TO THE REFORMERS OF ENGLAND

God bless ye, brothers!—in the fight
Ye're waging now ye can not fail,
For better is your sense of right
Than king-craft's triple mail.

Than tyrant's law, or bigot's ban,
More mighty is your simplest word;
The free heart of an honest man
Than crosier or the sword.

The great hearts of your olden time
Are beating with you, full and strong
All holy memories and sublime
And glorious round ye throng.

The bluff, bold men of Runnymede
Are with ye still in times like these;
The shades of England's mighty dead,
Your cloud of witnesses!

The truths ye urge are borne abroad
By every wind and every tide;
The voice of nature and of God
Speaks out upon your side.

The languid pulse of England starts
And bounds beneath your words of power,
The beating of her million hearts
Is with you at this hour!

Press bravely onward!—not in vain
Your generous trust in human kind;
The good which bloodshed could not gain
You peaceful zeal shall find.

Trees on!—the triumph shall be won
Of common rights and equal laws,
The long-lost dream of Harrington,
And Sidney's good old cause.

Press on!—and we who may not share
The toil of victory of your fight,
May ask, at least, in earnest prayer,
God's blessing on the right!

Monetary and Commercial.

MONETARY.

OFFICE OF THE DAILY REPUBLICAN,
FRIDAY EVENING, May 22, 1868.

The commercial week closes this evening with a quiet money market, without any material variation in rates, and a fair supply of available capital for all strictly A1 paper, but little or none to be had on second class unless on very onerous terms. Hence, while we note continued ease so far as regards the former, parties who offer the latter complain of unabated stringency. Street notes may be quoted at 1 @ 1 cent month for A1, and 1½@1½ per cent for second grade, and at 11@12 ¢ cent ¢ annum for first-class mortgage paper, with exceptional transactions at 10, and at 13@15 for that which ranks in a lower class. The banks continue to discount none but the approved business paper offered by their customers, and are free lenders on satisfactory collaterals.

Gold opened at 140@140¼ (against 139¾ at New York) and after a limited business closed at 140¼@140¾. The sales include $4000 at 140¼; $1000, $2500, and $10,000 at 140¼; and $4000, $10,000, and $14,000 at 140¾. Nothing of any moment was reported in silver. American half dollars are quoted at 135@136¾, and Mexican dollars at 143¾ in currency, and 2@2¼ premium in gold.

With a very limited supply of foreign exchange the only sales reported were £4000 bill of lading sterling at 153; 60,000 At commercial francs at 5.67½; and 10,000 bank at 5.65. In addition to the sales reported yesterday £4000 bill of lading sterling sold at 153. Sterling may be quoted at 152@153¼ and 153½ for at bill of lading and clear, and 154@154½ and 154¾ for bank; and francs at 5.70@5.67½ for the former, and 5.65 for the latter.

The market for domestic exchange was extremely dull. The banks continued to check on New York at ½ cent premium, at which they met a limited counter demand. The sales of commercial included $5000 and $10,000 New York sight at ¼ premium, some smaller sums at the same, $20,000 in two equal amounts and $15,000 at 5-16, and $19,000 ninety days at ½ ¢ cent discount.

With the exception of 25 shares New Orleans city railroad at an advance we heard of no transactions in stocks at private sales, but at auction for account of the succession of M. J. Newman (Nelligan & Bassett, auctioneers), 119 shares Union Bank sold at $35, and 100 shares Mississippi steam ferry company (on which $7500 had been paid), at $50. Also $6000 Mississippi Central first mortgage bonds at 59, $20,000 old Louisiana state at 51, $22,000 do, past due at 50, $1100 do at the same, $3667 unstamped coupons on do sold at 49, and $3333 State warrants at the same. City treasury notes evinced a better feeling and closed an improvement, but the only sales reported were $10,000 in two equal sums at 37½ ¢ cent discount; $6000 at 38¾, and $6000 at 39. Dealers bought the small sums offered at their counters at 38½@40, and supplied the current demand from taxpayers at 37½@38, at the succession sale noticed above $4470 State notes sold at 50. They are quoted at 49@50 discount.

COMMERCIAL

FRIDAY EVENING, May 22, 1868.

The rather encouraging accounts received to-day from Liverpool induced factors to advance their pretensions or cover up their samples, being unwilling with the merely nominal stock in first hands to meet the demand unless at stiffer rates; but as buyers refused to pay any advance on yesterday's prices, the movement was brought nearly to a stand still. The sales were consequently confined to 500 bales at figures not requiring any change in our quotations, which we repeat as follows: good ordinary 27@27½c; low middling 28@28½c; middling 29@29½c. The week's sales sum up 5950 bales, against 7600 last week, and 7700 the week before. The receipts proper, excluding the arrivals from Mobile, Florida, and Texas, amount to only 1052 bales, against 2224 last week, showing a decrease of 1024 bales. The week's exports comprise 4103 bales, embracing 2933 to Liverpool, 1200 to Barcelona, 82 to Boston, 218 to New York, and 165 to Philadelphia.

MALT AND HOPS—The demand for malt is confined to the regular customers, and the stock on hand large. The prices are easy, with a downward tendency. We now quote $2 80@3 for Western; and $2 90@3 10 for Canada. There is a great deal of inferior hops offering at very low figures.

TEAS AND SPICES—Is dull at $1 3 ¢ lb.
