FRIDAY, April 6, 1906.

The Democratic and Independent tickets were generally successful in the Michigan elections.

James Strader, who was shot through the head at Lexington, losing both eyes, died of his injuries.

Virginia, three-year-old daughter of Appellate Judge E. C. O'Rear, died Monday, following an attack of scarlet fever. Judge O'Rear lost a daughter by drowning about a year ago.

Representative Hopkins has appointed Charles Beach, of Beatyville, the Tenth Kentucky district, midshipman at the Naval Academy. He takes his entrance examination in June.

Col. Thos. Johnson, soldier, statesman and Montgomery county's grand old man, is dying at his home of general debility. He is ninety-three years old, and one of the most remarkable men in the State.

The bill passed by the extra session of the Legislature, taxing refiners 1½ cents a gallon on all their output, was signed by the Governor and becomes a law at once, as there was an emergency clause attached to the measure.

The race for Circuit Judge of the new Thirty-second district has already opened in Democratic circles. Carter will hold a candidate in the person of John M. Waugh; Elliott will have two candidates—Messrs. Hannah and Redwine, while Morgan will offer Hon. Finney Fogg.

Seven steamships that landed at New York Friday brought from Europe 11,282 immigrants, a number which breaks all records for one day. They came from Italy, Ireland, England, Germany, Russia, Portugal, Austro-Hungary, Norway and Sweden to find homes in America.

John Alexander Dowie, founder of the "Christian Catholic Church of Zion," was deposed as a leader and suspended from membership. All the real and personal property held by Dowie in Zion City has been transferred to Voliva, the new overseer. A telegram was sent to Dowie notifying him of his dismissal.

The "oldest woman in the world" has been found. She lives in New York and was born 117 years ago. Mrs. Margaret Kenny says she was a babe when Washington was President. "Yes," she declared, in a weak, far-away voice, "of course I was 117 on St. Patrick's Day. It's a long time, but I am well and happy, and can eat and work with the best of them."

By way of refreshing the memory regarding the coal strike of 1902, the following estimate of the losses resulting from it is timely:

Loss to miners in wages	$28,000,000
Loss to other mine workmen	4,657,000
Loss to mine operators	12,500,000
Loss to railroads	26,000,000
Loss to business interests	23,925,000
Total loss through strike	$145,172,000

Does experience offer no significant warning to the present?

The Kentucky Press members, two hundred strong, will remember, as they should be remembered, the legislators who voted to continue on the statute books the anti-pass law with reference to free speech and a free press. But for their home papers many of these mouthers would have been working at their rightful vocations of grubbing weeds or whitewashing a knot of coal in spite of making laws for an enlightened citizenship of the Twentieth century.—Burkes News.

The crisis in the coal mining wage controversy has been reached. In the bituminous field the miners will be permitted to return to work in properties where the increase demanded is allowed, but where the demands are not granted there will be strikes. The Anthracite Mine Operators' Committee will meet the Miners' Committee in New York on Tuesday and a further conference on the wage scale will be held. Pending the outcome of this meeting the anthracite miners have been called out and will not return to work until an adjustment of their demands has been brought about. At the collieries the operators have adopted a conciliatory tone and will do nothing to irritate the miners so that disturbances are not anticipated.

Does Your Heart Beat

Yes. 100,000 times each day. Does it send out good blood or bad blood? You know, for good blood is good health; bad blood, bad health. And you know precisely what to take for bad blood—Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Doctors have endorsed it for 60 years.

"He has a bright future before him." Where else would he have it? Behind him?

The opposition to a trolley line from Paintsville to the depot is based on a fear that the "peaky thing will skeer our critters."

Elijah II, in the shape of John Alex. Dowie, has been stripped of his mantle. The supreme wonder is that George O. Barnes honestly believed in that boss grafter of the 20th century.

The fish will soon be having worms.

A drummer asked the man who is building the big hotel in an up-river town if it was going to have any fire-escapes. "Yes," said Bonthron, "there will be a Bible in every room."

When you see a girl's picture in the paper, with the announcement that she will be here next week, it's a case of coming events cast their shadows before.

We don't exactly remember whether March came in like a lamb or like a lion, but it went out like a whale.

