HORY NOTE CASE IN THE SUPREME The case of Nelligan & Von Zinken e Musbach was appealed from the District Court, and was instituted to $600, alleged to be due on a proma-te, payable on demand. The de-filed an exception, averring want of demand. The plea of the defense side, and judgment given on the he court confirms the decision of below, with damages for a frivo-al.

ON A LEASE IN SUPREME COURT.—of Amaron Ladoux vs. A. A. Jones G. A. Sandford, is an action by plaintiff against the lessee Jones and his sureties, Whitney and Sandford, based on a written contract of lease, to recover of defendants in solido the sum of $3437 50, as balance due on the lease of a dwelling. There was judgment against all the parties, but Sandford alone has appealed. The premises were vacated before the time specified in the lease expired. The plaintiff received the house, but at the same time declared his intention of holding the parties liable for the rent due and to become due. The question for the court to decide is, whether the sureties of this contract of lease have been discharged by any act of the plaintiff.

The sureties are responsible for the acts of the lessee; they bind themselves to become so. If the lessor does no act to produce the abandonment, the principal and sureties are bound by the terms of the contract. See C. C. 668. The law does not, however, require the lessor to enforce his lien against the lessee before the surety can be held liable. On these recognized principles the court below gave judgment for plaintiff, and the decision is confirmed, the court seeing no reason to reverse it.

OFFICE CHIEF COMMISSARY OF SUBSISTENCE, New Orleans, La., November 26, 1868.

PETIT ANSE SALT MINES.—We copy the following from the Times of this morning:

We are glad to learn that C. P. Chouteau, Esq., one of the solid men of St. Louis, has just arrived in Louisiana for the purpose of remaining. He has connected himself with the great enterprise of developing the salt mines of Petit Anse, and has brought with him forty expert miners who have had experience in English and other salt works. The great salt deposit at Petit Anse is one of the geological wonders of the world. So large a mass of pure salt has nowhere else been discovered, and the marvel is how it took its rise in the centre of an immense marsh and become so wonderfully pure. The extent of the deposit is practically without limit, and all that is required to give it a value, which can scarcely be expressed by the alphabet of numbers, is a railroad connection with this city and with Texas. We trust that Mr. Chouteau will prove an Alladin, capable of bringing the rich crystalizations of this storehouse of wealth into golden and productive uses. He is well known to be a gentleman of enterprise and intelligence. We welcome him to Louisiana.

PARAGRAPHS.—Among the jurors empanneled in the District Court yesterday were W. B. Floyd, of the Varieties Theatre, David Bidwell, of the Academy of Music, and Mark F. Bigney, of the Times.

Sergeants Malone any Harkins succeeded in capturing, about half past eight o'clock last evening, on St. Philip street, Francis Roberts, alias "Irish," who recently escaped, in company with Hugh Kennedy, from the Second District Lockup, while awaiting trial on a charge of rape. Kennedy was arrested on the day following their escape.

The alarm of fire at half-past seven o'clock last evening was caused by a fire breaking out in the clothing store of Mr. Myer, No. 60 Girod street. Before the flames were subdued both the building and stock were badly damaged. The property is reported as insured in the Germania Insurance Company.

Elizabeth Singer has been arrested by Special Officer Dumas, charged with being accessory to the burglary committed at the residence of L. Bush, a butcher, on Chippewa street, on the night of the twenty-second instant. Nine hundred and ninety dollars were stolen from the trunks of two journeymen butchers in the employ of Mr. Bush. Mrs. Singer is supposed to have possession of the money.

A stranger in the city was robbed at the Stock Landing, yesterday, of a pocketbook containing seven hundred dollars. He was putting some money in it when it was snatched from his hand and the thief made off. He says his name is David Sargent, and that he resides in Bowie county, Texas.

Jessie Burns made an affidavit, yesterday, against Thomas Larkins, whom she accuses of attacking her yesterday with a knife and threatening to kill her. She says he would certainly have taken her life but for the interference of a gentleman who happened to be in the house.

An inquest was yesterday held by Coroner Avila upon the body of a stillborn colored child, found dead at 147 Burgundy street. The mother of the child was a white girl about twenty years old. The jury rendered a verdict of death from an unknown cause.

Michael Kirwin fell from the roof of the new Turners' Hall, corner of Lafayette and Dryades streets, this morning, shortly after eleven o'clock, and was injured so badly that no hopes are entertained of his recovery. He was conveyed to the Charity Hospital.

The case of Police Sergeant Whittier for shooting Daniel Gleason on St. Thomas street last Saturday evening was to be taken up at one o'clock to-day by Recorder Becker for the examination of witnesses in the case. The testimony can not materially differ from that before the Coroner. Whittier will probable be sent to the First District Court for trial for manslaughter.

Between seven and ten o'clock last night a piece of muslin valued at $8 was stolen from the dry goods store of Mr. Miller, corner of Jackson and New Levee streets.

An outrage was the arrest yesterday of men under these circumstances: Peter Peconio was arrested on the levee charged with peddling oysters without a license: Salvador Julliance was arrested on Constance street charged with peddling oysters without a license. By-and-by it will be an offense against the city to breathe without a license. The license should be revised and many trades left without restriction.
