THE FINALE.

A Brief History of the Presidential Election.

For the last sixteen years the Republican party had control of the United States Government, and until within a few years, of a majority of the several state governments. Eight years ago Gen. Grant was elected President by a large majority of popular votes and electors. The country hoped for great things from the great military chieftain, but unfortunately were sadly disappointed in their expectations. From the very first did Grant give painful proofs of incapacity and bungling. His appointments were generally unfortunate, and had a tendency to estrange the best statesmen in the Republican party from his administration. But it was during his second term that he developed his true nature more fully. He showed his partisanship, stubbornness and utter selfishness in the most glaring light. For four long years did official corruption, venality and an utter disregard for the wishes and interests of the people, reign supreme in our nation capital. A fearful financial crisis was inevitable and came—of longer duration, more wide-spread, more disastrous in its results than any that had preceeded it. In its woeful train thousands were brought to utter ruin—rich and poor alike—until the country was brought to a condition the like of which was not seen since the Declaration of Independence was first read, one hundred years ago. There never was a time in the history of this fair land when every department of industry was so utterly paralized—every legitimate enterprise so completely prostrate. To-day more men are out of employ—more people suffering for the most common necessaries of life—in truth it is harder for honest industry to make a decent living than at any former period of our history. And all this while our rulers—chosen to further our interests—revel in luxury and wealth, in corruption and crime of every kind.

Wearily the years of suffering and endurance rolled on, and the end of Grant's administration approached. The two great parties brought forth their candidates. The aspirants in the Republican party, quarreling over the rich prize, were obliged to compromise on Gov. Hayes, of Ohio, an amiable, inoffensive gentleman, with no positive record as a statesman whatever. The Democrats, having learned wisdom by sad experience, wisely discarded the old party ruts of the past, and nominated Gov. Tilden, a statesman of undoubted ability,—fully identified with the wants and duties of the present. The issue was clearly defined. Reform was the battle cry on the one side—not as an idle catchvete phrase, but as a living reality, intensified by a candidate who was the very embodiment of the principle. The people, the teeming millions, the bone and sinew of the country, were enthusiastic for Tilden's election. On the side of Hayes was arrayed the Administration of Grant, the National Treasury, Federal bayonets, and an army of office holders, expectants and camp followers. The campaign was the most hotly contested for years, but right prevailed and Tilden was triumphantly elected, receiving a popular majority of 257,240 votes, and a majority of 23 electors But the Republican leaders, principally Grant, Chandler and the Camerons, drunken with office and power, formed a conspiracy to defeat this emphatic voice of the people. Their fiat went forth that Florida and Louisiana must be wrested from Tilden. In the Return Boards of both states they found their willing tools. By a system of fraud the most open and unblushing, both states were forced into the Hayes count by a set of villians compared to whom the Fve Point thieves of New York are saints, and the result was made to say 185 for Hayes and 184 for Tilden.

The country was shocked. Danger was fast brewing. Troops were hurried from distant points to Washington, to be used by the conspirators to give practical effect to the gigantic fraud. The threatening cloud of Revolution began to gather and hang like a pall over the country. The shattered business interests of the country became alarmed. In this dire emergency the Electoral Commisoion bill was born, and hailed all over the country as the harbinger of peace. It found its warmest advocates among the Democrats, its bitterest opponants were the Republicans. Edmunds in the Senate and Hoar in the House, advocated the passage of the bill with such seeming candor that the Democrats were led to believe they intended acting honestly in the matter, and by this artful trick mainly secured its passage. The Commission, to whom the disputed states were to be refered, was made up of five members of Congress, five United States Senators, and five Judges of the Supreme Court of the U. S., as follows: Congressmen Hoar and Garfield, Republicans, and Paine, Hunton and Abbott, Democrats. Senators Edmunds, Frelinghuysen and Morton, Republicans, and Bayard and Thurman, Democrats. Judges Miller, Strong and Bradley, Republicans, and Clifford and Feld, Democrats—eight Republicans and seven Democrats. It was hoped that the Supreme Judges at least would rise above party and decide for justice, but alas! they did not.

