The deficit for last year was made up by drafts upon the surplus of June 1, 1879, reducing it from $772,470 to $103,255 July 1, 1880. The increase in miles of lines last year was 2,638 miles against an increase of 1,985 miles for the preceding year, and the increase in wires last year was 21,968 miles, against 5,364 miles increase for the preceding year, and the charges to construction last year were $1,123,584, against $138,319 for the preceding year, an increase in cost that is largely in excess of the proportion of increased mileage of lines and wires.

The capital stock of the company is $41,073,410, of which there is in the treasury belonging to the company $58,855 50, leaving the amount outstanding on the 30th of June, 1880, $41,014,554 50.

The bonded debt at the close of the year was as follows:

Bonds due March 1, 1900, 6 per cent (sterling bonds)	$961,398 00
Bonds due May 1, 1900, 7 per cent	3,200,000 00
Bonds due May 1, 1902, 7 per cent	1,373,000 00
	$6,294,398 00
Less amount of sinking funds and accrued interest thereon, held by the Union Trust Company Trustees	158,078 36
	$6,096,219 64

During the year £2,100 of the sterling bonds, due March 1, 1900, were redeemed by the trustees of the sinking funds.

The report of the results of the business for the year ended June 30, 1880, compared with that of the preceding year, is as follows:
