NEW-YORK MILITARY ACADEMY,
FORT WASHINGTON, N. Y.
Established 1854.
Superintendent—JOHN S. HAYS, M. D.,
RE-OPENS SEPT. 4, 1882.
A Boarding School of the highest grade, whose three-fold end, and scrupulously followed, is to make a man, at an early age, the highest of youth by science; the will by obedience, and the feelings or religion; never separating these three great requisites, instruction, discipline, religion, while fitting for every profession.
Situated on Washington Heights about ten miles up the Hudson it is reached by the Sixth Avenue Elevated Road to 155th-st. Carriages are always in waiting, or, by timely notification, the superintendent meets the arrival of any train.
A more beautiful and healthy position—an edifice commanding the most delightful scenery—or more attractive surroundings, are not found along the fairland banks of the Hudson. The edifice is unusually homelike.
There are forty acres of land attached to it, shaded and intersected by oak groves, affording ample space for playgrounds.
French, German and Spanish spoken.