The count proceeded without hindrance until Florida was reached. The case was fully and ably argued. The Democrats and a few Republicans plead for right, for law, for justice, but the eight Republicans on the Commission turned a deaf ear to every thing but the behests of party—ruled that no evidence should be taken,—no witnesses heard! O! ye gods, what sublime mockery!! What a grand farce, in the sacred name of justice and law!!! Three Judges of the Supreme Court of the United States—Miller, Strong and Bradley, three United States Senators—Morton, Edmunds and Frelinghuysen and two members of Congress—Hoar and Garfield, solemnly declare that they decide the greatest lawsuit that ever occurred in this country, without going into the merits of the case at all—without admitting a single witness.

In the case of Louisiana the eight Republicans acted still worse. Although the state voted for Tilden by a majority of some 10,000 votes, a pack of unhung criminals known as the Return Board, who, after offering to sell the electoral vote of the state to the highest bidder, finally turned it over to Hayes. The fact of falsification, fraud and perjury, were patent to the whole country, yet the inimitable eight of the Commission decide that they cannot go behind the action of the Return Board, that Louisiana must stand as fixed by this set of moral and political outcasts.

In the case of Oregon the beautiful eight reverse their ruling in the Florida case, and decide that they can go behind the action of the Return Board—just far enough to count the state for Hayes. Thus the great fraud is consummated, the weak and imbecile Hayes is declared elected, and corruption has another lease of four years.

We feel humiliated and mortified. For the first time in a life of nearly forty five years, we feel ashamed that we are an American citizen!—

What of the future, will it always be thus? No. The Government may be corrupt to the core, but the people are honest, conservative and patriotic. It is due to the enduring patience of the Conservative masses that we have peace throughout the land, instead of bloody revolution and bitter party war.

The day of retribution will come swiftly and those who have sown the storm will reap the whirlwind.

"Truth, crushed to earth will rise again,
Th' eternal years of God are hers."

R. B. Hayes was privately sworn in as President of the United States—to which he never was elected—at the White House on Saturday evening, over twelve hours before President Grant's term had expired. In his indecent haste to get possession of the stolen office, Hayes makes a most pittiable figure of himself. It will avail him nothing. An outraged nation may submit to the infamy, but the stamp of fraud is so indelibly fixed upon his imbecile brow that all the waters of the Mississippi and Missouri combined, can never wash it out. All the fine words of a labored inaugural—all the fair promises of a conservative administration can never efface the fact that he is simply a receiver of stolen goods. We turn from the humiliating picture, trying to find consolation in the fact that this is

"The land of the Free
And the Home of the Brave."

Work on the bridge, this side of Paddy's Mountain tunnel, was commenced yesterday.

Mr. Andrew Rishel, teacher at Gentzel's school house in Penn township, was severely kicked on the leg by a horse, last week. The attending doctor thinks he will be laid up for some time, although the leg is not broken.

The Republican has at last discovered one meritorious point in Mr. Hayes, namely that he is the professor of a big pair of feet. We presume it will require a monstrous big set of pedes to stand on a fraudulent title for the high and dignified office of President for four years.

One of the best Book Stores in Central Pennsylvania, is that of James Welch in Bellefonte. Full to repletion in its various departments, Mr. Welch sells at prices that defy competition anywhere. Just now he makes a speciality of paper and envelopes selling the latter at five cents per pack, and note paper at 7—10 cents per quire. We advise our readers to visit and buy at Welch's store when they go to Bellefonte.

The entertainment given by the IRVING LITERARY INSTITUTE on Saturday evening was a very creditable affair. This is not our opinion only but it was the universal expression of the large audience present. The members of the Institute—especially the younger ones—are making good progress in general knowledge, in parliamentary rules and usages, and in the art of public speaking.

The speech of the evening was made by Hon. W. K. Alexander. It was a masterly effort on the affirmative side of the question, and won for its author golden opinions from all sources. We only wish the old man Tuten had been here. If he is not altogether past improving the speeches made, especially that of Mr. Alexander, would have had a civilizing and liberalizing effect upon his contracted, shriveled, benighted and bigoted mind. "It would indeed."

