Have just published:

I.

THE AMERICAN ANNUAL CYCLOPÆDIA
FOR 1869.

This book, as a record of the important events of the past year, is the best, and in fact the only, authority on all matters relating to the material and intellectual development of the year, embracing Political, Civil, Military, and Social Affairs of all Countries; Important Public Documents, Biography, Statistics, Commerce, Finance, Literature, Science, Agriculture, Mechanical Industry, &c.

This work is the ninth of a series commenced in 1861, and published, one volume annually since, in the same style as the "New American Cyclopædia," and is, in fact, an addendum to that invaluable work. Each volume, however, is complete in itself, and is confined to the results of its year.

Embellished with fine Steel Portraits of His Imperial Majesty Napoleon III., His Holiness Pope Pius IX., and the Hon. Hamilton Fish, Secretary of State.

COMMENTS OF THE PRESS.

The New York World, speaking of this work, says: "The past volumes of the annual series have all been good; but that which has been recently added is excellent, in fact it might be said to have approached perfection. No final word is needed to express the genuine admiration which this work in its conception, execution, and publication, deserves. No private library in the country should be without it or its predecessors."

"Its value is not easily estimated."—[London Saturday Review.

"Each succeeding year will add to its value."—[London Daily News.

"No individual or family of ordinary intelligence should be without it."—[N. Y. Times.

"Supplies a great public want."—[Detroit Tribune.

"Ought to be in every library."—[Albany Atlas and Argus.

"We can confidently and conscientiously recommend it."—[Evening Traveller.

"Thorough and reliable, and just such a work as is greatly needed."—[Cleveland Daily Plaindealer.

"Cannot be too highly commended."—[Ohio State Journal.

MR. G. T. CURTIS'S LIFE OF DANIEL WEBSTER.

This Great National Work, written in fulfilment of Mr. Webster's testamentary injunctions, is published in two large volumes, 8vo, illustrated with elegant Steel Portraits of Mr. Webster, and fine Woodcuts of different views at Franklin and Marshfield. Price, complete, $10.

From The London Saturday Review, Feb. 26, 1870.

"We believe the present work to be a most valuable and important contribution to the history of American parties and politics.

"In that history, at a critical period, Mr. Webster played a prominent and active part.

"Not only was he one of the foremost men of his time, both at the Bar and in the Senate, but he was the recognized leader, and one of the chief organizers, of the party which, after many vicissitudes of fortune and many material changes of principle, after being apparently broken up and discomfited, has in our own time revived, gained a complete ascendency within the Northern States, and directed, for the last ten years, the policy and legislation of the Federal Government.

"The life of such a man belongs to the history of his country; and that history must be incomplete and liable to misapprehension in the absence of the light thrown upon it by his personal biography."

The above works are SOLD BY SUBSCRIPTION ONLY; subscriptions, however, may be sent direct to

A HISTORICAL WORK of GREAT VALUE.

JUST READY,

ALASKA AND ITS RESOURCES.

BY WM. H. DALL,

Director of the Scientific Corps of the late Western Union Telegraph Expedition.

One large octavo volume, price $7 50.

"A few months ago and Alaska was a terra incognita save to a few whose knowledge, in condensed form, was to be found chiefly in Charles Sumner's speech: now we have an elegant octavo volume, profusely illustrated, and crammed with the fruits of actual observation."—[N. Y. Tribune.

This is the only complete history of our newly-acquired possessions published. The narrative is one of actual experience during a three-years' residence in the country. The records of History, Geography, Climate, Agriculture, Fisheries, Fur Trade, Geological, Mineral, and other resources; Natural History, adjacent Territories and their inhabitants, are full and reliable. Profusely illustrated from sketches by the author. The publishers have spared no expense in its preparation, and confidently offer it to the public, not only as a work of great historical value, but also as a very elegant specimen of book manufacture.

Sold by all Booksellers.

THE COUNTESS OF RUDOLSTADT. A Sequel to "Consuelo." By George Sand.

In Morocco, Cloth, Gilt, Duodecimo Library Style, and other New Books are published this day by T. B. PETERSON & BROTHERS, PHILADELPHIA, And are for sale by all Booksellers and News Agents.

GEORGE SAND'S BEST WORKS.

THE COUNTESS OF RUDOLSTADT. A Sequel to "Consuelo." By George Sand, author of "Consuelo," "Indiana," "Jealousy," "Fanchon, the Cricket," "The Corsair," "First and True Love," etc. Translated from the French by Fayette Robinson. Complete and unabridged in one large duodecimo volume, bound in morocco cloth, gilt side and back. Price $1 50.

"'The Countess of Rudolstadt,' is one of the greatest works of fiction by one of the most powerful and versatile novel writers of the Nineteenth century. The heroine of the story, 'Consuelo,' is an embodiment of all that is chaste and pure, with an artless simplicity truly captivating to the reader. The entire work is well spiced with the supernatural, throughout, and is, therefore, the better suited to the tastes and requirements of the present age. The reader becomes deeply interested in the principal character, and this interest increases as the work progresses, until the final close of the volume. The immense sale of 'Consuelo' suffers a scarcely perceptible abatement. It is, with its sequel, 'The Countess of Rudolstadt,' as moral as it is classically written eloquently, with strong and sincere purpose, and overflowing with the delights of the good and beautiful that emanates from our nature."—[Athenæum.

CONSUELO. A Novel. Second Edition. By George Sand, author of "The Countess of Rudolstadt." Complete and unabridged in one large duodecimo volume of over 500 pages, bound in morocco cloth, gilt side and back. Price $1 50.

BOOK AGENTS WANTED FOR THE
AUTOBIOGRAPHY AND PERSONAL RECOLLECTIONS
OF JOHN B. GOUGH.

The whole enlivened with affecting incidents full of interest and pathos. Fifty thousand sold the last five months. People will buy this, notwithstanding the "hard times." It is a pleasure to sell it, for it is doing much good. The work is splendidly bound and illustrated. Address the Publishers,
BILL, NICHOLS & Co., Springfield, Mass.

BOOK AGENTS WANTED—To introduce into each County in the United States, the ILLUSTRATED NEW WORLD, about 900 octavo pages, and over 300 steel and wood engravings, maps, charts, &c. Issued in the English and German languages. A splendid work for agents. For circulars, giving full particulars, apply immediately to HENRY BILL, Norwich, Conn.

WANTED AGENTS—To sell the OCTAGON SEWING MACHINE. It is licensed, makes the "Elastic Lock Stitch," and is warranted for 5 years. Price, $15. All other machines with an underfeed sold for $15 or less are infringements. Address OCTAGON SEWING MACHINE Co., St. Louis, Mo.; Chicago, Ill.; Pittsburgh, Pa.; or Boston, Mass.

WANTED AGENTS—To sell the HOME SHUTTLE SEWING MACHINE. Price, $25. It makes the "Lock Stitch" (alike on both sides) and is the only licensed under-feed Shuttle Machine sold for less than $60. Licensed by Wheeler & Wilson, Grover & Baker, and Singer & Co. All other under-feed Shuttle Machines sold for less than $60 are infringements, and the seller and user liable to prosecution. Address JOHNSON, CLARK & Co., Boston, Mass.; Pittsburgh, Pa.; Chicago, Ill.; or St. Louis, Mo.

$100 A DAY can be made by Wholesale Agents on LLOYD'S PATENT REVOLVING DOUBLE MAPS of "EUROPE AND AMERICA," with the United States County Map on Reverse side. See Business Opportunities, to-day's Herald, for full description.
