLean alone, carried that county for governor. The delegation then had only two republicans. This year the delegation consists of 11 republicans. Lucas county had two republican members in the last legislature, but under the new census it has four members, all republicans. The democrats gain four members in Franklin and one in Adams and Pike counties. The republicans gain one member each in Summit, Muskingum, Ross and Williams counties. In the last legislature Montgomery had one republican and one democratic member. This year that county elected three republican members.

"Local option" candidates of both parties for the legislature have been defeated.

The republican plurality exceeds the average of 15,000 for the last ten years, or since the first election of McKinley as governor, which has been termed the greatest republican era in Ohio. The plurality for McKinney for his last year was 83,687, or a total vote of 1,189,132, and for Nash two years ago 64,482, with a total vote of 1,080,372. The total vote this year will not reach 800,000, and the shortage is considered one of the features of the campaign, from which the democrats were the greater losers.

From the Different Cities.

Cincinnati, Nov. 6.—The entire republican ticket was elected in Hamilton county by majorities ranging from 4,000 to 4,500. The closest fight was made against Congressman Audley Lewis for re-election, but while he ran behind his ticket, he still outdistanced his opponent by several thousand votes.

Chillicothe, O., Nov. 6.—Nash's majority in Ross county is estimated at 400.

Springfield, O., Nov. 6.—Clark county gives Nash, rep., for governor 1,900 plurality; Hynes, rep., for representative, will receive 1,500 plurality. The vote is 200 per cent. less than two years ago.

Mansfield, O., Nov. 6.—Returns thus far received indicate a democratic loss in Richmond county of at least 200 over two years ago. Kilbourne carries the county by between 500 to 600.

Findlay, O., Nov. 6.—Hancock county went republican by 400 majority. Gov. Nash carried the city by several hundred majority and the rest of the county close to these figures.

Phamta, O., Nov. 6.—Light vote here: Nash, 504; Kilbourne, 465.

Marietta, O., Nov. 6.—Washington county goes republican by fully 1,500. Middleport was elected to the lower house by 150. Moore, for the senate, carries the county by 1,000. Returns from 4th district indicates Moore for senate by over 2,000.

Portsmouth, O., Nov. 6.—Nash carried the city by 800 majority.

Newark, O., Nov. 6.—The indications are that Kilbourne will carry the county by about 600. In 1899 McLean carried it by 322. Livingston, rep., for commissioner, is defeated by 500.

Columbus, O., Nov. 6.—Complete returns from the city of Columbus give Nash, rep., 12,762; Kilbourne, dem., 13,615; Kilbourne's plurality, 1,853. Nash carried the city two years ago by 2,335. Kilbourne's plurality in Franklin county is about 2,500. The democrats have certainly elected two senators and two out of four representatives in Franklin county. The remaining two representatives-at-large are doubtful.

Toledo, O., Nov. 6.—In the face of the fact that the democrats fought against Gov. Nash on the ground that he killed the Toledo centralized by using his influence to defeat any measure in the legislature which appeared more than liable for the centralized, the governor carried this county by nearly 1,000 majority. The entire county ticket, including one senator, four representatives and three county officers, three judges have majorities ranging from 1,000 to 4,000.

Canton, O., Nov. 6.—Stark has carried Stark county by about 1,500, a gain over his vote of two years ago of nearly 1,500. Nash carries Canton by 300, a gain over two years ago of 350. Republicans elect complete county and legislative ticket.

Fremont, O., Nov. 6.—Unofficial returns from all precincts in Sandusky county give Nash the county by 1,100, a democratic falling off of about 1,600 and a republican falling off of about 500. The republicans have also elected their candidate for the legislature and claim the entire county ticket.

Lima, O., Nov. 6.—Kilbourne carries Allen county by at least 1,000.

Dayton, O., Nov. 6.—Returns from Montgomery county show republican legislative ticket elected by from 1,100 to 2,000. Nash's plurality two years ago was 1,900, indicating a gain of over 500.

Hamilton, O., Nov. 6.—City, complete: Kilbourne, 2,116; Nash, 2,934.

Zanesville, O., Nov. 6.—Nash carries Muskingum county by 600, a gain of 700 over two years ago.

Tiffin, O., Nov. 6.—Kilbourne will carry his county by about 500. The democrats elect senator and representative and entire county ticket, except treasurer.

Sandusky, O., Nov. 6.—Nash's plurality in Erie county is 442, republican loss 297, republican representative is elected by 300, democrat, rep., elected senator by 800, a gain of one senator.

Akron, O., Nov. 6.—This city gives Nash about 1,000 plurality.

Steubenville, O., Nov. 6.—This city, Nash, rep., elected senator by 1,500; Kilbourne, dem., 1,600.

Springfield, O., Nov. 6.—The vote here was: Nash, 3,604; Kilbourne, 3,091.

Marietta, O., Nov. 6.—City, complete: Nash, 1,746; Kilbourne, 1,279.

Mt. Vernon, O., Nov. 6.—City, complete: Nash, 1,094; Kilbourne, 882.

PENNSYLVANIA.

Philadelphia, Nov. 6.—Returns from the state indicate the election of Frank G. Harris, rep., for state treasurer, and Wm. Potter, rep., for supreme court justice, by pluralities considerably below those for 1896 when Barnett, rep., had 110,000 plurality. The reduction of the republican plurality is due in part to the light vote cast.

John Weaver, rep., is probably elected district attorney in Philadelphia over Rothermel, fusion.

RHODE ISLAND.

Providence, R. I., Nov. 6.—The republican plurality for the state ticket promises to run well over 6,000. This is a net loss of 2,000 from last year, due to the light vote. The general assembly will be republican strongly.

SOUTH DAKOTA.

Sioux Falls, S. D., Nov. 6.—The vote was light over the state, only circuit judges being elected. The republicans elected all eight judges, and the democrats claim the election of Bennett in the Third and McGee in the Seventh.

NEBRASKA.

Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 6.—The election in Nebraska was extremely quiet. All of the returns indicate that the republican state ticket has been elected perhaps by as much as 10,000 majority.

KENTUCKY DEMOCRATIC.

Both Branches of the Legislature, Which Will Elect a United States Senator, Democratic.

Frankfort, Ky., Nov. 6.—Returns from over Kentucky show that the democrats will control the general assembly on joint ballot and elect a United States senator, and will have a safe working majority in each of the branches. The republican leaders some time ago gave up hope of getting majority of both houses and devoted their time and finances to securing control of the senate, to prevent adverse legislation, but the returns show that the democrats will have at least 25 of the 38 members. The democrats have gained in close legislative districts also, and will have a big working majority in the lower house.

Former Gov. James B. McCreary, one of the leading candidates for the democratic senatorial nomination, claims to have been the beneficiary of the gains in the close districts and that he will be nominated on first ballot. The most interesting fight in the legislative races was in the Fulton-Hickman district in Western Kentucky between Ayres, regular democrat, and Naylor, independent democrat. Congressman Wheeler, Chas. J. Bronston, of Lexington, and other party leaders stumped the district for Ayres, and the party committee endorsed him. Naylor was and will go into the democratic caucus, but says he will vote against Wheeler for senator.

In the city elections in Louisville, Lexington, Paducah, Frankfort and other towns of the central and western parts of the state the democratic nominees were successful.

Middlesboro, Ky., Nov. 6.—Col. David G. Colson, former congressman from the 11th congressional district, was elected to the general assembly of Kentucky by a large majority. Colson is a republican. B. H. Wilson, rep., was elected to represent Knox and Whitley counties in the Kentucky legislature. C. H. Durham, dem., was elected county clerk of Bell county.

SETH LOW ELECTED.

The Fusion Ticket in New York City Defeats the Regular Democratic Ticket By Good Majority.

New York, Nov. 6.—Seth Low, former president of Columbia university, and four years ago the citizens' union candidate for the first mayor of Greater New York, was elected the second mayor of Greater New York by a plurality ranging anywhere from 30,000 to 65,000, defeating Edward M. Shepard, of Brooklyn, the democratic nominee. The campaign was an exciting one, and the vote, though somewhat less than the presidential election a year ago, was the largest ever polled in a municipal contest in this country.