Rev. Mr. Cocke preaches in Louisa occasionally, and the Crowe has been heard in Pikeville.

If you don't think it costs something to live in Paintsville, go to the meat shop and get a pound of steak, to the grocery and get a dozen eggs, a peck of potatoes, a can of corn, a pound of butter and a package of sugar and coffee and see how much of a dollar you have left.—Paintsville Herald.

What more do you want for a dollar? The earth?

When some of the two by four newspapers—and some of the larger ones—run out of something to say, which is often the case, they abuse the late Legislature.

ARRANT NONSENSE.

If you saw a pink pug puppy playing ping pong with a pig,
Or a great gray goose a-quilting
with a goat,
Would you think it was as funny as a big, brown Belgian bunny Blowing bubbles with a bishop in a boat?
If a gormandizing gobbler gobbles
goobers by the gross,
Which he pilfered from a peanut
peddler's pack,
Could he earn his absolution by an act of restitution
If he gave the Dago man his fat crop tack?
If a singing stegomyia stung a Jay upon the jaw
And injected venomed virus in his veins,
Would the microbe not prove sterile,
since each one's a Yellow Peril,
If the homeopathic theory obtains?
If a gentle jokesmith jabbers nutty
nonsense in a way
That causes you brain softening to dread,
Would you send him to college where they try to hammer knowledge
Into people that are foolish in the head? —Cleveland Leader.

BLAINE.

Last Sunday night J. B. Fraley's barn was burned, together with all his feed stuff, consisting of 150 bu. of corn, hay, fodder, etc. Two calves and fifty chickens were cremated in the flames. All his farming implements, saddles and bridles were burned and he only succeeded in saving his two mules which were slightly burned. The fire was thought to be of incendiary origin. Blood hounds were sent for, but they failed to make any discovery.

Lum Holbrook left Monday morning for Cincinnati to learn the barber trade. We hope Lum will do well so that he who goes into his shop will have "none left in good style."

Dr. C. C. Roberts came home from Louisville Monday for a short vacation.

The school here will close in two weeks. Now that Prof. Miller is married, he anticipates trying his hand on the farm.

Uncle Henry Evans and family expect to move to Louisa soon to make their home there. We are sorry to have them leave us, but we hope it will be for them a pleasant change.

H. C. Osborn has been very sick for the past week, but is better now.

Miss Mary Gambill is here for a week's visit with her brothers, Drs. H. H. and J. J. Gambill.

The Epworth League of Blaine will give a stocking social at the Methodist Church on Saturday evening, April 14th, and the following very interesting program will be rendered:

1. Song—"Rabo Me, Jesus."
2. Recitation—"Bernita Kane," A. S. Conley.
3. Music—Violin, Mrs. Wm. Hinds.
4. Song—"Medley."
5. Song—"Tell Mother I'll Be There."
6. Scarf drill.
7. Pie Eating Contest.
8. Barrel Scuffle.
9. Drawing the prize—Contest for gold ring.
10. Refreshments.
11. Song—"Good-bye, Good-bye."

This interesting social will be given for the benefit of the church and Sunday School. It is something new and will please everybody. And to you who do not chance to get an invitation, just ask some of the members of the League about the social, and they will gladly tell you when a nice time we are going to have and how you too may enjoy it. Don't forget the time and the place.

There will also be Easter service in connection with the Sunday School on Easter Sunday, the 15th. Let

OUR NEIGHBORS.

William H. Hartman has been appointed postmaster at Clifford.

A postoffice called Fitch has been established in Carter county, with Charles H. Fitch postmaster.

Theodore F. Langley, Prestonsburg, a clerk in the Revenue Department, has had his salary increased from $1,400 to $1,500.

Joseph, son of Phil S. Fannin, of Boyd county, died recently of typhoid pneumonia at the residence of his brother Charles. He was a most excellent young man, about 23 years of age.

In the Court of Appeals Hilton vs. Commonwealth, Pike; reversed. Schom Blake and Stevenson vs. Whitt, etc., Johnson; appellee filed petition for rehearing and given ten days to print.

George T. Bonaker, Josephine Bonaker, of Chicago, Ill.; J. T. Goodson and A. L. Goodson, of Hallsville, W. Va., have incorporated the Edgewater Coal & Coke Co. with $100,000 capital stock.

The latest mine disaster in West Virginia, that of the Century mine, which adds some 36 or more to the total of mine victims, brings the total number of deaths in mine accidents in West Virginia within the last six months up to the appalling total of 122 killed.

Married, at Cerrolo, W. Va., Tuesday, Miss Lucy Shepherd, of Webbville, to L. H. Kyle, of Pennsylvania. The bride has been postmistress at Webbville for several years. She has resigned to accept one of greater honor—queen of a home. Here's to them.—Grayson Tribune.

At Sharpe, Lewis county, there is excitement over the finding on a farm belonging to a man named Oliver of what is said to be gold in paying quantities. Several barrels of the ore have been shipped to Cincinnati, where it was found to contain gold.

We have received a copy of the Plain Dealer, Pikeville's new paper, and congratulate the good people of that town and section on having a good weekly newspaper. It bears the mark of good editing and news getting, and should receive the support it deserves. S. S. Cassity is the man at the pen.

The Baptist Church at Kitts Hill has called Rev. Roscoe Murray, of Prestonsburg, Ky., as pastor of the church. Mr. Murray is a professor in the Kentucky Normal College at Prestonsburg, is a young man of great promise as a minister. The church is to be congratulated on securing the services of Mr. Murray.—Ironton Register.

C. T. Hale, Trustee, disposed of the notes and accounts of T. J. Spencer, at public outcry, at the court house here Tuesday, Tom J. Vanhoose becoming the purchaser. The total of all accounts, notes and judgments disposed at the sale, amount to $1,550. It is thought 25 per cent. can be collected. Verily, verily, "it do not pay to credit."—Paintsville Herald.

We are informed Mr. Claude Wilson has abandoned the development of the Big Sandy territory having compromised with the Southern Bell people as to territory. The Big Sandy Company will develop the counties of Lewis, Greenup, Carter, Rowan, Elliot, Morgan and Magoffin. Mr. Wilson states in justice to the Bell that in his business experience that he has never met with fairer treatment than that extended to him by them.—Grayson Tribune.

The first Union Methodist Quarterly Meeting to be held South of the Mason and Dixon line, was held at the Methodist Church, this city, Sunday morning and night. The services were in charge of presiding Elders John R. Howes, of the Lexington District M. E. Church and C. N. Coffman, of the Prestonsburg District M. E. Church, South. Rev. Howes delivered a sermon and Rev. Coffman administered the Lord's Supper.—Paintsville Herald.

Friday night at Thacker Mines occurred what was apparently a cold blooded murder and without cause when Tom Burke shot and killed Nathan Proffit, one of his best friends. Burke and Proffit were young men working as "bobbies" in the mines of the Thacker Coal and Coke Company, and it was thought that they were the best of friends until Friday night when the trouble occurred which took the life of the one and placed the other in jail within the shadow of the gallows.

Dr. Hostetler, manager for the Elkgwater Coal & Coke Company, let contracts to the amount of $10,000 for preparations for the operation of his plant, on Marrowbone, which he hopes to have in full blast by June 1st. We feel sure from the hustling qualities of the Doctor that he will fully meet all the expectations of the most sanguine of his company. His thousand-acre home promises to be one of the very best of the entire coal fields on Marrowbone.—Pikeville Item.

Owingsville, Ky., March 28.—While trying to quiet John Williams, who was creating a disturbance on the Licking River railroad train near Tale, this county, Fred J. Fischel, aged sixty years, of Chicago, manager of the Licking River Lumber Company, was kicked from his own train and badly bruised by Williams. Williams was arrested by Constable Milton Evans, but George Williams, father of the boy, held the officer at bay with a shotgun while his son escaped. Evans summoned aid and after a hard fight overpowered Geo. Williams, who will be tried tomorrow.

Maj. O. Henry T. Allen, of the Philippines, J. M. Bigstaff and M. O. Cochran, of Mt. Sterling, and J. M. Prickell, of Winchester, have purchased the controlling interest in the Eastern Kentucky Land Company. This company owns about 1,000 acres of coal and timber lands in Morgan, Harlan, Knott and other counties. The lands are among the richest in the State. The company will at once begin the development of the mineral resources of the property. The erection of large mills and a railroad is contemplated. Gen. Allen predicts that in a few years the mountain section will dominate the Bluegrass section.

News reached here today of the death of Mrs. Emily Weddington, at her home at Golden, Mo. Mrs. Weddington had been in poor health and her death was not unexpected to her family and friends. She was the mother of our townsman, J. M. Weddington, cashier of the First National Bank, and of Mrs. Harmon Marrs and Mrs. Joe N. Harris.

Mrs. Mary Pelson-Thompson has been appointed postmistress at Belcher. This office had been discontinued for some time, but through the diligent efforts of Postmaster J. M. Bowling, of this place, it is re-instated, thereby accommodating about six hundred people.—Prestonsburg Items.

Greenup, Ky., March 28.—The last session of the Circuit Court presided over by Judge James P. Harbeson in this county begins Monday. Greenup and Lewis, of this judicial district, have been added to Boyd county, and Judge S. G. Kinner will preside at the July mid-summer term of court. This will cause a vacancy for Commonwealth's Attorney for the district, for which Judge William T. Cole, of Greenup, is asking for the appointment. The new district is overwhelmingly Republican and it is said each county has an aspirant for the Republican nomination for Circuit Judge. Those mentioned are: Col. J. B. Wilhoit, of Ashland; Congressman J. B. Bennett, of Greenup, and Hon. W. C. Halbert, of Catlettsburg.

"A young man who does things and on a big scale, is J. C. C. Mayo, of Kentucky, who was in the lobby of the New Willard last evening. Mr. Mayo has been a chief factor in the development of the eastern counties of his State, and is an extensive owner of valuable coal lands of that region.

"Our greatest handicap, said he, 'is the wretched condition of our country roads. In wet weather they are almost impassable, and the farmers cannot get over them to empty wagons. The construction of good roads in the rural districts is one of the biggest questions of the day, and this country will never experience the fullest prosperity until the problem is solved.'"—Washington Post.

Owingsville, Ky., March 29.—Fred J. Fischel, of Farmers, manager for this section for the Licking River Railway Company and the Licking River Lumber Company, which properties are owned by a syndicate of Chicago capitalists, has completed maps of the intended sixty-mile railway to be built to this company from Catlettsburg, Morgan county, to Hillsboro, Fleming county, there to connect with the Cincinnati, Flemingsburg and Ashland Railway. The new road will pass through Morgan, Bath, Rowan, Menifee and Fleming counties. From Camel City it will likely be extended by another company to the Pound Gap coal fields of Letcher county and will connect there with a branch to be built to this place by the Louisville and Nashville. The new road will connect above Farmers, Rowan county, with the Licking River Railway, the starting point of which is at Salt Lick, this county. The Licking River Railway is to be made a standard gauge. The new road to be built will connect at Camel City with the Ohio and Kentucky Railway. Work will begin as soon as the weather opens up.

"THE BIG STORE"

Be a Friend to YOUR POCKETBOOK

By taking time enough to pay this store a visit. There is not a day goes by but finds us with something new to offer in the line of good bargains. We keep the best of everything—not a shoddy article in the house—and sell them at money saving prices; to make a long story short we always get upstairs goods at downstairs prices, at our store.

Just now as a special inducement we are offering a Special reduction of twenty per cent on all our spring

Covert Coats, Long Coats and Rain Coats.

This season styles just in and opened and are excellent values at the regular price. We realize that the backward weather is a serious drawback to those contemplating a trip to this city and have sacrificed these useful articles to make it more than worth your while to leave the chosen spot in order to pay us a visit at the opening season.

OUR MILLINERY DEPARTMENT is the showcase of all eyes at this time. We are adding new things every day and it will be good policy to purchase your new hat early in the season before the rush for Easter begins. Every department is decked in spring attire and awaits the careful inspection of every purchaser. Those who were so fortunate as to be present at our opening last week expressed themselves as being favorably surprised at our splendid showing for spring.

In conclusion, we number our satisfied and well pleased customers by thousands and would be pleased to be able to count you among them if you are not already a patron of this establishment. You are cordially invited to look this store over. From basement to the third floor. You will not be urged to buy as we are sure that you will see many money saving bargains as you pass through.
