FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

MONEY AND STOCKS.

New York Financial Market.

NEW YORK, Jan. 17.—Money—Easy at 1@1½ per cent.; closed offered at 1 per cent.

Prime Mercantile Paper—4½@6 per cent.

Governments—Firm.

Railway Bonds—Irregular.

State Securities—Dull.

Share speculation was quiet and uninteresting during the morning hours to day. The announcement that the trunk line representatives had been unable to agree at their meeting yesterday had little or no effect on prices. At the opening there was a decline of less than 1 per cent., which was succeeded by a fractional advance, but the improvement was lost later. After first call a moderate buying movement set in on the publication of the bank statement, which was a favorable exhibit, and showed a gain of $3,504,400 in reserve. The banks are now $51,148,775 above legal requirements, the largest sum ever held. Later in the day there was considerable activity and a decided pressure to sell some stocks. A report from Philadelphia that the Pennsylvania Railroad had cut fares between New York, Chicago and St. Louis to $10 for immigrants landing from ship, which had no effect early in the day, was used at this time against the market. The decline, except in a few cases, was unimportant. The Northern Pacifics were freely pressed for sale, common dropping ¾ per cent. to 15 and preferred 1¼ to 38⅝. Common returned to 16⅛@16⅜ in the final transations. The market closed weak. Canadian Pacific was heavy throughout the day and broke from 42 at the close yesterday to 37, with a subsequent recovery to 39¼@39¾. The room trader was a prominent seller and offered stock 1 per cent. below the market. Compared with last night the closing prices were ⅛ to 1½ per cent. lower, except for Western Union, which is ⅛ per cent. higher. Canadian Pacific is 3¼ per cent lower.

Transactions on Stock Exchange to-day aggregated 231,000 shares, of which 56,000 were Lackawanna, 19,000 Lake Shore, 23,000 Northwestern, 18,000 New York Central, 45,000 St. Paul and 17,000 Western Union.

The mining market was quiet. Sutro Tunnel sold at 70 and Little Pittsburg at 19.

COMMERCIAL.

There is nothing to be said about business or trade, the stormy weather having nearly caused an entire stagnation with wholesale markets. The prospects for a good business in all branches in the near future are very flattering.

GRAIN.

Wheat—All markets are firmer and stronger, and under light local receipts all offerings will find ready purchasers at full quotations. Futures in fair request, but offerings of same are scarce. New York ⅛ to ¾c higher and Chicago steady.

Corn—Under an active order deman and light receipts all grades for immediate shipment will bring full prices. Futures dull and uninviting. New York steady and Chicago ¾c higher.

Oats—Higher prices and stronger market locally. All grades in good demand.

The following table shows the receipts of grain at this point for the past twenty-four hours;

	Received
Flour, bbls	----
Wheat, bu	5,100
Corn, bu	115,000
