LEGAL NOTICE—TRUSTEES' SALE.—Circuit Court of the United States, District of Louisiana.—John Newell, J. B. Alexander, and the Illinois Central Railroad Company vs. New-Orleans, Jackson and Great Northern Railroad Company, New-Orleans, St. Louis and Chicago Railroad Company, and others.—In Equity, No. 7,789. Under and by virtue of the power and authority conferred by the Circuit Court of the United States for the District of Louisiana, in a decree rendered in the above entitled cause at the November Term of the said Court, A. D., 1876, and under the terms of the Deed of Trust established in the said decree, as made by the New-Orleans, Jackson and Great Northern Railroad Company in favor of Edmund J. Forstall, John Newell, and Junius B. Alexander, their successors and assigns, bearing date the first (1st) day of May, A. D. 1872, and to provide for the payment of the debts therein described, we, the undersigned surviving trustees, will sell at Public Auction, to the highest bidder, under the superintendence and direction of T. A. Woolley, Special Master in the above-entitled cause, as provided and directed in the said decree, the entire property embraced in the said deed of trust, at the City of New-Orleans, in the State of Louisiana, on SATURDAY, the seventeenth (17th) day of March, A. D. 1877, in front of the Custom-house in said city, between the hours of 12 m. and 2 p. m. of that day.
The property described in the said decree and the deed of trust, being the railroad of the said corporation (the New-Orleans, Jackson and Great Northern Railroad Company), commencing within the City of New-Orleans, and extending northwestwardly into the State of Mississippi, to Canton in that State, with all of the extensions of the said railroad and branches thereof, in either of the States of Louisiana or Mississippi, with all of the corporate franchises, privileges, and immunities specified in the deed of trust, or conveyed thereby, including the franchise to be a corporation and to connect with others, and with all and singular the movable and immovable property of every nature and kind whatsoever, held at the date of the said Deed of Trust or acquired subsequently, with the rights of way, structures, improvements and all the appurtenances owned and occupied for operating or doing the business of the said Railroad, including all the locomotives, Station Houses, Engine Houses, Car-Houses, Freight-houses, Storehouses, Sheds, Machine-Shops, Repair-Shops, Business-Houses, Offices, Buildings and Furniture, all of the Rolling Stock, Cars, Engines, Tenders, Tools, Fuel, and all materials used or employed for the operation and business of the said Railroad, with the power to collect the Tolls, Rents and Incomes therefrom, and all the right, title and estate of the said Corporation and its assigns, as fully as the same are granted by the Deed of Trust aforesaid, and which we are authorized by the said Deed and Decree of the Court aforesaid.
The sale of the said property will be made in bulk for cash to the highest bidder at the time of the sale.
The right of the bondholders to purchase the said property is reserved in the decree.
JOHN NEWELL, JUNIUS B. ALEXANDER, } Surviving Trustees.
F. A. WOOLFLEY, Special Master.
N. B.—An inventory of the property has been filed in said court by the Receiver of the said railroad, which can be seen on application to the clerk of the court. jan8 3aw5w