In addition to the contest for mayor public interest largely centered in the nomination by the factionists of William Travers Jerome, district attorney, and Mayor Robert A. Van Wyck, by the democrats, for justice of the supreme court, were voted for only in the territory contained in New York county. Jerome was elected by a comfortable plurality and Mayor Van Wyck was defeated, the latter running behind his ticket from 15,000 to 20,000.

Returns also indicate the complete success of the fusion ticket of Greater New York, headed by Charles Vincent Fornes, the nominee of the citizens' union and the republicans for president of the board of aldermen, defeating George M. Van Nessen, the democratic nominee.

Reports received from the various sections of New York state show that the republicans will retain control of the lower house of the state legislature, the number of republican and democratic assemblymen not differing materially from the figures of preceding years.

MASSACHUSETTS.

Boston, Nov. 6.—With no state or national issues and but a few local contests to arouse interest, there were more ballots cast in the state election Tuesday than in any off year in the history of the state. The total vote exceeded 400,000. As usual the republicans had no difficulty in carrying the state. W. Murray Crane, of Dalton, being elected governor for the third time. Practically the same majority as when he first ran for the office in 1897. The state legislature of 1902 will be strongly republican, although the democrats gained a few votes.

IOWA.

Des Moines, Ia., Nov. 6.—A republican majority for governor has been elected by a plurality exceeding 100,000, the largest ever given a governor in this state. The entire republican state ticket is elected by similar pluralities, and some extraordinary gains have been made in the legislature, so that in the legislature contests that have gained three or four members to add to their majority in the senate, while in the house their now great majority will be increased by seven or eight.

VIRGINIA.

Richmond, Va., Nov. 6.—Although in the election the democrats polled only about 35 per cent. of their vote the republicans evidently did not generally evince interest in the contest, and the indications now are that the democratic majority on joint ballot in the legislature will be overwhelming. On the legislative ticket the Democrats made gains in the southwest, where they feared they were weak.

NEW JERSEY.

Trenton, N. J., Nov. 6.—Late returns bear out the earlier indications that Franklin Murphy, rep., has been elected governor by about 20,000 plurality. Partial returns from the different counties show that most of them gave about the same pluralities as were given three years ago when Voorhees, rep., was elected governor by 1,000 plurality. Both branches of the legislature are republican.

MISSISSIPPI.

Jackson, Miss., Nov. 6.—Returns from the election in Mississippi indicate that Power has carried the state for secretary of state by a handsome plurality over his four competitors. In the race for state treasurer the result is not so certain, and it is not possible to say whether Carlisle or Evans is elected.

CONNECTICUT.

New Haven, Ct., Nov. 6.—Connecticut chose delegates to the first constitutional convention to be held in the state since 1818. Of the 168 towns in the state, 66 have been heard from, showing that republican delegates were elected in 50, democrats in 14 and citizens or non-partisan candidates in 18.

In Roosevelt's District.

New York, Nov. 6.—President Roosevelt's district in the town of Oyster Bay, L. I., was carried by the republican candidate for assembly by seven majority, and by the democratic candidate for district attorney by 30 majority.

Vote of the Veterans.

Leavenworth, Kan., Nov. 6.—The veterans of the National Military home here voted in Tuesday's election for the first time under the recent act of congress and the state legislature giving them the franchise. They cast a light vote, 410 for republican and 18 for democratic candidates.

PREPARING FOR WAR.

French Admiral Seizes Customs at Turkish Ports.

Ammunition and Supplies of All Kinds Necessary to Revictual His Squadron Will Be Rushed to Him as Soon as Possible.

Paris, Nov. 4.—The officials of the French foreign office confirm the report that a division of the French Mediterranean fleet, composed of three battleships and two cruisers, under the command of Adm. Caillard, has proceeded from Toulon to the Levant to make a naval demonstration against Turkey.

A Constantinople telegram received by way of Philippopolis asserts that the sultan has resolved to defy the French government.

Adm. Caillard's squadron consists of the armored cruisers, Admiral Pothuau, Chanzy and Latouche-Treville, the second-class cruisers Du Chayla and Cassard, and the third-class cruiser Gallilee. The crews aggregate 2,280 men, but the vessels will also carry landing parties.

Paris, Nov. 4.—Sunday morning M. Delcassé, minister of foreign affairs, telegraphed M. Bapst, councillor of the French embassy in Constantinople, directing him to present Sunday Tewfik Pasha, Ottoman minister of foreign affairs, a note, asking how the Turkish government proposes to pay the Lorando claim and demanding the execution of the sultan's irade dealing with that matter.