SITUATION WANTED. A good compositor desires a situation after May 1st. Willing to take moderate wages. Reference given if desired. For further particulars apply or write to "W." care of JOURNAL office.

MR. DANIEL F. BEATTY, of Washington, N. J., is constantly in receipt of the most flattering testimony from all parts of the United States and Canada, as to the beauty and excellance of his pianos and organs. Send for catalogue and list of testimonials. Address Daniel F. Beatty, Washington, Warren County, N. J., U. S. A.

FATAL ACCIDENT. Last week Mr. Woodward Huff, son of Joseph Huff, of Hightown, Union county, was instantly killed by the falling of a tree while engaged in making ties for the L. C. & S. C. R. R., below the Paddy mountain tunnel. He was a young man of excellent character and was much esteemed in the community which he lived.

White, smooth and soft any lady's hands, arms or neck may become, who uses Glenn's Sulphur Soap. Pimples or other disfigurements of a complexional nature are surely obliterated by this healthful promoter of beauty. Depot, Crittenton's No. 7 Sixth Avenue, N. Y. Hill's Hair & Whisker Dye, black or brown, 50 cts.

From the court proceedings at Lewisburg, the other week, we learn the following:

"James Sankey, Indorsee of John Sankey, vs. David Watson and John Watson, Ex'rs of John C. Watson, dec'd. Sum. in case sur assumpsit. (The gold and silver contest, with which all our readers are familiar.) Verdict in favor of Defts."

So they don't get the $9,000 gold and $1000 dollars silver. Poor fellows.

There is a local going the rounds of the papers of this and neighboring counties, to the effect that trains are now running up to Paddy's Mountain" which we feel bound to correct. The "trains" spoken of are not trains but a train,—the construction train namely.

Paddy's Mountain is in the midst of the Seven Mountains with no permanent house or building in sight. There would be no possible occasion for trains—passenger or freight—to run up to Paddy's Mountain, yet this is the idea conveyed.

The Republican of last week has two bust portraits in its outside upper right hand corner, pretending to be likenesses of Hayes and Wheeler. In studying the faces one must come to the inevitable conclusion that the first one is the face of a man who would cheat his neighbor out of a farm, upon a fraudulent title, while the second seems to be the face of some escaped convict from one of our penetentiaries. No, it can not be. The Almighty would not put such a face on an honest man as is your picture of "Wheeler." You must have gotten hold of the wrong cut. Take out the disgusting caricatures.

OUR NEW SIGN is up and we are pleased with it all to sticks. It is a good sign, substantially made. It is a neat, tasty, unique sign—"it is indeed," as our friend VanOrmer would express it. It is an original sign—none like it in Penns Valley. It is the best "sign of the times" in these diggings. We invite all our friends and patrons to come and see our sign, to smile and talk pleasantly over it, and—if they have time, to step up and pay their subscriptions. Our enemies may do about the matter just as they please.

Admittance—free. Children half price Doors open at all proper hours.

We were aware of certain grave rumors regarding the rather sudden death of a Mr. Parker, in the so-called "Spruce," in the north east corner of Gregg Township, but were careful not to give circulation to a matter so serious without having any reliable information on the subject. The Centre Reporter of last week says that "Dr. Mingle was sent for, who found the patient in a condition indicating he had taken poison, and left an emetic, and rumor has it that after the doctor left, poison was again added to the medicine." Dr. Mingle did not attend or even see the patient, much less did he express an opinion of any kind in the matter.

Birth Day Anniversary.

February the 28th, the 88th birth day of Catherine Musser, the mother of Dr. P. T. Musser, of Aaronsburg, was celebrated. The doctor honored his mother, himself and family, by the rich and magnificent feast he had prepared for the occasion. The principal guests were the following, viz: Catherine Musser, aged 88 years; Jacob Harter, 86 years, 8 months and 25 days; Mrs. Adam Bower, widow 83 years, 9 months and 25 days; David Kreamer, 83 years, 9 months and 20 days; Mrs. Thomas Cronmiller, widow, 79 years and some months, and Mrs. Kline, widow, 79 years and 3 months. Aggregate of ages 501 years, 4 months and 18 days. Average age of each, 83 years, 6 months and 23 days. This was emphatically an octogenarian festival. A few relatives and friends were present to share in the doctor's bounty. A short address was made by—T. It was truly a joyful day. Glück zu!

