Not Yet.

Governor Hayes is not yet declared President elect and there is a bare possibility that he never will be. True, Florida, Louisiana and Oregon have all been reached, passed, and forced into the Hayes column, in defiance of right and justice, and in utter contempt of the protests of a large majority of the American people, but the end is not yet. Some of the Democrats in the House have commenced a system of filibustering that may yet defeat the object of the conspirators, and leave Hayes out in the cold. Candidly speaking, we do not desire such a result. If we can not have Tilden, who was honestly and decidedly elected, we care little who else is declared President. Let the count proceed. Let the gigantic fraud be fully consummated. Let the conspirators do their worst in crowning a long career of official corruption with a piece of infamy that will make their very names odious to honest men of all parties. Let Hayes accept the Presidency, if he will, with a title not only tainted, but coated, saturated and soaked with fraud, and let him remember that he will be President, if at all, not by the free choice of the American people, but by the acts of a conspiracy and the forbearance of the masses.

Misplaced Confidence.

The entire confidence placed in the integrity of the Supreme Court Judges—the belief that they would be honest, impartial and nonpartizan—was what induced the people to readily approve the Commission to examine into and act upon the elections in certain States that might be referred to them. To inquire into and decide upon the honesty of the election, and determine what was the fairly expressed will of the people, was what the Commission was appointed for. It was felt that the Judges were peculiarly well qualified for that, and were above partizan passion and tricks. But that was a mistake. The confidence placed in those men was misplaced. They yielded to the base appeals of such men as Morton and Garfield, surrendered their manhood and prostituted their character as Judges, dragged their judicial robes in the foulest pools of party, and proved themselves no better than the men who stole the vote of two States and had their traitorous work brought to these Judges for their approbation and signature. They gave it, and in doing so they placed themselves on record as willing to sanction and receive the vile work of the Returning Boards of Florida and Louisiana—to approve a fraud and a lie without an effort to defeat it or even question it—and impartial history must place all these men side by side—the receiver is no better than the thief. It is a painful truth. 'Tis true, and a pity 'tis 'tis true, that three Supreme Court Judges who aided in this work are damned forever by an honest public sentiment, and that Court can never regain the confidence of the people till these men are out of it.—Clinton Democrat.

The old man of the Republican is real down mad because the Republican Legislature have refused to pass a stay law. He reads his political brethren quite a spicy lecture, in which he speaks of their conduct as "barbarous, unchristian, heathenish." Now we do not know what to think of friend Tuten. Has he a personal interest in this matter and does he get so savage because the laws as they are don't suit his case, or does he begin to see the utter corruption, hard-heartedness and selfishness of the leaders of his party? In either case we pray that more light may dawn upon his benighted and heretofore bigoted mind. He is not past hope.

"While the lamp holds out to burn,
The vilest sinner may return."

The Lock Haven Republican says: Wire, manufactured from Washington Furnace iron, so fine as to be almost invisible to the naked eye, was on exhibition, at the Centennial, and closely examined by many iron men from all parts of the country, who, one and all, declared that it was equal to, if not superior, to any iron in the world. The sheet iron manufactured in the United States, and which competes with the celebrated Russia sheet iron, is made from Nittany Valley iron. For boiler metal it is superior to any yet discovered, and unlimited in quantity.

The peach buds are all right yet say the people who have examined them.

Mifflin county has a debt of $70,000. That's nothing, if they have plenty of stamps over there to pay it with.

The 8th day of March will be a great day for Schuylkill county. Eight Molly Maguires are to pay the extreme penalty of a violated law by hanging.

The Lewisburg Chronicle fears that the shrinkage in the value of diamonds is going to ruin many a country editor. We feel entirely safe on that score.

At Welch's Book Store in Bellefonte, you buy note paper at 8 cents a quire, and envelopes at 8 cents per pack. These are absolutely the lowest prices for these goods we ever heard of.

A young country girl became so prostrated from excitement at the Evangelical revival in Shamokin last week that she has ever since been lying in a paralytic condition.—Exchange.

Says the Watchman: The Bellefonte Band was out yesterday afternoon and played beautifully. Our band can't be beaten. We agree with the Watchman to the letter: "Our band can't be beaten."

The late township election for Potter township was held at Centre Hall, instead of the Old Fort, where all elections had been held since the township was organized. The Hall may now consider itself the capital of the township.

Mr. A. R. Alexander is a candidate for ticket agent, freight agent, or whatever you may call it, at Coburn Station. We know of no one in these parts more worthy or better adapted for the place than Reed. Hope he will get it.

We feel happy that our friend, Dr. Alexander, of Centre Hall, is getting up in the world. He was recently elected Town Clerk of Potter township. We have not learned whether he contemplates quitting the practice of medicine at once or not.

We learn that on last Friday night, Feb. 16, a Planing Mill belonging to Messrs. Dauberman & Eyer, in New Berlin, was destroyed by fire, together with furniture, machinery, tools, etc. The property was insured, but to what extent we have not learned.

White, smooth and soft any lady's hands, arms or neck may become, who uses Glenn's Sulphur Soap. Pimples or other disfigurements of a complexional nature, are surely obliterated by this healthful promoter of beauty. Depot, Crittenton's No. 7 Sixth Avenue, N. Y. Hill's Hair & Whisker Dye, black or brown, 50 cts.

POSTPONEMENT! Owing to the inclemency of the weather and bad condition of the roads the Irving Literary Institute has postponed its Public Entertainment announced for 24th of February to Saturday evening March 3d. The public is cordially invited to be present.

J. R. VANORMER,
Secretary.

Washington's birthday was very appropriately celebrated by the Order of U. A. Mechanics. At seven o'clock in the evening a torchlight procession was formed, headed by the Cornet Band, which paraded the streets and assembled in the Town Hall. The Hall was most beautifully decorated with evergreens, flags and mottoes, and was soon crowded to its utmost capacity. Prayer was offered by the Rev. J. M. Price, after which the band played in their best style, followed by a song by the order. Another piece of instrumental music and then an address was delivered by Rev. Mr. Price, which was very pleasing and interesting. The occasion was closed by instrumental and vocal music. The members of the order looked remarkable well in their regalia, and the band done their level best and delighted everybody by their finely executed music.

We have received the January number of LEISURE HOURS, a handsome mammoth 16 page (64 columns) family paper, filled with the choicest literature—serial and short stories, sketches, poetry, wit, humor, &c., &c. It is entertaining, amusing and instructive, and is one of the cheapest papers—the amount and quality of matter considered—that we have seen. The price is $1.20 per year, including as premium a genuine fine-line steel engraving, called: "The Mitherless Bairn," printed on 22x28 plate paper, which the publishers claim is superior in point of merit and attractiveness to any premium ever offered by any other paper in this country, and is alone worth the money asked for both.

The publishers, J. L. Patten & Co., 162 William st., New York, authorize us to say, that in order to introduce the paper in this vicinity they make a special offer to every one of our readers to send them the paper—a "trial trip" of four months, postpaid, commencing with January number—for 25 cents.

Our readers who avail themselves of this offer will, we feel certain, thank us for having called their attention to it. The publishers of LEISURE HOURS would like to employ some one in every place to canvass for this paper. 4t.

THE unparalelled success which has attended Mr. Daniel F. Beatty, as a manufacturer of pianos and organs, speaks highly for the superiority of his instruments. In these days of sharp competition and inventive genius, no mediocre productions can attain the celebrity to which his pianos and organs have reach. Send for catalogue of prices. Address Daniel F. Beatty, Washington, Warren County, N. J., U. S. A.

