FOREIGN PERSONAL.

Prince Iturbide, according to a letter in the Vienna Wanderer, is about to marry a rich heiress of Stutgard, Mlle. de Kauffmann, the niece of the Councilor of State, Von Neurath.

Figaro states that since the Emperor's return from Compiègne an old gentleman has been admitted every morning to the Tuileries, remaining there nearly an hour. This mysterious person is no other than M. Guizot.

Maffei, Italian Chargé d'Affairs, writes to The London Times that the Italian Government do not recognize the right of the Marquis Rappalo (husband of the Duchess of Genoa) to intermeddle with matters which concern the Princess of the Royal House of Savoy.

Mr. Wentworth Blackett Beaumont, said to be the greatest coal-owner in the world, along with Mr. Grote, the historian, and Mr. Talbot, Lord Lieutenant of Glamaganshire, who has sat for forty years in the Commons, have declined peerages offered them by Mr. Gladstone.

Rochefort is further described, this time by the Gaulois, as "tall, thin—very thin—thin as a skeleton; head more than pale—of a color not to be defined, between the creamy white and greenish blue of the electric light; cheek-bones prominent, eyes hollow, forehead high, a chin terminated with what the Yankees call a barbiche—uncombed into the bargain; an irregular nose—everything angular—hair like independant brushwood—short jacket—black hat."

Prince Napoleon has just sent his eldest son, Victor, seven years of age, to a private school in the Rue Caumartin, in which there are about fifteen pupils. The principal asked the father how he should address the boy, as "Monseigneur," or "Your Highness?" "Call him simply Victor," said the Prince. "But on the lists of honor for attention and good conduct?" "Oh, then, Victor Napoleon; but when his companions give him a blow or he returns it, Victor, short, and in no case whatever Monseigneur."

THE CHRISTMAS GIFT-BOOK, 1869.
EPISODES OF FICTION;
OR
CHOICE STORIES FROM THE GREAT NOVELISTS.
WITH BIOGRAPHICAL INTRODUCTIONS.

Numerous original illustrations by Sam Bough, Clark Stanton, J. McWhirter, J. B. Brown, L. Huard, P. Barnard, R. P. Leitch, Harrison Weir, etc., etc.

This Volume contains a series of choice extracts from the best works of some of the most popular English novelists; extracts selected with the view of illustrating the general character of their style, and presenting the reader with an opportunity of comparing the present school of fiction with the past. As far as possible, the editor has sought in each selection an episode of the story from which it is taken, and his object has been to furnish the reader with material for an hour or two of pleasant reading, and the artist with suitable subjects for the exercise of his pencil.

The engraving of the illustrations has been executed by the most skillful artists, and the printing done in the best manner, on superfine calendered paper made expressly for the work—in fact no expense has been spared to make it one of the best books of the season.

AN ELEGANT HOLIDAY VOLUME.

THE HUDSON; FROM THE WILDERNESS TO THE SEA.
BY BENSON J. LOSSING,
Author of "Pictorial History of the Civil War," "Field Book of the Revolution," &c., &c.
Illustrated by upward of Three Hundred Engravings on Wood and Steel, from Drawings by the Author.

The Hudson River is a classic in American Scenery. Its discovery was among the earliest events that marked the era of permanent European settlements in the New World; and Tradition and History extending thier researches back among the misty facts of Aboriginal life, and coming down to the days of living men, find nowhere on the Continent such multitudinous and varied subjects for contemplation and record as along the course of this beautiful river, from its source among the mountains of Northern New-York to its union with the Atlantic at Sandy Hook, a distance of about three hundred miles. Along its banks and across its upper waters lay the wild Indian trails during the colonial wars between the English and French and the savage inhabitants; and during the War for Independence, along full two hundred miles of its course, were heard the clash of arms and the booming of cannon. Over the same line Agriculture, Commerce, Manufactures, and the Fine Arts, have since spread abounding beauty and wealth; while the bosom of the river bears daily homeward fleets freighted with the choicest products of well-directed industry.

The engraving of the illustrations has been executed by the most skillful artists, and the printing done in the best manner on toned paper, made expressly for the work; in fact, no expense has been spared to make it one of the best of books.

NOW READY.
THE GEM-BOOK OF THE SEASON.
By HENRY WARD BEECHER.

