PRICE 12½ CENTS. NEW ORLEANS SATURDAY MORNING, DECEMBER 22 1838. VOL.—VI No 1830

Terms of the Newspaper Press of New Orleans

[illegible]

Six dollars per annum, if paid in advance; or Eight dollars if not paid in advance. Subscribers who do not give notice of their intention to discontinue their papers at the expiration of their subscription, will be considered as wishing to continue their subscriptions, and will be charged accordingly.

Advertisements not specified as to time, will be published one month, and charged accordingly.

Advertisements for bankrupt sales will be published in any case, unless notice to the contrary is given, or payment guaranteed by a responsible person in town.

Theatres and other places of amusement, advertised daily in the season, to be charged $10 for English notice, and $15 in both languages.

All matter in the nature of advertisements, or notices of political meetings, will be charged double the price of other advertisements.

Owing to the immense circulation of this paper, it has been made to be a medium of communication between the merchants of Europe, and the planters of the South and West, and as such it is now considered by them. Its circulation in the Mississippi valley, and throughout the Southern States, is more than double that of any other paper in the city, and it is read by every man who has any business to transact with the city of New Orleans.

Subscribers who do not receive their papers regularly, will confer a favor by giving us a note to that effect, addressed to the Publisher, or by leaving it at the Office, No. 5 Carondelet street
