Fraley Smith, Theodore Hosmer, William S. Lane, and William A. Griswold are complainants (together with Charles D. Drake, John R. Wheat, and Ellen Meline, who have been admitted as complainants therein), and "The Northern Pacific Railroad Company" is defendant, the said Court did make and enter a certain decree of the twelfth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, and, whereas, by said decree, the Court did order, adjudge, and decree that all the right, title, interest, claim, estate, or demand whatsoever which the said "The Northern Pacific Railroad Company" has, or may at any time hereafter acquire or become in any way entitled to, of, in, and to all the lands and sections of lands situate, lying, and being on either side of the railroad of said Company, and the branch thereof, as the same may be finally located and constructed in accordance with the said acts of Congress and the supplements thereto, in or through the States of Wisconsin, Minnesota, and Oregon, and the United States Territories of Dakota, Montana, Idaho, and Washington, making in the aggregate about sixty millions of acres of land, more or less, and also all the right of way and railroad and branches thereof authorized by the said act of Congress and the acts and resolutions supplementary thereto, constructed and to be constructed, under the said act in the said States and Territories, and all engines, cars, and rolling stock which the said "The Northern Pacific Railroad Company" may have at any time placed upon the said railroad for the use and operation thereof, together with all the rights, liberties, franchises, including the franchise to be a corporation, and property of every description, to the said "The Northern Pacific Railroad Company" belonging, or in any wise appertaining to the said railroad under or by virtue of the said acts and resolutions of the Congress of the United States, with all accessions thereto at the time of the sale thereof (except the lands and land grants which are therein specially provided for) be sold in one entire parcel, as an entirety, under direction of Oliver Fiske and Kenneth G. White, esqs., as Master Commissioners, at public auction, in front of the Custom-house, in the city of New-York, in the State of New-York, on the first Monday of August, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, and that upon confirmation of such sale by the Court, and receiving the purchase money therefor, the said Master shall convey the same by good and sufficient conveyances to the purchaser or purchasers, and such sale and conveyance so made shall convey all the right, title, estate, interest, and property of said "The Northern Pacific Railroad Company" in and to the said railroad, premises, franchises, and property above mentioned and described to the said purchaser or purchasers, in fee simple forever, and shall be a perpetual bar both in law and equity against the said "The Northern Pacific Railroad Company" and its successors and assigns, and against all and every person claiming or to claim the said premises or any part thereof under them forever, and against each and every the defendants in this action; and the said defendants shall be forever foreclosed from all equity of redemption in said premises and every part of the same.

And that at the sale of the property of said "The Northern Pacific Railroad Company," of its railroads, equipments, appurtenances, the said Jay Cooke and Charlemagne Tower, their successors or successor in said trust, as Trustees, may bid for and purchase, or cause to be bid for and purchased, the property so sold, in behalf of all the holders of the bonds secured by said mortgage or deed of trust and then outstanding, in the proportion of the respective interests of such bondholders.

And, whereas, by the said decree, the Court did order, adjudge, and decree that at the time of said sale of railroad and equipments, as aforesaid, the purchaser or purchasers shall pay to said Masters the sum of at least one hundred thousand dollars in cash as part payment, to be forfeited in case of non-compliance with the terms of sale; and within sixty days thereafter or on final confirmation of said sale by this Court, and at the delivery of the deeds therefor, the balance in cash; provided, however, that in the payment of such balance, first mortgage bonds, which may have been sanctioned by the Court, may be taken as cash, each bond in such case to be taken only for such an amount as would equal the dividend to which it would be finally entitled under the said decree.

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the provisions of the said decree we, the undersigned, the Master Commissioners as aforesaid, will sell at public auction, in front of the Custom-house, in the City of New-York, on the first Monday of August, 1875, at 12 o'clock, noon, all the above described property (except the lands and land grants which are by said decree specially provided for) in one parcel as an entirety under the terms and conditions of sale as above prescribed by said decree.
