Prime Mercantile Paper—4@5 per cent.

Government Bonds—Quiet.

Railroad Bonds—Active and irregular.

State Securities—Quiet and steady.

This was the dullest day on the Stock Exchange in many weeks. Not only was business extremely light, but the day passed without the development of news having any effect upon prices, and barring moderate fluctuations at the opening and again during the last half hour, the market was listless and altogether uninteresting as can be expected in midsummer.

Transactions on Stock Exchange aggregated 158,000 shares, of which 37,000 were Lackawanna, 14,000 Lake Shore, 15,000 Northwestern, 11,000 New York Central, 46,000 St. Paul.

The mining market was practically neglected during the morning. Standard strong at 125@120; Horn Silver firm at 265 regular, 250 seller three, 255 sell ten; Consolidated Pacific only steady at 95; Consolidated California and Virginia, 40. In the afternoon Standard sold at 120; Plymouth, 16⅝; 35 do., 16¾; Sierra Nevada, 55; Union Consolidated, 55.

COMMERCIAL.

The grain market is characterized with fair activity; prices, however, are unchanged. Grocers are progressing in a satisfactory manner, and prices are generally steady. There is a good demand for dried fruits, canned goods and fish. Butter is dull and weak. Eggs are arriving in great plenty, and prices were reduced 2c per dozen yesterday.

GRAIN.

The Board of Trade circular says:

Wheat—Local markets rule easier than Thursday, and the sudden boom has received somewhat of a check. Dealers generally are anxiously awaiting the first dull thunder of war's cannon, in the far off East, when they expect prices to reach a plane considerably above present quotations. Local receipts of choice stock are very light, and offerings very meager. Futures have no friends. Seaboard suffered a sharp decline at close last evening. Our brokers reported their limits reduced, but the tone of Eastern markets was better this morning, and purchasing limits were advanced. New York at noon to-day was ⅛c lower; Baltimore ¼@⅜c off, and Chicago being quoted as steady.

Corn—All grades, locally considered, are higher, firm and active. Receipts not so liberal, and they generally fail to grade, in consequence of dampness. Illinois farmers, as a rule, build cribs without roofs, probably believing that snow and ice will materially add to the weight of their corn, which increase will more than compensate them for reduction in price because of being off grades, and we hazard the opinion that they are not far wrong. New York at noon was steady, with Baltimore and Chicago the same.

Oats—A shade firmer, and all grades cash delivery will bring full market price.

The following table shows the receipts of grain at this point for the past twenty-four hours:
