AND SOME ITEMS THAT WILL INTEREST OTHER LOCALITIES

A General Rounding of Deming and its Neighbors—Seven Days' Accumulation of Personal and Social Happenings.

C. W. Merchant, the prominent cattle-owner of Abilene, Texas, was a welcome visitor to the city last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. James Deaton, of Separ, were in town last Monday and Tuesday, making purchases for the coming winter.

The I. H. L. cattle company, Tom H. Brown, manager, shipped on Monday last, to Kansas City, 150 head of old cows and steers.

T. Helm, commercial agent of the Denver and Rio Grande, was in Deming this week circulating among our merchants in the interests of the road he represents.

Mrs. W. W. Robertson and two children returned last Saturday from a visit of several months to relatives and friends in Tennessee and other parts of the south.

Mr. John Mitchel, the general manager for the El Paso Smelting & Mining Co., throughout New Mexico and Arizona, went west last Thursday to attend to some mining matters in Arizona.

Lots have been bought and the arrangements made for the erection of two new residences in this city. Work is to be commenced immediately upon both One will be a five room cottage and the other a six room cottage.

News that was of the most favorable was received from Mr. A. O. Bailey, who is still in New York, finishing up the business, preparatory to the starting of work on the C. and N. railroad from this point. Deming will be all right yet.

Hon. William Cotton, of Cook's Peak, came down last Saturday and spent a few days with his innumerable friends of this city. Although an Englishman, of England born. Mr. Cotton says regarding the Boer war, his sympathies are with the Boers.

Mrs. C. H. Dane and two sons, Earl and Charlie, started on Saturday last for Los Angeles, Calif., there to make their future home. Mrs. Dane will be greatly missed from the social circles of Deming, where she has resided from the time this now flourishing city was a town of tents.

The Presbyterian Church of this city will have regular services, morning and evening every Sabbath hereafter. Their new pastor, Rev. Thos. W. Houston, who returned late spring from eight years of service as a missionary in China, reached here on Thursday and will occupy the pulpit tomorrow.

Invitations are out for the annual Masquerade Ball given by the Rebekah Lodge I.O.O.F., at Silver City. These annual balls as given under the auspices of the Rebekahs of Silver, are the swell event of the season and are always well attended. The HEADLIGHT acknowledges the receipt of an invitation.

What with the Main Circus on the 14th, and the shooting stars or flying meteors that are billed for this town on the 15th, the citizens of Deming seem destined to have about all the reason for staying up of nights, that they will require next week. Some of us may fail to see the meteor display, but it is a safe bet that none will miss the circus.

Miss Agnes Green, one of Silver City's most popular young ladies, was a guest of Mrs. Hugh Williams, of this city, last Thursday. Miss Green was en route to her home after a six weeks visit to her aunt Mrs. Holt, in Chihuahua, Mexico. Miss Agnes said that while she was delighted with Chihuahua and its citizens she was glad to get back to Grant county and her many friends.

Hon. B. F. Rice, who left here nearly two years ago for the Klondyke country, returned last Friday. Mr. Rice went as far as Dawson city and while there bought a good claim. He says he is glad to get back to the land of perpetual sunshine. His friends can now find him in the real estate office of B. Y. McKeyes, where he has opened a law office and is ready to attend to the wants of all in a legal manner.

Stop It.

The HEADLIGHT has been requested to call the attention of the managers of Opera House to the noise and confusion that is kept up in the rear of the house every time an entertainment is given.

These continuous clapping of hands, shouting, cat calls, and whistling that is indulged in by parties old enough to know how to behave in a decent and respectable manner, are very annoying to the patrons of the entertainments that are given here from time to time.

It is believed by many that it is the managers duty to put a stop to this nuisance even if a few arrests have to be made. Perhaps a few fines of goodly proportions will be of lasting benefit to some of these smart alecks.

MISS DYER'S FIRST RECITAL

A Decided Success.

Before A Large And Highly Cultured Audience.

Two months ago Miss Dyer was employed as teacher of Elocution for the Deming Public Schools.

She came, backed by the very best of testimonials from eastern colleges. Her entertainment Saturday night, far surpassed even our most sanguine expectations.

Her pupils, without exception, did remarkably well, and showed that they had been trained by one who thoroughly understood the art of elocution.

It was a notable fact that no prompting whatever was allowed, all of the pupils having been instructed to leave their selections at home.

The drill, "Where are you going my pretty maid?" by the smaller girls, and the dialogue, "The Bugaboo," by two little girls, and the Pantomime and Tableau, by the Physical Culture Class, were features of special interest and elicited hearty applause.

Miss Dyer favored the audience with two selections—the first entitled "Naughty Zelle," and the second, "Ben Hur's Chariot Race." Both were admirably rendered and showed how readily her talent lends itself to different styles of art. "Ben Hur's Chariot Race" was, of course, the more difficult and showed her skill in executionand her complete mastery of the art of elocution. In response to a hearty encore, she gave, with excellent effect ,the selection entitled "Jenny."

We cannot conclude, however, without mentioning the boys who acquitted themselves in a manner to reflect credit upon them and their teacher.

We would like much to mention each pupil; but where all did so well, it would be impossible to particularize without becoming monotonous. Suffice to say that "Dewey" was on hand and so were the "old maids."

The opening number was a brilliant quartette, well rendered by Mesdames I. Brown and Byron and Messrs. Goodfellow and Tossel.

About the middle of the program, Mrs. I. Brown favored the audience with a delightful solo, which was highly appreciated.

In conclusion, let us say that the program was entertaining and attractive throughout.

The Directors and Superintendent are certainly to be congratulated on this new departure and also on the happy choice of this excellent teacher.

BUY BULLS.

Good Bulls a Necessity to Every Successful Stockman.

From time to time the complaint is heard among the stockmen of this section that there is not enough good bulls throughout the ranges to insure a large calf crop.

Some, it is true, have their herds well supplied with a sufficient number of the best bulls attainable But in many cases in this section, it is a well known fact that men who are large cattle owners depend largely upon their neighbors for bull service. With the result, naturally, that neither the dependent cattleman or his neighbor reaps the full benefit or profits that they would if both were amply supplied with bulls. And, as we have said before, hearing this matter talked over by the cattlemen, caused us to start a quiet investigation, in order to see if this evil could not be remedied, so that all would have a fair deal, and the following is the result of our investigations:

On page 111, section 73, of the compiled laws of New Mexico, we find the following, which if it is rigidly enforced, as it should be, will at once bring the delinquents in this matter to their senses, and at the same time increase the stock in southern Grant County more than one-half. Here is the law:

"SECTION 73. Hereafter it shall be unlawful for any person or persons, company or corporation to turn loose upon any common or public range in this territory any she or female cattle unspayed and over the age of nine months without at the same time turning loose and keeping herded with the same, at the rate of at least one good bull, not less than nine months nor more than eight years old, of at least one-half pedigree stock' to every twenty head of such she or female cattle; Provided; That any person or persons, company or corporation, now owning such she or female cattle upon any common or public range in this Territory, and not having with said cattle such bull or bulls of number and kind as herein described, shall procure the same and turn them loose with said cattle on or before the 1st day of January 1892; and any person or persons company of corporation, violating the provisions of this act shall, upon conviction thereof, be punished by a fine of not less than twenty-five nor more than five hundred dollars, and be liable to the person or persons injured or damaged by such violation, in an action at law for the amount of the injury or damage sustained; Provided further, That the words 'pedigree bull' shall not be construed to mean a Texas or Mexican bull.

SECTION 74. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage."