TO AND FRO. Quite a number of moves or flittings are to take place in spring, in and about town. We give the latest revised list, up to date, in order to answer many questions at once. Jacob Gephart comes back from New Berlin, to the old home, and Samuel Kreamer, his tenant, goes to Mr. Henney's farm, near Old Fort, while Mr. Henney comes to Millheim, to the old Deininger property on the hill. Jesse Kreamer goes to Kansas, and old George Harter takes Jesse's place, in North Millheim. George Harter, miller, bought Philip Kreider's farm and moves on it, and A. Lukenbach takes Harter's place in Musser's mill. D. L. Zerby moves into the house now occupied by Rev. J. M. Price, while Mr. Price does not yet know his destination. Rev. G. W. Rouse expects to occupy the house of Jonathan Dinges, at the school house, while D. B. Harter goes to George's Valley. Rev. C. F. Deininger, of York, expects to come to Millheim, to the old Reesman homestead, if Providence and conference agree to the arrangement. George Ulrich and Dennis Lose traded properties, and each will move where the other now resides. Jake Springer goes to the old Reighard house, barber shop, babies and all. Ben Weiser is building himself a house near Dinges' school house, where he expects to start up a smithy. D. I. Brown goes to where John Page now is. Jas. C. Smith expects to fill out the space made vacant by D. L. Zerby. Em'l Swartz bought David Titlow's property and will occupy it, while Thomas Keen goes into Swartz's house. Judge Hartman moves only across the street, where Ben Weiser lives. Old Bill moves into his new mansion and expects to take the world easy, and young Bill takes his place as mine host of the Millheim Hotel. John Maize moves out to C. Alexander's, Charles Frankenberger on Israel Confer's property, which he purchased, and Confer takes S. O. McCurdy's house. A. A. Frank bought A. Harter's house, and takes possession thereof in spring. A. O. Deininger moves into Christ. Bame's house, on Water Street. The Editor expects to flit into Alexander's house, to be made vacant by James Smith, while the Associate expects to stay where he is—as long as he can manage to keep on good terms with Sheriff Munson.

We may have skipped some of our neighbors and would feel sorry to have any one feel slighted on that account. What we do not know or have forgotten, we will class under the general head of "too numerous to mention."

Robersburg Select School.

The Spring Session of this School will begin on Monday, April 9, 1877, and continue ten weeks. Every effort will be made to render satisfaction to both students and parents.

C. L. GRAMLEY,
Teacher.

Our friend C. H. Held received the following letter from a former resident of Millheim:

SELINSGROVE, Feb. 15. 1877.

Dear Sir:—It is with pleasure and pride that I hear of your success as a band, at Mifflinburg. The entertainment you gave is said to have been the most enjoyable the old burg had for a long time. The band itself as well as the performance, are spoken of in the highest terms of praise, and what is especially praiseworthy is the gentlemanly behavior of the boys while at Mifflinburg. Prof. Feehrer, your teacher, is highly pleased with your progress in music. With my best wishes for your future success, I am,

Respectfully yours,
J. W. RHYMESTINE.

Spring Mills Items.

Gen. Buchannan is slowly improving in health.

The concert given by the Spring Mills string band was a decided success.

CARD.—TO MY FRIENDS AND CUSTOMERS.

It is impossible for me to sell goods on credit and continue my business, for those to whom I give credit will not pay promptly—in many cases not at all. For this reason I can not keep my stock sufficiently full to meet the wants of cash customers. From this time forward I will sell for cash and produce only, excepting on orders from individuals or friends that pay promptly.

Thankful for past favors I hope to be able to serve all who may favor me with their patronage in the future, at prices that will compare favorably with any of the large business emporiums in Central Pennsylvania.

ST. CLOUD HOTEL,
Arch Street, between 7th and 8th Sts., PHILADELPHIA, PA

DEAR SIR:—Since the close of the Exhibition the St. Cloud has been re-painted and frescoed, parlors re-furnished, new carpets, &c. The house in all its appointments is unsurpassed for comfort; the culinary department being excelled by none. During the Centennial the St. Cloud adhered to its regular rates, and endeavored to extend the same comforts to its patrons as it had previously; in this particular it stood alone.

Mr. G. W. Mullin has associated with him his son, Geo. K. Mullin, and Edward L. Bean, of Ft. Wayne, Ind., under the firm name of G. W. Mullin & Co.

Thanking you for past patronage and hoping to extend the hospitalities of the St. Cloud with the same encouragement as in the past. We are, respectfully,

PROTECT YOUR BUILDINGS,

Which may be done with one-fourths the usual expense, by using our

PATENT
SLATE PAINT

(Fifteen Years Established.)
MIXED READY FOR USE.
Fire-proof, Water-proof, Durable, Economical and Ornamental.