PROTECT YOUR BUILDINGS,

Which may be done with one-fourths the usual expense, by using our

PATENT SLATE PAINT

(Fifteen Years Established.)

MIXED READY FOR USE.

Fire-proof, Water-proof, Durable, Economical and Ornamental.

A roof may be covered with a very cheap shingle, and by application of this slate be made to last from 20 to 25 years. Old roofs can be patched and coated, looking much better and lasting longer than new shingles without the slate, for

One-third the Cost of Re-shingling.

The expense of slating new shingles is only about the cost of simply laying them. The paint is FIRE-PROOF against sparks or flying embers, as may be easily tested by any one and for tin or iron has no equal, as it expands by heat, contracts by cold, and NEVER CRACKS nor scales. Roofs covered with Tar Sheathing Felt can be made water-tight at a small expense, and preserved for many years. This Slate Paint is EXTREMELY CHEAP.

IT STOPS EVERY LEAK,

Two gallons will cover a hundred square feet of shingle roof, while on tin, iron, felt, matched boards, or any smooth surface, from two quarts to one gallon are required to 100 square feet of surface, and although the paint has a heavy body it is easily applied with a brush.

No Tar is used in this Composition, therefore it neither cracks in Winter, nor runs in Summer

On decayed shingles, it fills up the holes and pores, and gives a new substantial roof that will last for years. CURLED OR WARPED shingles it brings to their places, and keeps them there. It fills up all holes in felt roofs, stops the leaks—and although a slow dryer, rain does not affect it a few hours after applying. As nearly all paints that are black contain TAR, be sure you obtain our genuine article, which (for shingle roofs) is when first applied, changing in about a month to an uniform slate color, and is, all intents and purposes SLATE. On our red color is usually preferred, as one coat is equal to five of any ordinary paint. For

BRICK WALLS

Our BRIGHT RED is the only reliable Slate Paint ever introduced that will effectually prevent dampness from penetrating and discoloring the plaster.

These paints are also largely used on outhouses and fences, or as a priming coat on fine buildings.

Our only colors are CHOCOLATE, RED, BRIGHT RED, and ORANGE.

BEATTY'S Parlor Organ Est'd. in 1856

The best and most lasting parlor organ now in use. No other parlor organ has ever attained the same popularity.

It has been tested by thousands, many of them competent judges, and gives universal satisfaction to all.

The music is adapted to the human voice, ranging from the softest flute-like note to a volume of sound unsurpassed by any instrument.

This instrument has all the latest improvements, and every organ is fully warranted for six years. Beautiful oil polish, black walnut panelled cases, which will not CRACK or WARP, and forms, in addition to a splendid instrument of music, a beautiful piece of furniture.

This organ needs only to be seen to be appreciated, and is sold at extremely low figures for cash. Second-hand instruments taken in exchange.

Agents wanted, male or female, in every county in the United States and Canada. A liberal discount made to teachers, ministers churches, schools, lodges, etc., where I have no agents. Illustrated catalogue and price list free. Correspondence solicited. Agent discount given where I have no agents. Best offer ever given now ready. Address,

DANIEL F. BEATTY, Washington, New Jersey, U. S. A.

FARMERS OF CENTRE CO.

I would respectfully call your attention to the celebrated

Keystone Hand Made Chains.

These chains have been thoroughly tested by farmers and teamsters in this neighborhood, and are pronounced by all who have used them as far superior to any other chains made. Having secured the sole agency for Centre county for the sale of these chains, I am prepared to furnish on short notice anything in the line of CHAINS, from the heaviest stump machine chain down to the smallest chin chain, all hand made, of the best refined iron, and warranted for one year.
