SOUTH-WESTERN OFFICE,
January 30, 1867.

BUSINESS.—During the past week we have not been able to perceive any falling off from the healthy state of trade reported for the week before. From all appearance our merchants are doing as well as they could wish. If such their profits are small and their ex- [illegible] at they can compare balance these with COTTON.—With the staple we have had another lively week, nearly as much having changed hands as did the week previous, though at prices not quite so steady. We refer to the following memorada of the commission houses of Col. D. B. Martin and J. M. Waskom & Co., for full particulars of the state of the market from day to day.

(COLUMBIA OF D. B. MARTIN.)—Wednesday, Jan. 23. Market this morning drooping, with a decided tendency to lower figures, closing at a decline of ¼c. Ordinary 20c, good ordinary 23c., low middling 27@28c. Gold ruling 136@138. Thursday—Owing to unfavorable news over the wires from other ports, the market opened dull, with no disposition on the part of buyers to give yesterday's quotations. The eagerness on the part of sellers to sell enabled buyers to purchase at a decline of ½@1c. Gold easy at 135@138. Friday—The market opened this morning with good demand, and the decline of yesterday has been recovered. Sales [illegible] for ordinary 25c., good ordinary 26@ [illegible] ling 27@28c. Gold 135@136. Saturday—The market this morning opened steady, for ordinary [illegible] good ordinary 26@27c., low middling 27@ [illegible] ing an advance in the better grades of ½c. [illegible] market opened quite active this morning [illegible] ferings light. Sales were effected readily [illegible] y's quotations. Gold 135@137. Tues- [illegible] s being favorable by telegrams received [illegible] last night of yesterday's sales, showing [illegible] e and market firm and active, has given [illegible] r market, without any quotable change [illegible] Gold easy at 135@137.

[illegible] OF J. M. WASKOM & CO.)—Wednesday, [illegible] Cotton market firm at previous quotations; [illegible] We quote good ordinary 26c., low middling 26@27c. Gold 136@138. Thursday—Our market [illegible] good demand and slight improvement in [illegible] Gold advanced and firm at 138. Friday—[illegible] less active than yesterday, though the [illegible] were taken at previous figures. Gold 138. Saturday—Market quiet throughout. The decline in gold caused outside figures. Monday—To-day good demand, [illegible] ge in quotations from inside figures. Ordinary 26c., low middling 27½c. Gold [illegible] —Our cotton market opened with good [illegible] for in the day cotton was heavy at Mon- [illegible] s. We quote good ordinary 26c., low [illegible], U.S. certificate tax paid by produ- [illegible] demand at 136.

"A slight cold," a heedless remark. "A slight cold" neglected has undermined the constitution of thousands, who, by the use of pectoral balm, would now be bright ornaments to society. For sale by all druggists.

Owing to the carelessness of the officers in command of the iron-clad fleet near Philadelphia Navy-yard, by which the Ironsides was burned, the Secretary of the Navy has ordered Commander Turner and one hundred and sixty-nine officers and men under him, away from that station. There were then thirty-two vessels and one hundred and seventy men on duty.

has been exceedingly unsettled throughout the total movement, which barely 1500 bales, was effected at unusually irregular. The offering supply was ample, but active from the opening to the close of business of most descriptions have had to succumb to general depreciation created by the decline in gold and foreign exchange. Most factors resisted all overtures for concessions, however few had to realise, and as the latter condition to dictate terms, they had to decline of about ⅛c. ⅌ lb all round. We revised our figures, and would now quote [illegible] ⅌ lb., good ordinary 20½@20½c., low [illegible] @22c., and middling 22½c.

SUCCESSION SALE.

Succession of Lewis F. Holt, deceased.

STATE OF LOUISIANA—Parish of Caddo. By virtue and in pursuance of an order of the honorable James I. Weems, Judge of the 10th Judicial District Court of the State of Louisiana, in and for the parish of Caddo, and a commission thereon issued by the Clerk of said Court, directed to me, or to any duly commissioned auctioneer in and for the parish of Caddo, will be sold at public auction, in the town of Greenwood, parish aforesaid, on Saturday, the 23 day of March, 1867,

between the hours of 10 o'clock A. M. and 4 o'clock P. M., That certain tract or parcel of land known as the Lewis F. Holt plantation, situated in said parish of Caddo, about four miles southwest from Greenwood, a more particular description of which will be given on the day of sale. Said tract contains about twelve hundred acres, a good portion of which is in a high state of cultivation. It has on it a commodious and comfortable dwelling house and all the necessary outhouses, including the gin-house, and a never failing well of good water. Said plantation is in good repair, and has on it an abundant supply of oak and pine timber. Any person desiring to purchase a good farm will do well to call and examine for themselves previous to the day of sale.

At the same time and place, will also be sold the southeast quarter of the northwest quarter of section of land No. twenty-nine (29), in township sixteen (16), of range sixteen (16), known as the Highbottom tract, belonging to said succession, and containing forty acres, more or less. And also the northwest quarter of the southeast quarter and the southwest quarter of the southeast quarter of section nineteen, in same township and range, containing seventy-three acres, more or less.

Terms of sale—On a credit of twelve months. Purchasers to give their notes, with good personal security, bearing eight per cent. per annum interest from day of sale, and a special mortgage to be retained on the property sold to secure payment of the purchase money.

Acts of sale and internal revenue stamps at the expense of the purchasers.

J. S. WISE,
January 30, 1867. [5t] Administrator.