A roof may be covered with a very cheap shingle, and by application of this slate be made to last from 20 to 25 years. Old roofs can be patched and coated, looking much better and lasting longer than new shingles without the slate, for

One-third the Cost of Re-shingling.

The expense of slating new shingles is only about the cost of simply laying them. The paint is FIRE PROOF against sparks or flying embers, as may be easily tested by any one.

IT STOPS EVERY LEAK,

and for tin or iron has no equal, as it expands by heat, contracts by cold, and NEVER CRACKS nor scales. Roofs covered with Tar Sheathing Felt can be made water-tight at a small expense, and preserved for many years. This Slate Paint is EXTREMELY CHEAP.

Two gallons will cover a hundred square feet of shingle roof, while on tin, iron, felt, matched boards, or any smooth surface, from two quarts to one gallon are required to 100 square feet of surface, and although the paint has a heavy body it is easily applied with a brush.

No Tar is used in this Composition, therefore it neither cracks in Winter, nor runs in Summer.

On decayed shingles, it fills up the holes and pores, and gives a new substantial roof that will last for years. CURLED OR WARPED shingles it brings to their places, and keeps them there. It fills up all holes in felt roofs, stops the leaks—and although a slow dryer, rain does not affect it a few hours after applying. As nearly all paints that are black contain Tar, be sure you obtain our genuine article, which (for shingle roofs) is when first applied, changing in about a month to an uniform slate color, and is, all intents and purposes SLATE. On our red color is usually preferred, as one coat is equal to five of any ordinary paint. For

CHOCOLATE COLOR,

TIN ROOFS

BRICK WALLS

Our BRIGHT RED is the only reliable Slate Paint ever introduced that will effectually prevent dampness from penetrating and discoloring the plaster.

These paints are also largely used on outhouses and fences, or as a priming coat on fine buildings.

Our only colors are CHOCOLATE, RED, BRIGHT RED, and ORANGE.

BEATTY'S Parlor Organ Est'd. in 1836

The best and most lasting parlor organ now in use. No other parlor organ has ever attained the same popularity.

It has been tested by thousands, many of them competent judges, and gives universal satisfaction to all.

The music is adapted to the human voice, ranging from the softest flute-like note to a volume of sound unsurpassed by any instrument.

This instrument has all the latest improvements, and every organ is fully warranted for six years. Beautiful oil-polish, black walnut panelled cases, which will not CRACK or WARP, and forms, in addition to a splendid instrument of music, a beautiful piece of furniture.

This organ needs only to be seen to be appreciated, and is sold at extremely low figures for cash. Second-hand instruments taken in exchange.

FARMERS OF CENTRE CO.

I would respectfully call your attention to the celebrated

Keystone Han Made Chains.

These chains have been thoroughly tested by farmers and teamsters in this neighborhood, and are pronounced by all who have used them as far superior to any other chains made. Having secured the sole agency for Centre county for the sale of these chains, I am prepared to furnish on short notice anything in the line of CHAINS, from the heaviest stump machine chain down to the smallest chin chain, all hand made, of the best refined iron, and warranted for one year.

PIANOS & ORGANS.

CAUTION.—The reputation I have gained and the celebrity of my Organs, have induced some unprincipled parties and agents to copy my circulars, and misrepresent my instruments; against this the public are hereby cautioned. All my Organs have my trade-mark, Golden Tongue, and all my Pianos have the word "GROVE" underlined, and also have my name [redacted] and testimonials, DANIEL F. BEATTY, Washington, N. J., without which none is genuine.

Parlor Organs.

Messrs. Geo. P. Rowell & Co., (N. Y.) Newspaper Reporter, says:

"Daniel F. Beatty, the organ builder, of Washington, N. J., presses forward with greatest vigor."

From Wm. Peel, Niagara Falls, N. Y.

"Several months use of the elegant Parlor Organ you sent me satisfies me that it is one of the best made. It has a rich tone; its various tones are most pleasant. I most heartily recommend your organs for parlor school, church or other use."

Best offer ever given. Money refunded upon return of organ and freight charges paid by me (Daniel F. Beatty) both ways if unsatisfactory, after a test trial of five days. Organ warranted for five years. Send for extended list of testimonials before buying a parlor Organ. Address.