The note will also request satisfaction regarding the rights of France, which are defined in the various capitulations and treaties, and which in some cases have not been respected and in others have been encroached upon by Turkey.

It is expected that Adm. Caillard will be joined en route by the torpedo cruiser Condor, which is stationed in Cretan waters.

Paris, Nov. 5.—"The porte has asked Great Britain," says the Constantinople correspondent of the Echo de Paris, "to fulfill the terms of the convention of 1878, whereby, in exchange for the Island of Cyprus, Great Britain guarantees the integrity of the sultan's Asiatic possessions.

"The porte claims under this convention that Great Britain should protect Asiatic Turkey against attack by France, and suggests that Great Britain should send a squadron to the Levant for that purpose."

Paris, Nov. 6.—The following is a dispatch received from Adm. Caillard:

"Mitylene, Nov. 5, 11:40 a. m.—Armored division arrived at Mitylene."

The dispatch does not mention any incident attending the landing, but it seems certain that the French commander carried out his instructions, which were to occupy three ports of the island and to seize the customs.

The cruiser and three torpedo catchers got separated from the squadron owing to the speed of the latter. The dispatch boat Mouette, which had joined the squadron, was sent to meet them and to accompany them to Mitylene.

Telegrams from Toulon report the utmost activity in the preparations to place a squadron in readiness for any eventuality. The ships are taking ammunition and supplies, including live stock and everything necessary to revictual Adm. Caillard's squadron. The battleship Charles Martel, the third-class cruiser Galilee and three large transports are ready to sail. It is asserted that one of Adm. Caillard's ships has a submarine torpedo on board.

The Echo de Paris asserts that M. Delcassé has received a dispatch from M. Bapst, councillor of the French embassy in Constantinople, saying that Adm. Caillard informs him that he has seized the customs of the island of Mitylene.

The United States Consul at Constantinople Makes a Statement About Miss Stone.

Sofia, Bulgaria, Nov. 6.—United States Consul General Dickinson, of Constantinople, has just returned here from Samokov. He authorizes the statement that he is satisfied that both Miss Ellen M. Stone and her companion, Mme. Tsilka, are alive and well treated. Mr. Dickinson's return is not due to any interruption in the exchange of communications with the brigands, which are still going on.

It has been ascertained that the band intended to kidnap Mr. House, a missionary at Salonika, at the same time as Miss Stone, but the design failed.

Two days before Miss Stone was abducted brigands fired five shots at a gendarme near Haslegal, and the local authorities, knowing there were bandits in the neighborhood, should have supplied an escort.

RESTORING THE BOXERS.

Former Leader Has Been Appointed to the Chinese Foreign Office in Peking.

Peking, Nov. 6.—Na Tung, former "Boxer" leader, has been appointed to the Chinese foreign office. He recently returned from Japan, where he went as special envoy to apologize and express condolences for the murder of Sugiyama Akira, chancellor of the Japanese legation at Peking, shortly before the legations were besieged. This appointment is considered a test of the attitude of the Chinese ministers toward the restoration of the "Boxers" to imperial favor.

Japanese influence supported Na Tung, a fact which contributes further evidence of Japan's recent policy of co-operation with China. Not long ago Japan sounded the powers regarding the propriety of another protest against the Manchurian convention between Russia and China, and was disappointed by a lack of interest in the question on the part of the United States and Great Britain.

PROCRASTINATION.

A man of great renown has wisely said, "That which is good to be done cannot be done too soon, for if it is neglected to be done early it will frequently happen to not be done at all."

That's truer of nothing else than of Life Insurance. It's the everlasting putting it off of uninsured people that brings half of the misery we perceive about us.

"I'll see you later" has made more helpless widows and hopeless orphans than all the wars and famines that have devastated the earth.

Where do you stand reader?

Are you a man of today—the day you are sure of; or do you belong to the tomorrow crowd—the tomorrow that may never come.

If you are on the wrong side of the question put yourself right before sundown today by applying to the Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York, for a policy guaranteed by over three hundred and twenty-five millions of dollars in assets.
