Instruction.

For Boys and Young Men—City.

AS WAS PREDICTED,
PACKARD'S COLLEGE had a grand opening yesterday, notwithstanding the hot weather. More new students were registered than ever before in a single day; and the number of old members returning to work after vacation was very encouraging. The prospects now are that the facilities—ample as they are—will fall short of the demand for seats. Therefore—we only throw out the suggestion—would it not be well for those who have fixed their hearts on Packard's to come in soon and secure places? Any time this week will do, probably, but the sooner the better. People are opening their eyes to the fact that whatever culture a boy or girl may secure, at school or at home, a practical useful education should lie at the bottom. This is just the education that PACKARD'S COLLEGE furnishes, and does it as no other school does. Address S. S. PACKARD, 805 Broadway.

A CLASS for Young Gentlemen and private instruction. Term begins September 28. Apply to Mr. THOMAS REEVES ASH, 145 West 45th-st. after Sept. 11.

NEW-YORK MILITARY ACADEMY,
FORT WASHINGTON, N. Y.
Established 1854.
Superintendent—JOHN B. HAYS, M. D.,
REOPENS SEPT. 4, 1882.
A Boarding School of the highest grade, whose three-fold goal, and scrupulously followed, is to mould, at an early age, the intellect of youth by science, the will by obedience, and the feelings by religion; never separating these three great requisites, instruction, discipline, religion, while fitting for every profession.
Situated on Washington Heights, about ten miles up the Hudson, it is reached by the Sixth Avenue Elevated Road to 155th-st. Carriages are always in waiting, or, by timely notification, the superintendent meets the arrival of any train.
A more beautiful and healthy place—on an eminence commanding the most delightful scenery—or more attractive surroundings, are not found along the fair-famed banks of the Hudson. Its buildings are unusually homelike.
There are forty acres of land attached to it, shaded and intersected by oak groves, affording ample space for play-grounds.
French, German and Spanish spoken.

Instruction.

For Boys and Young Men—Country.

SWITHIN C. SHORTLIDGE'S ACADEMY FOR YOUNG MEN AND BOYS, MEDIA, PENN., TWELVE MILES FROM PHILADELPHIA. School year opens September 12. Fixed price covers every expense, even books, &c. No extra charges. No incidental expenses. No examination for admission. Thirteen experienced teachers, all men and all graduates. Special opportunities for apt students to advance rapidly. Special drill for dull and backward boys. Patrons or students may select any studies or choose the regular English, Scientific, Business, Classical or Civil Engineering Course. Students fitted at Media Academy are now in Harvard, Yale and ten other Colleges and Polytechnic Schools.
Media has seven churches and a temperance charter which prohibits the sale of all intoxicating drinks.
Of Media a leading journal says: "The abominations which surround so many towns do not reach this. The charter of Media, which prohibits the sale of intoxicating drinks within the borough, has driven away from us the evil influences which follow in its wake. Our boys can go about without coming in contact with taverns or saloons. The beauty of our location and beautiful surroundings have won for Media the admiration of all who have visited it."
Bayard Taylor said: "I take great pleasure in recommending to parents the Academy of Mr. Swithin C. Shortlidge."
Judge George M. Van Hoesen, of New-York, says: "Swithin C. Shortlidge's Media Academy affords the best instruction."
Colonel Richard J. Hinton says: "Parents will find it not only a good school, but a home-like, cheerful establishment, in which rational ideas of training combine to make that wholesome mental, moral and physical atmosphere which is so necessary to the growth of healthy youth."
The Rev. John Long says: "Your attention to the duties of your position must make your school the serious and intelligent choice of parents and guardians."
The Hon. Thomas V. Cooper, Pennsylvania Senate, says: "I regard it as one of the finest in the State, and one in every way suited to fit a boy for any college. The principal and his assistants are well-known educators."
The New-York Graphic says: "Particular care is taken of young boys, a home-like being provided for them not usually found in boarding-schools."
PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 1, 1879.
S. C. SHORTLIDGE, Esq., Media, Penn.
DEAR SIR: I take great pleasure in expressing my satisfaction with the care bestowed upon my boy at your school, and am glad to be able to commend the institution to all parents and guardians who desire a comfortable home for their sons, to see their education, health and morals are so admirably provided for.
Very truly yours,
CHARLES H. T. COLLIS.
The Rev. J. A. Clihis, D. D., of Philadelphia, had a son at the Academy and "is glad to recommend it."
The Philadelphia Times says: "Mr. S. C. Shortlidge has been long and favorably known as a successful teacher."
The Media Record says: "Mr. S. C. Shortlidge's Boarding-School must command public attention."
The Media American says: "Altogether the past year was the most successful Mr. Shortlidge has had. The class of young men and boys was unusually excellent. The students won the respect of our citizens by their uniformly gentlemanly demeanor; they always showed a dignified self-respect, not generally characteristic of school-boys, which speaks well for the discipline and influence of the academy. We gladly make record of this as it was noticed by our people and favorably commented upon by all. But it is not surprising that Mr. Shortlidge has built up a first-class institution in our borough. He is unwearied in his work, scarcely ever leaving the Academy for even an hour at a time during school sessions. Every department thus feels at all times the master's presence. We predict for the Media Academy increased popularity and usefulness."
We heartily endorse the above well-merited notice from The Media American, and commend Mr. S. C. Shortlidge's Academy to public favor.
Rev. D. W. C. BYLESBY,
Rector of Protestant Epis. Church, Media, Penn.
Rev. EDWARD H. ROBBINS,
Pastor of Media Presbyterian Church.
Rev. S. A. HEILNER,
Pastor of Media Methodist Episcopal Church.
Rev. W. A. PATTEN,
Pastor of the Media Baptist Church.
