FOR NEW YORK.

New York & New Orleans Line.

A NEW LINE of packets has been established to run between New Orleans and New York, to consist of the first nine ships, viz:

Ship St. Mary,	R W Foster,	master,
" Republican,	J G Russell	"
" Ancona,	H P Dudley,	"
" ———	new	"
" ———	building,

These ships were built in New York expressly for this trade, are of a light draught of water, and will not be subject to detention at the Bar. Their accommodations for passengers surpass all that may be required for comfort and convenience, and their commanders are men of esp rience. Until the ships now building are completed, two first class ships will supply their places.

The greatest punctuality will be observed in the time of sailing, and every reasonable accommodation extended to shippers and passengers.

For further particulars apply to Messrs. Johnson & Livingston, No. 56 Wall street, New York, or to PETER LAIDLAW, 56 Camp st

FOR NEW YORK.

[Regular and New York Line of Packets.]

To sail regularly as advertised from each Port.

THE line is at this moment composed of the following ships, but in more new vessels will be put on at early day, making the number twelve in all, which will enable them to dispatch a ship from every week during the year, thus affording to merchants facilities for transportation and at the lowest rates of freight.

Ship Yazoo,	Captain Trask.
" Mississippi,	" Peake.
" Louisville,	" Allen.
" Sarah,	" Holdsworth.
" Mediterranean,	" Eldridge.
" Sheffield,	" Palmer.

The above ships are all of the first class, coppered and copper fastened, and have been built expressly for the trade, and have not been employed in any other business, nor have they ever taken a cargo of cotton, and consequently are free from the taint of cotton, which is so injurious to the cotton in other vessels.

Not in the power to insure against the injury which may be occasioned by the vessels will be taken at the lowest rates of freight, and the greatest promptitude observed as to the time of sailing.