I.
THE OVERTURE OF ANGELS.
Illustrated by Harry Fenn. Blue, tinted paper, extra cloth gilt; price $2 50.

This exquisite Holiday Gift Book is a chapter from Mr. Beecher's great work, the "LIFE OF JESUS THE CHRIST." It is a series of pictures, in the author's highest style, of the angelic appearances—to the Blessed Virgin, Zacharias, to Mary, Mother of Jesus; to the Shepherds, in the fields, &c.—giving a beautiful and characteristically interesting treatment of all the events recorded in the Gospels as occurring about that period. The charming style in which the book is written, the poetic imagery and beauty of sentiment with which it abounds, the delicate and tender treatment of Mary's experience of motherhood, the vivid pictures of the manners and customs of the Orient in that day—indeed, all its parts and features are characterized by the peculiar freshness and originality which Mr. Beecher brings to whatever subject he touches. It is essentially a Christmas book, and one which, from the universal desire of the public to know something of Mr. Beecher's forthcoming volume, will be eagerly sought.

The artistic fancy and graceful pencil of Mr. Fenn have produced some rare effects.

II.

PIANO-FORTES.
ESTABLISHED 1823.
Our reputation as the FIRST MANUFACTURERS in the COUNTRY and EUROPE being fully established, and the UNQUALIFIED SUPERIORITY of our INSTRUMENTS being ACKNOWLEDGED by the VOLUNTARY TESTIMONY of the LEADING ARTISTS in the WORLD, we beg to assure the public that the high STANDARD of QUALITY which has given us the PROMINENCE will be MAINTAINED, as our motto is NEVER TO SACRIFICE QUALITY OF WORK TO ECONOMY OF MANUFACTURE.
THE ONE PRICE SYSTEM!
UNIFORM AND FAIR PRICES
TO ALL PURCHASERS.
INAUGURATED APRIL 15, 1862.
Having upon this basis doubled our already immense trade, our position is assured, and every customer is fairly and honorably treated.
CAUTION TO PURCHASERS.
As we are the ONLY manufacturers in OUR LINE that have adopted this system of FAIR DEALING, it is not SURPRISING that our COMPETITORS should venture the opinion that we are making cheap and inferior Pianos, FOR THEY MUST SAY SOMETHING TO UPHOLD THE OLD DISCOUNT SYSTEM.
OUR ANSWER.
We have received the HIGHEST AWARDS and PLAUDITS of the WORLD; 76 PRIZE MEDALS over all competitors, and over 25,000 of our instruments are daily giving TESTIMONY to their EMINENT superiority and DURABILITY.
FOR POWER AND QUALITY OF TONE, DELICACY OF TOUCH, PERFECTION OF MECHANISM, DURABILITY, AND GENERAL EXCELLENCE OF WORKMANSHIP, WITH BEAUTY OF DESIGN AND FINISH,
WE CHALLENGE COMPETITION.

STEINWAY & SONS,
Manufacturers of
GRAND, SQUARE, AND UPRIGHT
PIANO-FORTES,
BEG TO ANNOUNCE
A GENERAL REDUCTION
In their prices, in accordance with the decline in the premium on Gold, and consequent decreased cost of imported articles used in the manufacture of Piano-Fortes. In addition to their established styles of Piano-Fortes, STEINWAY & SONS, in order to meet a long-felt and frequently expressed want, by persons of moderate means, teachers, schools, etc., have perfected arrangements for the manufacture of an entirely new style of instrument termed
THE "SCHOOL" PIANO,
A thoroughly complete instrument of 7 octaves, precisely the same in size, scale, interior mechanism, and workmanship, as their highest priced 7-octave Pianos, the sole difference being that this new style of instrument is constructed in a perfectly plain yet exceedingly neat exterior case. These new instruments will be supplied to those who desire to possess a thoroughly first-class "Steinway Piano," yet are limited in means.
AT EXCEEDINGLY MODERATE PRICES.
STEINWAY & SONS also desire to call special attention to their new PATENT UPRIGHT PIANOS,
With Double Iron Frame, Patent Resonator, Tubular Frame Action, and new and Patent, which are matchless in volume and quality of tone, and surpassing facility of action, whilst standing longer in tune, and being more impervious to atmospheric influences than any other Piano at present manufactured.
Price lists and Illustrated Catalogues mailed free on application.
EVERY PIANO IS WARRANTED FOR FIVE YEARS.
