FOR NEW YORK.

[Louisiana and New York Line of Packets.]

THE Ships composing this line will sail from New Orleans and New York on every other Monday—commencing on the 20th November—and to insure the punctuality in the time of sailing, the line will hereafter consist of five ships, viz:

Ship Yazoo, Captain Trask, to leave on the 20th November.
Ship Louisville, Captain Palmer, to leave on the 4th December.
Ship Huntsville, Captain Eldridge, to leave on the 18th December.
Ship Vicksburg, Captain Woodhouse, to leave on the 1st January.
Ship Mississippi, Captain Davis, to leave on the 15th of January.

The above are all new, of the first class, copper d and copper fastened, and upwards of 500 tons burthen, are of light draught of water, being built in New York expressly for the trade. The price of passage is fixed at 100 dollars; their cabins are fitted up in the most improved and convenient plan, and finished in a neat and elegant style.—Ample stores of the first quality will be provided, and every regard paid to the comfort and entire satisfaction of passengers, who will please take notice that no berth can be secured until paid for at the office of the consignees.

These vessels are commanded by captains well experienced in the trade, who will give every attention and exert themselves to accommodate their shippers. They will be towed up and down the Mississippi by steamboats, and the strictest punctuality observed in the time of sailing.

The owners of these ships will not be responsible for any letter, parcel or package, sent by or put on board of them, unless a regular bill of lading be signed therefor, at the consignee house of the agent or owners. For further particulars apply to

THE Genuine Indian Balsam of Liverwort and Horehound, is put up in bottles and in vials, 25 cents each, containing the strength of three ounces of Liverwort, best for the virtues of many other roots and herbs known among the Indians as efficacious in curing pulmonary complaints.

The astonished success which has attended the use of this inestimable Balsam wherever it has been introduced, has obtained the confidence and recommendations of respectable physicians, for the cure of coughs, colds, pain in the side, want of rest, spitting of blood, liver complaint, &c.

To whom it may concern. This is to certify that we have in our practice frequently prescribed Mrs. Gardner's Indian Balsam of Liverwort, and it has proved a decided good effect; we can therefore, from the knowledge of the materials it is made from, and from our experience, recommend it as a popular preparation for all those affections of the lungs for which it is recommended. COMPOUND TONIC MIXTURE.—A speedy and certain remedy for the Fever and Ague, pleasant and unexceptionable, being prepared from the original recipe. Used with unanimit and universal success in 1832, by persons of the highest respectability, as stated in the annexed certificates.

This medicine is highly recommended, and has been extensively used on the above diseases with such distinguished success, that the proprietors of the recipe have been induced to offer it to the public in its present form in the hope that it may be the means of relieving many of those who are still being under the scourge of an ague. Having some persons possessing great skill, and a long used practice, to the operations less never failed of effecting a cure, even in the most obstinate stage of the disorder. It is not only descriptive, and persons of the weakest stomach, can take it easy without nausea.

Patronage, the disposition of the proprietors, or prices in a pecuniary and seldom requires more than one, or in obstinate cases, two bottles to effect a cure. There is neither necessity nor absence in the medicine, for any fear of injuries to the human constitution. The proprietors are so well convinced of its efficacy, that they agree to refund the price of every bottle which has been taken in accordance with the directions and has not effected a perfect cure of the fever & ague.
